522.

A paper Book in 4to, before which, Sr. Simonds D'Ewes prefixed the following title, Gildas Badonicus, ſoe ſirnamed from the time of his birth, being a Britain by Nation, whoe lived about the yeare 520. His Chronicle, or hiſtorical & doleful Narration of the Conqueſt of Brittain by the Pagan Saxons, in the Engliſh Toung, which was never imprinted. This Tranſlation is from the Edition of Polydore Virgil, which was according to the antient MS. communicated to him by Cuthbert Tonſtall Bp. of Dureſme, as the ſame Polydore teſtifies in his Epiſtle dedicatory to him.

523.

A Book in 4to, wherein are contained Copies of divers Letters from Sir Philip Hoby, Mr. Comptroller, (afterwards the Lord) Paget, Sir Richard Moryſon, &c. touching their Negotiations abroad; written to the Lords of the Privy Councill in England, & vice verſa. The ſum of theſe Letters are as follows.

1. The Commiſſioners to the Counſell, from Bruſſells, the 20th of July, 1553. That the Emperor was not pleaſed that K. Edward VI. had declared the Lady Mary to be a Baſtard, & limited the Succeſſion otherwiſe than his father had done: That his Ambaſſadors could have no Audience ſince K. Edward's death; or that the Queen of Scotland was married to the Dolphin, who might alſo have pretentions to England, ſince his wife is deſcended from the eldeſt Siſter, & Q. Jane but from the youngeſt. He would have the differences between Q. Jane & the Lady Mary determined by Parliament, without force or violence, and that the ſaid Lady Mary ſholde be maried to ſome Noble Man of Englande, ſo that the Realme ſholde remayne in Governaunce of Polecy and Religion, as now it is. That the Emperor was jealous upon Mr. Dudley's being ſent into France, as thinking he was Sr. Andrew Dudley, and that he was ſent for ſome practiſe. That he delayed to give audience to Mr Shelley who came over to him with a meſſage from Qu. Jane, 1.

2. The Counſaile to Sr. Philip Hoby, from Grenewich, the 21ſt of Aprell 1550. touching the refuſal which Sebaſtian Cabot made to the Emperor's Embaſſador, either to go to Spain, or to the Emperor at his requeſt. And concerning the Goods which the Emperors ſubjects claimed, tho taken by the Engliſh in French Ships. They ſhew the obliging Anſwer lately made to the Emperors Ambaſſador, to the Propoſal he made for a marriage between the Lady Mary, & the King of Portingalle's brother. And alſo, to his propoſal that the King would grant the Lady Mary a Licence or Diſpenſation under his Seale, for her to continue in that faſhion of Worſhip which ſhe now uſithe; which was refuſed; & he required to counſel her for the future to hear Maſs only in her Cloſet, & not to keepe, as it were, an open Churche for all the Servaunts & Neighbours to reſorte thither to Maſſe, and ſo to offend openly God & the King's Lawes, incurring therby great daunger, & inducing a manner of ſciſme in this Commonwealthe. They give a particular anſwer to the Emperors furmiſe as if by the laſt Treaty with France, England had made Peace with the Scotts, contrary to the treaty with him; by which, England was not to make any Peace with the Scotts (being a common enemy) without his Conſent in writing. 6.

3. Sir Philip Hoby & Sr. Richard Moryſon, &c. from Bruſſells, the 15th of July, 1553. Shewing the communication they had with Don Diego, who offer'd (the Conſent of the Emperor his maſter firſt had) to ſerve the new King of England his godchild, as far as he ſhould be able; that Don Franceſco di Eſte General of the Italian Foot, had made the ſame offer. NB. this Don Diego then told them, that K. Edw. by his Teſtament had barr'd both his ſiſters of the Crown, and left the ſame to the Lady Jane. 11. b.

*3. The ſame, from Bruſſells, the 17th July, 1553. Shewing what paſs'd at the Audience they had of the Emperor, when they acquainted him with the news of the deceaſe of K. Edw. VI. at which he ſeemed to be much grieved, and ſpake much in his commendation. As alſo that he promiſed to continue his Amity with England. 13.

4. A Note that the King (Q. Jane's husband) had written to the Regent of the Lowe-Countries, ſignifying to her Mr. Chamberlayn's revocation (i. e. Sir Tho. Chamberlayne's) and deſiring her, in all his affayres, to give audience & full credit, to Sr. Philip Hoby. 13. b.

5. The Council to Sir Philip Hoby, the 20th of Auguſt, 1552. touching Ledes the Receiver of the Earle of Arundell's revenues, who refuſeth to deliver enie parte of the Monei he hath in his handes, unto the Counteſſe of Arrundell, either for the maintenance of her familie, or for th'entertainment of th' Earle her huſbands expenſes. 14.

6. The Counſell to the Commiſſioners (i. e. Tho. Thirleby Bp. of Norwich, Sr. Rich. Moryſon, & Sr. Phil. Hoby) 5th of May, 1553. directing them to conſider further, & ſend their Opinions about a League to be made with the Princes of Germany; and giving them orders how to demean themſelves, in caſe of the Emperors death, which was then expected. 14. b.

7. Sir Philip Hoby from the Emperours Courte to the Duke of Somerſet, the 19th of January, 1548. relating the particulars occurring at the Audience he laſt had of the Emperor, and of the Conference he had with Monſr. d'Arras his Miniſter, touching the diſembarking of certain French and Scotts, at Dunkirke, and of Ringrane (a Rebel of the Emperor) his Departure out of Scotland either into Fraunce, or his owne Country to reteine more men: with their Anſwer thereunto. And a Complaint of a Flemiſh Ship (laden in Britaigne) that was taken into Jerſey. That the French have lately ſent 2000 men into Scotland. That there are ſundry diſcourſes made there, of the proceedings in Englande in matters of Religion; That the Proteſtants have good hope (and pray earneſtly therfore) that the Kings Majeſtie beinge warned by the late ruine of Germanie, happened by the Buſhopes continuance in their princely & lordly eſtate; will take Order for the redreſſe therof in his dominions, & apoint unto the good Buſhoppes an honeſt & competent Lyving, ſufficient for their maintenance; taking from them the reſte of thies wordly poſſeſſions & dignities, & therby avoide the vaine glorie that lettethe them truly & ſyncerely to do their Office & preach the Goſpell and Worde of Chriſte. But the Papiſts, the contrary. And upon a fine appearance which was made by 1500 Horſe, appointed to go towards Spires, to meete the Prince of

Num. 523.

Spaine, he grounds a Propoſal for converting all the Prebends in England, to the raiſing of ſuch Troops of Horſe, for the defence of our Countrey, and maintenance of honeſt, poore Gentlemen. 16.

8. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet from Bruſſells, the 15th of January, 1548. deſiring that due care may be taken of the Office of the Ordinance, which was incorporated by K. Henry the VIIIth, and not ſince confirmed; which with the non-payment of their debts, has brought them into decay. 20. b.

9. Poſtſcript of a Letter of the Privy Councill, ſpecifying that the Ringrave had ſtowlen away, to the detrimente of th'Emperors affares, as well as thoſe of England. 21.

10. The Duke of Somerſet, from Somerſet-place, the 23d of January, 1548. to Sir Philip Hoby, directing him to repair to the Emperor, & ſhew him that the Hoies belonging to his ſubjects, & ſtaied thro' miſtake were all releaſed; and to deſire him thereupon to releaſe the Engliſh Merchants & their Ships, &c. which he had cauſed to be arreſted at Antwerp. 21. b.

11. Sir Philip Hoby from Auſpurg, the 13th of Junij, 1548. to the Duke of Somerſet; concerning the preparations made by the King of the Romans to attack certain Forts on the frontiers of Tranſylvania, now belonging to K. John's ſon, who is very young; and of the likelyhood of the young Prince's having recourſe to the Turk, upon ſuch an occaſion. That the Interim is not as yet publiſhed, but is in the Preſſe. 22.

12. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; giving a great character of Mr. Mount, who was going to Straſbourg, from whence he would advertize his Grace of ſuch things as ſhould come to his knowledge. 23.

13. The Duke of Somerſet to Sir Philip Hoby, from Grinwich the 5th of May, 1549. directing him to diſcover the practiſes of the French King with the German Princes near the Elbe, & other maritime parts, of Germany; whereby they had gotten in a readineſs 22,000 Foot, & 3,000 Horſe, to be employed in caſe any thing otherwiſe than well ſhould happen to the Emperor, whoſe death the French King dayly expected. 23. b.

14. The Counſell to Sir Philip Hoby, the 28th of July, 1550. directing him, with Dr. Wotton, or (Sr. Robert) Bowes; to give their anſwer of excuſe to the Emperors Ambaſſador, who had demanded the aſſiſtance of England, in the Emperors Warrs with France; and to offer his Majeſties mediation towards a Peace. 25.

15. The Counſell to Sir Philip Hoby . . . . Novemb. 1551. ordering him to ſend Grave, Neudigate, & Hamond the next day to Court, ſeverally; in order to their examination. That he & the Lieutenant of the Tower ſhould take away the Garter & Collar of the Order from the Duke of Somerſett; and acquaint him that he ſhould be tried for his Treaſons the next Tueſday, tho' he would confeſs nothing at his examination. 26.

16. The Counſaylle to Sir Philip Hoby, 14 of Aprell, 1552, ordering him & Armigell Waade to examine the Lady Suſſex ſtrictly upon certain Articles. 26. b.

17. The Council to Sir Philip Hoby, directing him to move the Emperor, or Monſieur d'Arras in the behalf of the Count de Rangone, who had received an injury from the Council of Milain. ibid.

18. The Duke of Somerſet to Sir Philip Hoby, to deſire the Emperors furtherance in the paſſage of 300 Horſe hired of Hacquenford, to be employed againſt the Scotts. 27.

19. The Council to . . . . from Sion the 4th of October, 1548, certifying him that the Daniſh Ambaſſadors told Mr. Mount, that they had offer'd to him, & to the Bp. of Weſtminſter (Thirlby) the mediation of the King their maſter, in order to putt an end to the Wars between England, & the French & Scotts.

Num. 523.

They thereupon direct him, to ſet forth the provocations his Majeſty has (as well as his ſubjects) received from both the French & Scotts, & that tho' in the courſe of theſe Warres, the loſs has been on the enemies ſide, yet the King is willing to hearken to the mediation of his Daniſh Majeſty; and will accordingly, ſend a Perſon of Note to conſer with him thereupon. 27. b.

20. The Duke of Somerſet to Sr. Philip Hoby, the 26th of January, 1548. that Mr. John Dimmocke the bearer, is ſent to him ſecretly, to concert with him the meanes of levying 2000 Foot, about Friezeland, with all ſpeed, to go againſt the Scotts: with directions to gett the Emperors licence for their paſſage, and how to anſwer his ſcruples thereupon, in caſe any ſhould ariſe, 29. b.

21. The Counſell to Sir Philip Hoby; from Grinwich the 19th of Januarij, 155?. ſignifying his Majeſties & their p'eaſure, that he ſhould endeavour to be elected a Member of the Houſe of Commons. 31.

22. The Counſell to Sr. Philip Hoby, the 2d of March, 1552. notifying to him the Kings pleaſure that he ſhould go, his Ambaſſador into France; in caſe it would conſiſt with his health. 31. b.

23. The Counſell, to Sr. Philip Hoby, the 27th of March, 1552. haſtning his departure as his Majeſties Embaſſador to the Emperor. 32.

24. The Counſell to Sir Philip Hoby, from Grenwich the 3d of July, 1553. directing him to complain to the Queen-Regent, of the piracies committed by the Fleet, upon the Engliſh Merchants; and upon failure of ſufficient redreſs, to threaten that the King would make repriſals. ibid.

25. The Biſhop of Norwich (Thirleby) Sir Philip Hoby, & Sr. R. Moryſon, to the Counſaile, the 9th of June, 1553. ſhewing what paſs'd at the Audiences they had, firſt of the Queen-Regent; and afterwards, of the Emperor himſelf; who ſeem'd well inclined to a Peace with France, who had begun the War with him, if it might be done in Terms ſuitable to his Honor. And that finding the Emperor weake, leane, & pale, (tho' not ſo bad as they before believed) their opinion was that he would not continue long. 33.

26. The ſame (as it ſeems) to the Council in England, recounting what was ſaid at the audience they had of the Queen-Regent, in the preſence of Monſr. d'Arras, touching the pains the King took in this mediation of Peace between the Emperor & France. And in what manner they reſented the extravagance of the French Kings demands. 34. b.

27. The Counſaile, touching the method to be taken in mentioning certain matters to the Emperor; and requiring . . . to keep a watchful eie upon the King of the Romans, & Maximilian the King of Bohemia. 37.

28. The Counſaile (to the ſame Ambaſſadors, at Bruſſells, as it ſeems) upon the delay the ſaid Miniſters meet with, as to an anſwer to the matters by them propos'd to the Emperors Miniſters; which likewiſe occaſions his Majeſties Ambaſſadors in France, to conſume much time there, to little purpoſe. 37.

29. A ſhorte Note of the Charge committed to John Sheres, ſent of late to the King of Romans. 1. To ſhew the Kings will to continue the ancient amity with the Houſe of Auſtria, & particularly to the King of the Romans & Maximilian King of Bohemia. 2. To deſire the King of the Romans to aſſiſt the King, in his endeavours to procure Peace between the Emperor & France. And to fiſh out their intentions with relation to the Low Countries, in caſe of the Emperors death. 3. To learn what practices, Leagues & Confederacies, are between the King of the Romans & any other Princes 38. b.

30. The

Num. 523.

30. The Counſaile, the 11th of June, 1553. to the Bp. of Norwich, Sr. Phillip Hoby, & Sr. Rich. Moryſon; requiring them not, as yet, to ſhew the Emperor the French Kings demands. 39. b.

31. The Counſaile, to the ſame, the 20th of June, 1553. directing them if they have not done ſo already, to write the Emperors anſwer to the unreaſonable demands of the French King, to his Majeſties Embaſſadors in France, that thereby they might apply for ſome others more equitable & moderate; or elſe gett an anſwer ſo reſolute, as to put an end to both the Embaſſades. 40.

32. The Counſaile to the ſame, from Grinewiche, the firſt of July, 1553. directing them to ſhew further to the Emperor, the Kings good mind to procure Peace; and that it may happen that the French King may abate of his extravagant demands. That if they ſhall find no hopes of Peace, they ſhould procure ſo reſolute an anſwer as may be an occaſion for their return; the King's honor, & the mutual amitie therein provided for. Finally, they affirm, that (notwithſtanding all falſe reports, at home and abroad) the King is alive, &c. 40. b.

33. The Counſaile to the ſame Commiſſioners, the 11th of July, 1553. by Mr. Shelley; ſhewing the King's death, and Succeſſion by Queen Jane. That Sr. Philip Hoby was to remain Embaſſador there, & to proceed in the Treaty of Peace if it ſhould ſo like the Emperor. That the Lady Mary (tho' ſhe had been written unto by them) ſought to diſturb the peace of the realme, by the concurrence only of a fewe, leude, baſe people. That the Duke of Northumberland & Marquis of Northampton were gone toward Norfolk, to keep that ſide of the Countrey in quiet. That they ſhould advertiſe the Emperor of theſe matters; as alſo that the Lord Cobham & Sir John Maſon were by them ſent to his Ambaſſadors here, to give them notice of the Lady Maries proceedings againſt the State of this Realme, and to putt them in remembrance of the nature of their Office, which is, not to meddle in thies cauſes of Pollicie, neither directlie nor indirectlie; and to charge them to uſe themſelves ſo as thei give no occaſion of unkindneſs to be miniſtred unto them. 43.

34. The Queene Jane to the ſame Commiſſioners with th'Emperoure, from the Tower of London, the 12th of July, 1553. notifying to them her ſucceſſion in the Crowne & Dominion of her coſin & aunceſter King Edward the VI. whoſe ſteppes ſhe intends to follow; particularly by promoting the weale of Chriſtendom, and that by proceeding in the mediation of a Peace between the Emperor & the French King. To which end, ſhe orders them to go on with the buſineſs of their Commiſſion if the Emperor ſhall be willing; if not Sir Philip Hoby to ſtay there as her Ambaſſador Reſident, & the others to return home. And that they ſhould ſhew theſe matters to the Emperor, whoſe amity, ſhe, as well as her Nobility & Councill is very deſirous to preſerve. 44.

35. Minute of a Letter (perhaps from Sr. Philip Hoby) ſhewing that ſince his laſt, nothing hath happened worthy writing: 45.

36. Queen Maries Privy Councill to the ſame Commiſſioners, from the Tower of London, the 5 day of Auguſt, 1553. ſhewing her inclination for their further ſtay, in caſe there was any likelyhood of their ſucceeding in the mediation; but ſince the contrary did appear, They order Sir Philip Hoby & Sr. Richard Moriſin, to return to the Queen's preſence, & the Bp. of Norwich to remaine there as her Embaſſador Reſident with the Emperor. 45. b.

37. The Biſhop of Norwich, Sir Philip Hoby, & Sr. Richard Moriſon to the Counſaile, the 29th of July

Num. 523.

1553. that the Emperor is ſo weake & pale, that he is not likely to live long. 46. b.

38. The ſame to Queen Maries Counſaile, the 29th of July 1553. ſhewing that tho' the Ladie Jane had ſent Mr. Shelly with Letters & Credence to the Emperor, they were not deliver'd, nor his Creditt opened, for that it pleaſed God to call the Lady Marye her Grace to the State & Poſſeſſion of the Realme, according to the Kings Majeſtie her fathers laſt Will, & the Lawes of the Realme: and beſeech their Lordſhips that they may know her Majeſties pleaſure, as to what they ſhould do. ibid.

39. The Duke of Somerſet to Sir Philip Hoby, the 13th of Auguſt, 1549. ſetting forth at large, how diſhonorably the French had proceeded with the Engliſh, preſuming upon our Kings young years, contrary to equity, reaſon & juſtice; & expreſsly contrary to the laſt Treaties between the two nations. And that at laſt, the French King had begun hoſtilities, without warning given, as he had promiſed. And that Sr. Philip ſhould acquaint the Emperor herewith. 47.

40. The Duke of Somerſet to Sir Philip Hoby, the 23d of Auguſt, 1549. directing him to publiſh, how the Lord Ruſſel Lord Privy Seale had gotten the victorie over the Rebells of Devon & Cornewall; and that certain light perſons of the hither parts of Yorkſhire, having aſſembled themſelves in diſorderly manner, for the matter of Commons, & having done ſome damage, the Gentlemen had quelled them without much difficulty. 50.

41. A Copie of my Lord Privie-Seale's Newes, ſent in the ſame Letter, wherein is particular mention of notable ſervices of the Lord Gray, & Sir William Herbert. 51.

42. The Duke of Somerſet to Sr. Philip Hoby Ambaſſador-Reſident with the Emperor, the 24th of Auguſt, 1549. deſcribing the fury that poſſeſs'd the mob in Devonſhire, Cornwall, Somerſetſhire, Norfolk, Yorkſhire, &c. ſo as that they brake-out in rebellion upon various pretences; that moſt of them had been ſufficiently chaſtized, that others had ſubmitted, & the reſt in a fear of meeting with their deſerts. That the French King had taken his advantage of theſe broils, and come down in perſon to Boulognois; and that tho' he had gained a Fort thro' the treachery of the Captain, 'twas hoped that Newhaven would be well defended againſt him. 52.

43. The Duke of Somerſet & the Counſaile to Sir Philip Hoby, the 1 of September, 1549. How the Lord Privy-Seale had quieted all things in Devonſhire, &c. and writes at large how the Earl of Warwick had reduced Ket the Tanner & his rebellious companions in Norfolke. That the French King, in perſon by treacherous practiſes had taken firſt the Fort called the Almaine Campe, being the Key to Newhaven, afterwards the Fort of Newhaven it ſelf, & then another piece called Blackneſſe, and hopes to get Bulloigne. But, now the inteſtine jarres are appeas'd, they truſt, he will find but ſmall cauſe of boaſting in the end, tho' he had begun the war ſo diſhonorably, & at a time when they were obliged rather to attend to the pacifying things at home. 53. b.

44. The Counſaile to Sr. Philip Hoby, the 16th of January, A.D. 1549. giving him thanks for his Advertiſements: and ſignifying, that Mr. Anthony Guidot is come out of France, & brought word that the French King being deſirous to treat of Peace, has named Commiſſioners accordingly; and that the King hath appointed the Lord Privy Seale, the Lord Paget, Sir William Petre & Sir John Maſon to treat with them. That the Earle of Arundell, Sir Thomas Arundell, & Mr Rogers, were ſequeſter'd to their Houſes; but that the report as if the Earl of Southampton was ſequeſter'd alſo, is untrue. 56.

Num. 523.

45. The Council to Sr. Philip Hoby, &c. directing him to assist the servant of Count Ludovico Rangone, in solliciting his Masters business with the Emperor, since he hath always shewed himself affectionate towardes the Kinges Majesty; and hath presently bestowed one of his sonnes in service with his Highnes. 56. b.

46. Sir William Paget Comptroller of the Household, to the Lord Protector; relates the particulars of his passage to Brussells; his reception there by the Emperors Ministers, &c. at the Audiences he & Sr. P. Hoby had of the Empero-, & the Queen of Hungary; and at a Conference with the Duke of Alba, Granvela, & his son Monsr. d'Arras. The businesse he was charged withal, was to encrease the amity between the Emperor & K. Edw. VI. which might be done more effectually, if they would agree that the Treaty between the Emperor & K Henry VIII. should be revis'd, & if need should be, corrected & explained, and afterwards solemnly ratified by all the Nations under the K. of England, or which would be under the Prince of Spain. To complain of the Emperors granting his subjects (of the Lowe Countries) Safe-Conducts, and of their furnishing the Scotts with many necessaries. To communicate to the Emperor the state of his Majesties affairs, with relation to the French & Scotts And to propose a marriage between the Lady Mary, & Don Louis the Infanta, & brother of the King of Portugal. To all which points the Comptroller mett with very good words; but as to the last when Monsr. de Granvela desired to know the Lady Maries portion, shewing that K. Henry VIII. had given 200,000 Crownes with one of his sisters to the French King, & 100,000 Crowns with the other, to the King of Scotland; and that he had offer'd once before, 40,000l. sterling with the same Lady to the same Infanta: Mr. Comptroller declared, that notwithstanding the long warres, the King would advance what K. Henry left her, to twice so much; or peradventure to 100,000 Crownes, in case a convenient Dowry might be assured to her. 57.

47. Sir William Paget, & Sir Phillip Hoby to the Duke of Somerset; shewing how the Treaty between the Emperor & England, was revised at a Conference they had with the Emperors Ministers, and of the doubts which arose thereupon; as to which, and as to their demand that the Emperor should take B. (i. e. Boullogne) into his defence, they promised the Emperors particular answer. 64. b.

48. Sr. William Paget, to the Duke of Somerset, relating to him the Conference he had with Monsr. de Granvela, upon the Emperors not answering to the particulars mentioned in the last; and upon the practises of the French, against the Emperor & the Prince his son. 68.

49. Sir William Paget, & Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerset, touching at what past b tween them & the President St. Maurice (wherein the Transcriber thought fit to leave out almost all the busines); also the warm expressions which Mr. Comptroller used to Monsieur D'Arras, upon the Emperors not yet giving his answer, as to the doubtful expressions in the above-mentioned Treaty between him and K. Henry the VIIIth. 70.

50. Sir William Paget to the Duke of Somerset; relating to the Emperors cold answer to the particulars above-mentioned, given by Monsr. d'Arras & two Presidents, with his reply thereunto. Also his answer to some complaints made on their side, against the English. 72.

51. The Duke of Somerset & the Counsaile, to Sir Philip Hoby, declaring to him the traiterous proceedings of the Lord High Admiral, the Dukes brother, viz. that he attempted to take into his own hands the most noble person of the Kings Majestie, & intended (by bandying himself with divers persons) to havemoved plaine sedicion in the Parliament; & otherwise to have put the whole Realme in trouble & daunger; that such his practices being discover'd and he questioned, he seemed very penitent, whereupon he was forgiven, & his Living advanced almost 1000 marks per ann. That afterwards, he practised, & had almost compassed a secret marriage between himself & the Lady Elizabeth the Kings sister, & then intended to have taken into his hands & order, the person of the Kings Majestie, & of the Lady Mary, & to have disposed of his Majesties whole Counsaile at his pleasure; for all which he is putt into the Tower of London. 79.

52. The Counsaile to Sir Philip Hoby, relating the valourous acts of the Lords Shrewsbury & Gray in Scotland. 80. b.

53. The Councells Letter to Sir Philip Hoby, directing him to thank Monsr. de B for stopping a Ship of London laden with Wheat from the North, for the Kings use; which being taken by the French, was retaken by a Dutch Vessel, & brought into Flushing. ibid.

54. The Counsaile, to Sir Phillip Hoby, setting forth the continued miscarriages of Stephen Gardiner, Bp. of Winchester, which, at the last, occasioned his imprisonment in the Tower. 81.

55. The Counsaile, to Sir Philip Hoby, thanking him for his Advertisements. 82. b.

56. Minutes of Advertisements, touching the War in Scotland. 83.

57. The Bussbope of Norwiche, Sir Philip Hoby, & Sir Richard Morysin, to the Councel of England, the 26th day of May, 1553. upon their Commission to negotiate a straicter amitie with th'Emperor, jointly with th'other Princes of Germany. With the doubts which arose to them thereupon; and their opinion touching the same; and the method they thought most advisable to be taken, in order to the making such a League. 85. b.

58. Sir Richard Morysen to the Councill, proposing the League, between the King, the Emperor, & the Princes of Germany; which, if effected, no Christian Prince would be able to aid the Turke; who, without Christian ayde, neither hath, nor canne annoye Christendome. 91. b.

59. The Bishop of Norwich, Sr. Philip Hoby, & Sr. Richard Morisyn, to the Counsayle, 7° Maij, 1553. shewing what pass'd at the Audience they had of the Queen Regent (the Emperor being sick) when they offered the mediation of England, for a Peace between the Emperor & France 93.

60. The same, to the Council, from Brussells, the 13th of Maij, 1553. relating the Communication they had with Monsieur d'Arras, touching the mediation aforesaid. 94. b.

Herewith, they sent

61. A short discourse drawn up by Sir Thomas Chamberlayne, touching th'estate and governans of the Lowe Contreys, after Cesar's disceas. 96.

62. The Bp. of Norwich, Sir Ph. Hoby, & Sr. Rich. Morisin to the Council, shewing that they had considered together upon the League lately projected (vid. N° 57.) and had herewith sent their doubts, & opinions thereupon. 98.

63. The Council, to the same; recommending to him the case of a certain person, who as it seems, had received some injury, from certaine of the Emperors subjects. 98. b.

64. The Bp. of Norwich, Sr. Phil. Hoby, & Sr. Rich. Morysen, to the Counsaile, the 4th of June, 1553. upon the difficulties wherein they found themselves engaged; first in that the French King, in shewing his disposition toward Peace, made demands (& those unreasonable ones) instead of offers: & secondly, in that they they can have no acceſs to the Emperor. They therefore deſire to know further what they muſt do. 99.

65. Doctor Wotton, Sr. William Pickering, & Sr. Thomas Challoner, the Engliſh mediators in France, to the Council, 1ſt. . . . . 1553. That the French King & his Council, ſeem loth to make the firſt offers for Peace, before they hear of the Emperors diſpoſition thereto. That they demand the Duchie of Mylane, & Countie of Aſt; the Realmes of Naples & Cicile, & Arragone; the ſuperiorite of Flaunders, & of Arthois; the Towne of Tourney, with the Countie of Tourneſes; the Kingdome of Navarr to be reſtored to the rightfull King; & Siena thei are contente ſhal be ſet at Libertie, as before; free from the ſubjection of th'on & th'other. As for Metz, Tuill & Verdune, thei chalenge nothing but the guarde & protection thereof. etc. 100. b.

66. The Counſaile to Sir Philip Hoby . . . . July, 1553. apprizing him of the deceaſe of King Edw. vi. that he died the 6th day of this Month, of the putrefaction of the Longes, being utterly uncurable. That he ſhould declare this to the Emperor, and deſire the continuance of the auncient Amitye. 101.

67. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſett; thanking his Grace for his many acts of liberality to him; and particularly for the 4 Mules he gave him; which having done him no ſervice, he ſends him back again. 101. b.

68. Sir Phil. Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; ſending him a Copie of the Emperors Order for the reformation of Prieſts, as alter'd by the Buſhopes. The Tranſumpt of the Originall (ſuppoſed to be much different from this) he can in no wayes gett, the Buſhopes be ſo curiouſe in ſtaying it from going abrode. 102.

69. Sir Phil. Hoby to the D. of Somerſet; about their mutual receipt of Letters. ibid.

70. Sir Phil. Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; in behalf of ſome Gentlemen, who offer'd to ſerve his Majeſtie in his Warrs. ibid.

71. Minutes of particular paſſages in ſome of Sr. Philip Hoby's Letters to the Duke of Somerſet; if not rather putt down before-hand for him to uſe upon occaſion. 102. b.

72. Sir Phil. Hoby to the D. of Somerſet, in behalf of one of the Kings meſſengers; who being a right honeſt perſon, & unfainedly dedicate to the Kings Majeſties devocion, meriteth to be gratified with Thanks, or ſome good wordes. 103. b.

73. Sir Philip Hoby to the D. of Somerſet, in behalf of one of the gentlemen, before recommended by him (vid. N° 70.) whom he hears is very well qualified to be an Officer of Horſe. ibid.

74. The Counſell to Sr. Philip Hoby, thanking him for his Letters of Advertiſement. 104.

75. Extract of a Letter from the Council to Sir Philip Hoby. ibid.

76. Part of a Letter, to ſome Lord. 104. b.

77. Part of a Letter from the Duke of Northumberland (as it ſeems) to Sir Philip Hoby, in his commendation. ibid.

78. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, in behalf of a certain priſoner for debt. ibid.

79. The Engliſh Embaſſadors in France, relating the particulars of an Audience they had of the French King, and the communication they had before it, with the Conſtable, upon the ſubject of their mediation of Peace between the Emperor and that King. 105.

80. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, ſetting forth the loſſes he has incurred by the ſervice; and deſiring a recompenſe. 107. b.

81. Sir Phillip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, upon his coming over to Bruſſels, to ſucceed Thirleby Biſhop of Weſtminſter in his reſidence there. He largely deſcribes that Prelates great abilities in matters of State; & thinks it a diſadvantage to come after ſuch a Miniſter. 108.

Num. 523.

82. Sir Philip Hoby to the Lord of Somerſet, by Mr. C. (i. e. Sr. Thomas Chamberlayne. For in thoſe days 'twas as common to give the Title of Maiſter to Knights, as of Sir to Prieſts) whoſe great experience, & other good qualities he mentions at large. 108. b.

83. Sir Richard Moriſen, to the Council; which ſeems to refer to his project of a League between the Emperor, England. & the Princes of Germany; which by their command, he had communicated to his Colleagues the Biſhop of Weſtminſter, & Sir Philip Hoby. 109.

84. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, a ſhort Letter. ibid.

85. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; another. ibid.

86. The Council (as it ſeems) to Sir Philip Hoby, certifying him of the late loſs in the North; and directing him to deſire the Emperors licence to levy 1000 Horſemen, & to ſend them to Calais. 109. b.

87. The Council, to the ſame, wondering at the Emperors refuſal of their requeſt, as to the 1000 Horſe abovementioned. ibid.

88. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, as it ſeems; ſetting forth his inability to bring the matters committed to him, to the deſired effect; he haveing (as he writes) neither learning or experience; & without either knowledge of the Lawe; or practiſe in matters of Importance; voyde of the grave wiſdome & prudence required in ſuch an Office; & utterly without ſight in the Latin Tonge: and therefore deſires him to ſend over ſuch a perſonage as is throughly learned; experte in the Civile Lawe; of great practiſe & experience; ſeene in Tongs; trained in waightie affayres; ſetled in Judgement; and of ſuche gravitie, wiſdome & prudence, as were hable to encountre in whatſoever occaſion might occur, with enie ſuch as he ſhoulde have cauſe to deale withall. Such a perſon he thinks Mr. C. (whom Mr. Starkey ſuppos'd was Mr. Comptroller Paget.) 110.

89. Sir Philip Hoby (as it ſeemes) to the Duke of Somerſet, recommending G. G. to his favor. 111.

90. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, recommending Mr. H. as a godly & learned perſon; & deſiring his Grace to procure the Kings licenſe for him to preach. ibid.

91. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, in behalf of a perſon recommended to him by the Embaſſador of P. (Poland?) as injured by an Engliſhman. 111. b.

92. Sr. Phil. Hoby, to the Council? that ſundry Diſcourſes & Judgements are made in thoſe Countries, touching our communication with Fraunce. ibid.

93. Part of two Letters of the Council, concerning certain French bragges of their recovering the Towne of Hadington in Scotland, which the Lord Gray had taken & fortefied. 112.

94. The Council to Sir Philip Hoby, directing him again to recommend the caſe of Count Ludovico Rangone to the Emperor (vid. ſupra, N° 45) ibid.

95. Sir Phiiip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet, as it ſeems; thanking him for ſome new benefit (perhaps upon the application made to him, as above at N° 80) 112. b.

96. Sir Phil. Hoby to the Duke of Northumberland, reccommending the bearer. ibid.

97. Letter of Revocation to . . . . . requiring him throughly to inſtruct Sir Richard Moryſon in the buſineſs committed to his Charge, to accompany him to an Audience of the Emperor, whom he muſt acquaint with his being recalled, and that Sr. Richard is to ſucceed him, and then without delay to repair to the Preſence. 113.

98. Sir Thomas Ch. & Sr. Phiiip Hoby to the Lords of

of the Council; ſhewing what had paſs'd at the Audience they had of the Emperor, when they acquainted him with the apprehenſion of the Duke of Somerſet; and that the King deſired, for his money, to levy in his Countreys 2000 Horſe & 4000 Foot, towards the defence of Bulloigne; and what good words the Emperor returned them. 113. b.

99. The ſame; relating divers particulars of the Conference they had with Monſr. d'Arras; who (like the Emperor) gave'em good wordes; and inſiſted upon the demoliſhing of a Fort, which the Engliſh had built, partly upon the Emperors ground. 116.

100. Sir Thomas C. to the Lords of the Council, relating what paſs'd at his Audience of Leave he had of the Emperor; who deſired the King and his Counſaile to have matters of Religion recommended, to th'end we may be, at the length, all of one opinion. Till when, to ſpeak plainly, he could neither ſo earneſtly, nor ſo throughly aſſiſte his good brother, as his deſire was. 116. b.

101. Thomas Thirleby Bp. of Weſtminſter, & Sr. Philip Hoby, to the Duke of Somerſet; relating what paſs'd at the Audiences they had of the Emperor, and of the King of the Romans; and at the viſit they made Monſr. de Grandvela; when they ſhewed that the King had recalled the Bp. and had ſent Sir Philip as Ambaſſador-Reſident in his room. 117.

102. Sir Philip Hoby, to the Duke of Somerſet, in commendation of Mr. Comptroller Paget. & the great prudence wherewith he demeaned himſelf during his Negotiations at the Emperors Court. 119.

103. Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; in behalf of C. H. who (as it ſeems) was pinched too hard in his bargain, of levying Souldiers for the ſervice of England. 119. b.

104. The Council to . . . . requiring him to haſten to the Court. 120.

105. Sir William Paget & Sir Philip Hoby to the Duke of Somerſet; concerning a gentleman, who being put out of his Living by the Biſhop of Rome, offer'd to ſerve the King in his Wars, with ſome convenient number of men; and was going into England for that purpoſe, etc. 120. b.

The Booke of Solucions in my Lords Graces Journey to Cales, Bruges, & other places; Mr. Robert Carter occupyinge the Office of Stewardſhip, anno 13 mo. R. R. Henrici VIII.

This Journey is underſtood to commence on Monday 29th July; and to end on Sunday the firſt day of December following, when Cardinal Wolſey in his return dined at Sittingbourne in Kent. But beſides this Journal, here is an Account, of the velvet, ſcarlet, bonnetts, &c. delivered to the Cardinals ſervants who attended him in his Embaſſy; and of other expenſes in his family during the time above-mentioned.

N.B. At the beginning, a Leaf or two ſeem to be wanting.

621.

A Book in fol. imperfect at the beginning & end; wherein were contained,

The nine Books of John Boccace, de Caſu illuſtrium virorum & fœminarum, tranſlated into French. 'Twas deſign'd to adorn this Book with a Picture before each Chapter: but there are but few (in Compariſon) done. However, that of the Author, and of Francis Petrarch at the beginning of the VIIIth Book, may be worth looking upon.

A parchment Book in fol. much damag'd by fire, & imperfect at the beginning, viz.

John Hardynges Chronicle; with the Maps & Deſcription of the Roads of Scotland. It contains 190 leaves.

N.B. In this MS. of J. Hardyng's Chronicle (among ſeveral things which are omitted in that uncorrect Edition of it by Richard Grafton) is extant (fol. 152.) the Letter of Defiance ſent to King Henry IV. by the old Earl of Northumberland; Henry nick-named Hot-ſpur, his ſon; & the Earl of Worceſter his brother, before the Battle of Shrewſbury. And a Narration of this Author of the diſcourſes of the ſame old Earl, how John of Gaunt, when he found that the Parliament would not acknowledge him to be heir to K. Richard II. forged a title to the Crown, as if Edmund Earl of Lancaſter, &c. his wives anceſtor had been eldeſt ſon to K. Heny III. And that the Chronicle wherein the forgery was inſerted, being by the Lords compared with the Chronicles of Weſtminſter, &c. was, as Hardyng writes, annulled & reproved.

18. The Pleadings at the Trial (before the Lord Chief Juſtice Brampſton) of Mr. Thomas Harriſon Bachellor in Divinity & beneficed in Northamptonſhire, who had openly accuſed Sr. Richard Hutton one of the Juſtices of the Common Pleas, of High Treaſon; namely at the Bar of the Court of Common Pleas, while that Judge was actually ſitting & adminiſtering Juſtice there, 4 May, 1638. This Mr. Harriſon ſeems to have had a hot head, & weak judgement: for he owns the occaſion of his accuſing the Judge, to have been a Report, that the Judge's Opinion was againſt Ship-money, which he thought an Infringement of the Kings Supremacy in all cauſes, & over all perſons; and was alſo the Cauſe of Sedition, ſince to his own Knowledge the People go on in a more ſtoborne maner. 317.

19. Sir John Fynch Lord Chiefe Juſtice of the Common Pleas, his Argument for Ship-Money; June the 9th, 1638. in the Exchequer-Chamber. (on the caſe of John Hamden Eſq;) 334.

20. L'Argument del Mr. Solicitour Littelton, de inferiori Templo, fait par celuy, in Camera Scaccarij devant toutes les Judges. It is in Engliſh, and is upon the Caſe of Hambden above-mentioned, who refuſed to pay his Rate of the Ship-money. 356.

22. Articles againſt the Duke of Buckingham abovementioned. Imperf. 413.

23. The Proceedings, or proceſs of the Trial in the Court of Honor, between Donald (Mackay ?) Lord Rey, & David Ramſay Eſq; before Robert Bertie Earl of Lindſey, Lord High Conſtable of England, upon that occaſion; Thomas Howard Earl of Arundel, Earl-Marſhal of England; & other Lords Aſſeſſors; from the 28th day of November, 1638. when the Trial began, to the 18th of February following; when the weapons they were to uſe in the Duel to be had between them, were appointed. 418.

738.

A Book in fol. containing divers Law-Treatiſes promiſcuouſly bound up together.

1. A Redynge, & a Declaracion of the Auctoryties, Liberties, & Offices of a Forreſte, made upon a certayne Statute called Carta de Foreſta, by one Treherne (i. e. perhaps by George Treheyron, who was Reader of Lincoln's Inne. temp. Hen. VIII.) 1.

2. A Treatiſe of Baile & Main-priſe, written by Sir Edward Cooke, at the requeſt of Sr. William Hayden Kt. 68.

3. An Argument upon the Caſe of the Rectory of Winwick in Lancaſhire, argued in Term. Mich. 1618, inſiſting upon two Points, firſt to ſhew that a Leaſe of the ſame Rectory which James Stanley (a baſtard) Biſhop of Man, who held the Benefices of Winwick, North-Meales, Wigan, & Berwick in Elmet, in commendam, had made of that of Winwick for 90 years, bearing date ann. 5 Eliz. & reſerving only 120 l. per ann. to his ſucceſſors, who were thereby bound to all Repairs, & to the Payment of all Duties temporal & ſpiritual, was void. Secondly, that Joſiah Horne, the Plaintiffe in this Suit, was a good Incumbent. As to both which Points, the Court was in the ſame Opinion, and gave Judgement accordingly. 83.

4. Of Knights & Matters incident to the degree of Knighthoode, according to the Lawes of England.—Of Eſquires.—Of Gentlemen.—& of Yeomen. A Fragment of a Treatiſe, which is elſewhere in this Library entire; namely in the Book inſcribed. 33 C. 11. 133.

5. A brieffe Diſcours off the firſt Deviſion of England (as it is now generallye named) into Shires: with the originall, foundation, & firſt beginninge of all the Courts of Juſtice in England, with the Juriſdictions & Immunityes of the Arch-Biſhops, & other eccleſiaſticall perſons; with ſome other remarkable paſſages of State. Wrytten by William Byrde of Grayes Inne Eſq; 152.

6. Judge Dodderidge his firſt Charge to the Grand Jurie, in Banco Regis. 169.

7. His Charge to the Grand Jurie at the Aſſiſes. 172.

8. A Caſe argued inter Woodley & Manwaringe. Term. Hillar. 18 Jac. 1. in Com. Ba. Rot. 3072. 176.

After the Title, follows this Note, The Judgement upon Record hath none of the Arguments (as are here expreſſed) and this is the only Caſe they produce againſt the King's Prerogative in the point of Death of the Biſhop with Commendam. 176.

9. Relation of ſome of the Proceedings at the Trial of Arthur Gohagan, an Iriſh-man, & Dominican Frier, 25 Nov. 1633. with a particular Account of his execution at Tiburn; for ſaying at Liſbon, I will kill the King if I can come to him, becauſe he is an Heretick. 183.

Num. 738, 739.

793.

A Book in fol. treating upon the Hiſtory & Antiquities of Part of Yorkſhire; containing,

1. Notes touching the Hiſtory of the ſeveral Townes & Villages, or Haniletts, within the Hundred of Hangweſt, in the North-Riding: written, as it ſeems, by one Mr. Jennyngs, who was (as I have been informed) an induſtrious perſon, and compoſed an Ordinary of Arms, yet extant in the Library belonging to the College of Arms, where it bears his Name, & is looked upon as a Book of good uſe & authority (Another Copie of the ſame, is now here inſcribed N° 1577.)

2. Notes illuſtrating the Hiſtory of the ſeveral Towns, Villages, &c. in Halikeld Hundred in the ſame Riding: written as it ſeems by one Mr. Tilleyſon; who (as I have been told) was a Suffolk-Gentleman, that he wrote ſome things touching the Antiquities of that County, and that his Name ought to be written Tillotſon. Some mention is made of him by Dr. Richard Kuerden a Cheſhire Antiquary. 228.

And here it may be noted, once for all, that this Book, and the twelve that next follow, are collected from the Writings of that great Antiquary Mr. Roger Dodſworth, ſtill preſerved in the Bodleyan Library in Oxford: but with this difference, that what Mr. Dodſworth wrote ſparſim, in his ſeveral Volumes, according as matter occurred to him, they place under the Name of the Towns to which ſuch matter relates. And alſo, that whereas Mr. Dodſworth tranſcribed his Originals, in their own Language; they tranſlate the ſame into Engliſh, even Epitaphs & Inſcriptions.

3. The Valuation of the Spiritual Benefices, & Promotions within the Dioceſe of York; with the Names of their ſeveral Patrons. Imperfect.

871.

A Book in quarto, wherein are written, by different hands,

1. The laſt Will & Teſtament of Sr. Walter Myldmay Kt. dat. 2 Apr. 1589. 1.
2. The whole Proceedings of the Earl of Eſſex, & other of Queen Elizabeth's Miniſters, in the diſcovery of the contrivances of the Spaniards againſt her life; by procuring her to be poiſoned by Roger Lopez, a Spaniſh (new converted) Jew, for the ſum of 50,000 Crowns: with the confeſſions of the ſame Lopez & his accomplices. A.D. 1593-4. 7.
3. The Declaration delivered (in March, 1593-4.) by Judazer Fatim, a Jew; ſent from Conſtantinople to England by his maſter Salomon (whom Armurath III. had made Duke of Metilli; and who ſettled the Jews at Tiberias) to know whether Qu. Elizabeth would aſſiſt the Emperor againſt the Turks, or not. This Declaration (as it is called) is in French, & ſeems to have been delivered to the Lords of the Council, unfolds the reaſons of his Journey; many particulars relating to the Grand Seignior & his affairs; and particularly enlarges on the indiſcreet & extravagant demeanor of the Engliſh Ambaſſador Burton then Reſident at Conſtantinople. 65.
4. Anſwers (in French) to many Queſtions, propounded to the ſame Judazer Fatim, by the Lords of the Council, as it ſeems; containing, among other things, an Account of the then chief Miniſters in the Turkiſh Divan. 71.

2. In the laſt page is the beginning of an old Poem, treating of the Univerſe, & deſcribing the ſame according to the Doctrine of Ptolemy.

875.

A thin parchment Book in 4to, wherein is contained,

That well known old Engliſh Poem, called PIERS PLOWMAN. Imperf.

One of the printed Editions aſcribes it to Robert Longland: and from one of the MS. Copies, ſome have believed the author to be one John Malverne: but Leland, pag. 423. ſays it was the unanimous tradition or opinion of the learned in his time, that Geffrey Chaucer was the author of it; which to me ſeems the moſt probable, for ſeveral reaſons.

876.

Codex tenuis, ſed membranaceus, in 4to, in quo continentur,

885.

A Book in fol. wherein are contained,
Two Draughts of a Treatiſe compiled by John Cuſacke, an Iriſh Gent. (the one being ſhorter than the other, and thus entituled, A Royal Preſente; by way of Apology, for the Defenſe of a Royal Empreſe (a Book ſo called) intituled Aurea Periſcellis, which was preſented unto his Majeſty, A.D. 1638.
The Author threatens to conſider of the Law of Honor & Arms, with the Grounds of Heraldry in this Work; but his way of writing is ſo heavy & tedious, & his hand ſo ſcrabling, that I believe few will have patience enough to read him over.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,
1. A Viſitation of Derby-ſhire, made by Will.Flower Norroy, & Robert Glover Portcullis, then in his company, A.D. 1569. with ſome additions by Ralfe Brooke, &c.
2. At 39. b. is a ſhort Poem on the Arms of Sutton of Dudley (afterwards born by Dudley Duke of Northumberland, & his ſons) and of the Creſt & Motto of Sutton of Haddon.
3. Viſitation of Nottinghamſhire, taken A.D. 1569. by William Flower Norroy, King of Armes. with ſome additions. 52.
4. Viſitation of Staffordſhire, taken A.D. 1566. by . . . 65.
At the other end of the Book, are
5. Some Church Notes, taken in Nottinghamſhire.
6. A Table or Index of the Names of Families mentioned in the foregoing Viſitations.

A thin Book in fol. wherein are contained,
The Arms of the Nobility & Gentry of Eſſex, with the Quarterings, in Blazon: deſcribed from the Viſitation of that County, taken A.D. 1612. by John Raven, Richmond Herald, Deputy and Marſhal to William Camden Clarencieux.

A Book in fol. which ſeems to have been (almoſt all) written by the hand of Mr. Ralfe Brooke, York-Herald. It contains,
1. The Viſitation of Wiltſhire, taken (circa A. D. 1565.) by William Harvey Clarencieux King of Armes, with ſome additions, perhaps by Ralph himſelf. 1.
2. The Viſitation of Dorſetſhire, taken (circa A.D. 1565.) by William Harvey Clarencieux King of Armes. 37.

N.B. Theſe

Num. 888—892.

N.B. Theſe Viſitations are deſcribed in words, and not by Genealogical Schemes (if I may ſay ſo) in like manner as many other old Viſitations are,

3. Each Viſitation is preceded by its alphabetical Table of Families.

889.

A Book in fol. at the beginning whereof I find the title following,

The Armes of the Gentilmen of Devonſhire, as they were ſett downe in the Survey (or Viſitation) of William Harvey, alias Clarentius Kinge of Armes, in the yeare of our Lord God 1565. ann. 7 Eliz. R. with their Pedegrees: copied out of the Booke remaining with Mr. Taylor Herald-Painter in Fletſtreete, anno 1628. (At the beginning is an Alphabetical Table.)

890.

A Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. A Viſitation of Northamptonſhire, as it was taken, A.D. 1566. by Hugh Cotgrave Richmond-Herald, for William Harvey Clarencieux King of Arms. 1.

2. A Viſitation of Huntingdon-ſhire, as it was taken, A.D. 1566. by the ſame. 99.

3. At the end is an Alphabetical Table of the Names of the ſeveral families mentioned in both Viſitations.

891.

A Book in fol. written by different hands; wherein I find,

1. The Armes of Gentlemen in Cornwall, blazoned. 1.

2. A Kalendar or Table of the ſurnames of Families mentioned in the following Viſitation of Suffolke. 6.

3. A Viſitation of Suffolke, taken A.D. . . . . by . . . . . with ſome Additions, by Ralphe Brooke, &c. (It wants the firſt leaf.) 7.

4. A Kalendar, or Table of the Names mentioned in the following Pedegrees. 36. b.

5. Pedegrees of m ny noble, & antient Families; for the moſt part, deſcribed by Ralphe Brooke. They are chiefly, thoſe of Pontz; the Royal Family; Dudley & Weſt; Vernon, Lacy; Rouſe; Talbot, Manors, & Roos; Manſell; Bohun; Percy; Vere; Clifford; Gwynl; Haſilrig; Hoby; Courtney; Gaſcoigne; Darell; Lovell; Dacre; Grey; St.George; Manſell; Purefey; Mac-William; &c. 38. b.

6. Alphabetical Table to the Arms of Lancaſhire, preſently to be mentioned. 58.

7. Viſitation of Lancaſhire deſcribed in words at length; as taken A.D. 1567? by William Flower, Eſquire, Norroy King of Armes? 59.

8. Arms of the Lancaſhire Gentry tricked perhaps as entred at the laſt mentioned Viſitation. 96.

9. A looſe Paper about the Diſcent of Heſketh of Rufford, in Com. Lanc. 104.

10. A looſe Paper concerning the Diſcents of Manſaer of North-Creyte in Com. Norff. & of Armiger in Com. Suff. 105.

892.

A thin Book in fol. for the moſt part, written by Thomas Cole; & contains,

1. Pedegrees taken from an old Viſitation of Suſſex; to which he has made ſome additions. 1.

2. Church Notes taken at Glyn, Stopham, Walden, &c. with other Coats. 85.

3. How the antient Pariſh-Church of Bello-loco Regis, aliàs Bewley, in the County of Southampton, was deſtroyed at the Diſſolution of the Abbey there; & how the Abbots Dining Hall (which ſtands South & North) has been turned into a Pariſh Church, inſtead of the former: together with ſome Church Notes taken therein. 90.

4. Alphabet of Arms in Blazon, of many Gentile Families, chiefly of Suſſex: including alſo divers others of Surrey, & other Counties. 92.

5. A Table of the Surnames in this Booke. 99.

Num. 892—895.

893.

A Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. An Alphabet of the Arms of the Gentlemen of Cheſhire & Lancaſhire, blaſoned; thoſe of each of theſe Counties being putt down diſtinctly by themſelves: together with additional Arms of many other Gentile Families.

2. In the laſt Page, are ſome Notes concerning the Creations of Sr. Donnell Mac Donnell to be Earl of Antrim; Sr. Oliver St.John, Viſcount Grandiſon; Sir Richard Nugent, Earl of Weſt-Meath; John Murray Eſq; Viſcount Amand, in Scotland; George Villers, Viſcount Villers; & Chriſtopher Villers, Earl of Angleſey: all by K.James 1.

894.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts, written by divers hands; wherein are contained,

1. A Catalogue of the Dukes, Earles, Viſcounts, & Barons, created, reſtored, & called by Writt, in the Kingdome of England, ſince the firſte Yeare of the Reygne of Kinge James, to the ſeventh year, incluſive. 1.

2. Earles, Viſcounts, & Barons, created by Kinge James in the Kingdome of Scotland, ſince his Reigne of the whole Ilande of Greate Britayne. 2.

3. The Order of the Queenes royal Procedinge from Summerſett Place, to Poules Church, Anno, 1588. and how all Eſtats were then marſhaled. 3. b. & 3.

4. An Alphabet, in Blazon; of the Arms of many antient & worſhipful Families: perhaps, of Lincolnſhire, and other Counties. 4.

5. Another Alphabet of Arms, in Blazon; different from the former. 35.

6. An Account of the Nobility of England, & of their Creations, &c. from the Conqueſt, to A.D. 1572. I take this to be that Tract commonly aſcribed to Robert Cooke, Clarencieux; of which many Copies are exſtant in this and other Libraries.

N.B. The Arms tricked or painted, in the margin of ſome other Copies, are wanting in this.

895.

A thin Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. The Arms of the Engliſh Nobility, from the Conqueſt to the end of the reign of Q. Mary the 1ſt, in Trick, taken as I believe from ſome Copie of Clarencieux Cooke's Creations, and not herein completed. And as that Book is known to be faultie in divers places with reſpect to the perſons therein mentioned: ſo, I'me afraid the Arms here (and in other Copies of this kind) aſcribed to them, are not always right.

2. At the beginning is a Table to the Arms, abovementioned; written, perhaps, by Tho. Cole.

3. Letter from Dr.Will. Parrye to Queen Elizabeth; dated from the Tower, 14 Febr. 1584. confeſſing the treaſons whereof he was accuſed by Mr. Edmund Neville, &c. penult. b.

Num. 896—900.

A Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. Notes concerning the Fyve Conqueſts of this Land, with the Names, & Armes of the Conquerors blazoned.

2. The Names, & Armes of all the Noblemen then beinge, or created, ſince the Conqueaſte of Englande, & by whome they weare created; deduced down to A.D. 1580. This is another of thoſe Accounts mentioned above, at the Book 62. C. 17. but in this Copie, the Arms (in blazon) conclude the Account given of each Nobleman.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by . . . . . wherein are found,

1. A large Collection of Notes touching the Times when many noble, eminent, & worſhipful perſons deceaſed, and of their Funerals; & Diſcents; with Tricks of ſome of their Arms. The Collection was made during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, but relates alſo to many who lived long before her time. Herein are many Church Notes, as they are called; as alſo ſome few Additions of Ralfe Brooke Yorke-Herald. 1.

2. Notes touching the Obſequies of foreign Princes, ſolemniſed in England, from the ſixth year of the Reign of K.Henry VIII. to the 5th of Qu. Elizabeth, incluſive. 88.

3. At the beginning is a Table to the Names mentioned in this Book thus far.

4. A Collection of the Pedegrees of many noble & antient Families; with ſome uſeful Notes relating to them, as alſo the Arms of divers of them, whereof a few are painted. 89.

5. At the end is a Table of the Surnames mentioned in the ſaid Pedegrees.

A Book in fol. formerly (as it ſeems) belonging to ſome of the Law-Offices; whereinto are entred,

928.

A thick vellum Book in 12mo, (bought of me) being written by three different hands, which I ſhall here mention, though ſuch remarks were not intended to be put into this ſhorter Catalogue.

1. The main body of the Book was (I believe) written in France, by ſome eminent Librarius or Book-writer, during the Reign of our K. Henry the third; who alſo adorned it with many curious & well drawn Pictures, the rudeneſs of the age conſidered. Among which Pictures, many (as may be ſeen) were intended to expoſe the wicked & inordinate lives of the then Clergy, who were hated by the Librarij, as taking away much of their buſineſs.

2. I find certain Ejaculations to our Saviour, &c. written on ſeveral Pages & Leaves at the beginning, not touched by the Book-Writer; which may have been done A.D. 1428. according to the Obſervation, inſerted by a recent hand, in fol. 2. b. Though the Date he mentions, does not now appear.

3. The latter part of the Book, is of an Engliſh hand, & of Engliſh Parchment, written about the latter end of the reign of K. Henry the VI.

The Book contains the Horæ B. Mariæ, with Collects, &c. for the Holydays, whoſe Rubricks are in French; the Office for the Dead; and ſome of the Pſalms: all in Latin.

968.

A thin Book in 4to, wherein is contained,

The Arraignement of Sir Walter Raleigh Kt. at Wincheſter, on Thurſday the 17th of November, A.D. 1603. Upon the Trial, Sir Walter ſtood ſtoutly upon his Innocence, eſpecially againſt Sir Edward Coke then Attorney General, whoſe zeal for the King threw him upon the frequent utterance of taunting, & ungentlemanly expreſſions. It appeared that his Accuſer Henry Lord Cobham, had by a Letter to Sr. Walter, retracted all his Accuſation, and afterwards retracted that retractation. That Sir Walter who (beſides extreme ambition and impious opinions) was noted for Covetouſneſs, had been dealt withall, to be a Spy to the Spaniards, for which he was to have a Penſion of 1500 l. and yet had made no diſcovery of this Practice to the King, or any of his Miniſters. That the Lady Arabella, whoſe Title the ſame Lord Cobham, & Thomas Lord Grey of Wilton had determined to ſet up, & whom they had begun to tamper with, had behaved herſelf with prudence & loyalty, and was therefore wholly clear of their Treaſons: not to mention other Circumſtances of leſs Moment, excepting this, that it was the Opinion of the Lawyers then, that a man might be ſentenced to Death, upon the evidence of one only Witneſs: or without any Witneſs at all, to be brought in Court, face to face.

The Author, at the latter end writes, that Æſop's Fables were tranſlated out of Greek into Latin; and from thence into Engliſh (or Saxon) by King Ælfred; from whoſe Verſion (now loſt) he made this in French. Thus, theſe Fables cannot be the ſame with thoſe that came out of the ſhop of Maximus Planudes the Greek Monk, who lived A.D. 1340. but may rather be expected to agree with the older Greek Copies; one of which I remember to have ſeen in the Bodleyan Library among the Barroccian MSS. though I think it is not mentioned in Mr. Chilmead's Catalogue.

A Book in 8vo, wherein divers Stories are written by the hand of Mr. Richard Symonds, partly in Engliſh, & partly in Italian. They relate to King Charles the Firſt & others of the Royal Family, to many of the Nobility & Gentry of thoſe times. To the long Parliament, Oliver Cromwell, his Family, Partizans, &c. Some of theſe Relations I ſhall more particularly take notice of, as follows.

1. That the Committee at Somerſet Houſe valued the King's Pictures & other moveable Goods at 200,000 l. notwithſtanding that both himſelf & the Queen had carried away abundance. 5.

2. That the King gave moſt to, & pleas'd thoſe moſt, that had moſt abus'd him, & cheated him. ibid.

3. How the Queen of Bohemia, & the Princeſſe her daughter were obliged to act through Fear. ibid.

4. That the King had written a Book with his owne hand, wherein were many things concerning Government, and the Model of Government for this Nation according to that of France, to be effected by bringing in the German Horſe. That Oliver St. John, ſince Chief Juſtice, procured a ſight of it by means of the Earl of Bedford, and made uſe of it afterwards againſt the King. 7.

5. The Vanity, Pride, & Beggary of . . . Clapham, one of the Gentlemen-Penſioners at Oxford. 12.

6. That Col. Wheeler was the Duke of Buckingham's natural ſon. 14.

7. Inſtances of the treacherous diſſimulation of Oliver Cromwell: who by Williams pretended to be diſcended from Perkin Warbek. 16. 21. 22. 24. 94.

8. A Short Narration of the Ceremonies at Cromwell's taking the Protectorſhip upon him. 17.

9. Complements made by divers to Cromwell; with part of his Pedegree. 19.

10. Cromwell's Proceſſion to London, being invited to dinner by Vyner Mayor of London. 20.

11. That at his return, one threw a Stone of 6lb. weight upon his Coach. 21.

12. That in acting a Play at Cambridge, he ſtumbled at a Crown, putton, & aſked if it did not become him. 22.

13. That he required 1,900,000l. per ann. to be ſettled on him for the ſupport of his Government, though the King never had above 700,000 l. per ann. ibid.

14. His behaviour at his Daughter's Marriage-Feaſt. 23.

15. How Cromwell, with one Bowtell of Suffolke, would ſee the King's Corps after he was beheaded; and opened the Coffin himſelf, with Bowtell's ſword. 24.

16. That Cromwell in his Proſperity, once reſtored a conſiderable Sum of Money, to one Mr. Compton, whom he had formerly cheated of it at Play. 25.

Num. 991.

17. That the Duke of Buckingham was very liberal to Mr. Nicolas Lanier. 34.

18. Of the Inſolence and Malice of Carre Earl of Somerſett towards Queen Anne whom he hated; with a Commendation of the noble nature of Prince Henry. 35.

19. Diſcent of Reynolds of Cheſterford. 37.

20. Of Sir Joſcelyne Percy & others, who deſired to be reconciled to the Popiſh Religion, & died before they could effect it. 45.

21. That the Lady Aſhfield (married to Sr. Richard Minſhall) had a ſon, heir to 2000 l. per ann. whom ſhe ſued for all that Eſtate, pretending that he was not begotten by her former Huſband: but that her endeavours were defeated, and ſhe fined 500 l. for her Impudence. 58.

22. The beginning of Cornelius Bee, the great Bookſeller. 61.

23. How Benjamin More, by means of the Earl of Warwick & Holland, gott many Warrants of the King for Baronets, which brought him in great gaine: with the Names of ſome Baronets ſo made. ibid.

24. Diſcent of Poole. 65.

25. Late Diſcendants from Freſchvile. 68.

26. Of the remarkable fidelity of a Ships-Crew to Prince Rupert, who (upon the ſpringing of Plank) putt him into a Boat, with ſuch as he choſe to row him; and then quietly ſunk in his Sight. 71.

27. The gallant Anſwer ſent by the Archbiſhop Chichely to King Henry the vi. who, as the Archbiſhop thought, had reflected on the meanneſs of his Birth. 72.

88. That Hugh Peters became diſtracted, upon the Diſſolution of the Protector's Government. ibid.

29. Late Diſcent of Jermyn of Suffolk. 73.

30. The Trick uſed by one Taſborough an officer in the Exchequer, for gaining a rich Widow. 75.

31. Epitaph made for Philip Herbert Earl of Pembroke. 77.

32. Relation in part, of the manner of breaking up the Long Parliament, 13 Oct. 1659. 79.

33. A falſe Propheſy vented in Cromwell's time, concerning his Death, & the next Governors that were to be over this Nation. In favour of Popery. 81.

34. Diſcent of Honeywood. 86.

35. The ſharp Anſwer of a Gentleman to Henry Cromwell, who deſired to borrow his Coach & Horſes. 88.

36. The Manner of the King's eſcape from the Battayle of Worceſter, as the Lady Wood relates it, who heard the King tell it his Mother. (Qu. If her Ladyſhip remembered the Story perfectly?) 90.

37. That Oliver Cromwell's Policy in ſuffering no Officers of the Army to have Power in Ireland, but thoſe that had Lands in England, proved the ruin of his Son Henry's Affairs there. Becauſe when Lambert & Fleetwood had turned out Richard, thoſe Officers durſt not ſtir for fear of their Eſtates in England. 94.

38. That Oliver was poiſoned; & that his Secretary Thurloe narrowly eſcaped. ibid.

39. Cromwell's Anſwer to the jeering Superſcription of a Letter ſent by one . . . . . Fatre to Haynes Deputy-Major-General to Fleetwood. 95.

40. Here are many Obſervations relating to the Families & Eſtates, of ſeveral of the Nobility & Gentry, which I have purpoſely omitted.

1040.

An Heraldical MS. in thin fol. being a Note-book for Funerals. It contains,

1. Entrances of the Arms of divers, buried in the Years 1637, 1638, 1639, 1640, 1641, & 1648, whoſe Atchievements, Eſcocheons, &c. were furniſhed by John Withie; and their reſpective Arms are tricked by him. 1.

Here it may be noted (once for all) that the Arms exhibited in this Book (as thoſe alſo of the Book laſt deſcribed) are tricked, i. e. delineated or drawn, with Pen & Ink; which is the moſt uſual way of entring or putting down Arms in Books. Therefore, if in deſcribing the Arms in an Heraldical MS. I mention not in what manner they are done. I deſire it may be underſtood that they are tricked, for if they happened to be colored or painted; or blazoned, i. e. deſcribed in Words or by Marks; I ſhall be ſure to ſpecify it accordingly.

2. Entrances of the Arms of Perſons whoſe Funerals were ſerved by John Sanders the Arms-Painter, or Painter-Stainer, in & from the Year 1681 to the Year 1687. 13. b.

This Mr. John Saunders was Deputie of the Ward of St. Dunſtan's in the Weſt; was a man of the like character with John Withie abovementioned (tho' I think Mr. Withie was the better Tricker of the two). He bought Mr. Withie's Books after his deceaſe; & died himſelf in a good old age, about the Year 1687, as I have heard.

3. An Alphabetical Table of the Families whoſe Arms are entred into this Book; begun by Mr. Withie, and continued by Mr. Saunders. 60.

4. At the beginning of the Book, is a Sketch of a Vane which Mr. Saunders gave, & cauſed to be ſet up on the Steeple of St. Dunſtan's in the Weſt, 25 Septr. 1685.

5. A whimſical Atchievement, as for a Tipling Club or Society of Workmen, belonging to, or employed by the more ſubſtantial Painter-Stainers. Here are two Mottos; the one is NE QUID NIMIS, referring (as I ſuppoſe) to the Pewter (or Silver) Pot in the Eſcocheon; the other being AD RIXATORES PUNIENDOS, & referring perhaps to the knotty Clubs drawn in & about the Eſcocheon. 18.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by different hands, wherein are contained,

1. A Liſt of the Juſtices of the Peace in Worceſterſhire, A.D. 1601. 1.

2. Liſt of the High-Sheriffes of the County of Worceſter, from ann. 1 R. Hen. II. to ann. 17 R. Jacobi I. incluſive. 2.

3. The Juſtices of the Peace in Com. Worceſter, A.D. 1620. 7.

4. The Arms of the City of Worceſter, & Town of Droitwych. 8.

5. Arms of certain ancient Worceſter-ſhire Knights. 10.

Num. 1043—1045.

6. A Table of the Families mentioned in the Treatiſe next enſuing: referring to the leaves, according to the old Numeration. 12.

7. The Viſitation of the County of Worceſter, as taken A. D. 1569, by Robert Cooke Eſquire, Clarencieux King of Armes; with ſome Additions. 13.

8. A Table of the Familes mentioned in the Treatiſe next following, according to the old Numeration of the Leaves. 52. b.

9. The Viſitation of the County of Cambridge, as taken A.D. 1619, by Henry St. George Richmond, for William Camden Clarencieux, with ſome Additions. 53.

10. Another Table to the Viſitation of Cambridge; more accurate than the other mentioned above at N° 8. 113.

11. A looſe Note relating to Sr. Edw. Byſshe who was made Garter by the Parliament, & Sr. Edw. Walker by the King. 114.

1044.

A thin Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are putt down,

1. A Collection of Coats of Arms, tricked promiſcuouſly: perhaps they may be of the Northamptonſhire Families. Imperfect. 1.

2. Some other odd Coates. 14. b.

3. Pedegree of the Family of Pury; as ſett forth by Sr. Edward Byſshe Garter; & copied by John Saunders. 15. b.

4. Alphabetical Table to the Families mentioned in this Book. 19.

5. Diſcent of Worth of Enfield. 21. b.

1045.

An Heraldical Book in fol. done by different hands; wherein I find,

1. A Collection of Arms putt down promiſcuouſly, perhaps they may be Entrances made in ſome Arms-Painters book of the funerals of ſuch Gentry or reputed Gentry, as were ſerved with Eſcocheons, Pencils, &c. by him. (among theſe, are Arms of 4 Families of Ramſay of Scotland. vid. fol. 7.) 1.

2. Receipts for the ordering of divers Colors, uſed in the Myſtery of the Painter-Steyners, as it ſeems. 8.

3. Arms of the Company of Shipwrights. 11.

4. A Note touching the Family of Brewar, one of which (as the Writer affirms) was by William the Conqueror made Earl of Devonſhire. 14.

5. Entrances of the Arms of Nobility, Gentry, & reputed Gentry, furniſhed by Mr. John Saunders the Painter Stainer, at their reſpective Funerals, from November 1632, to January 1675-6. 15.

In this Collection, it may not be amiſs to have regard to Mr. Saunders's expreſſions; as, at the firſt Coat he writes, Mr. Bell—AS AT HIS Son's FUNERAL; whereby, I underſtand, that at his ſon's deceaſe Mr. Bell applied to Mr. Saunders for his Arms, & that Mr. Saunders finding ſuch Arms to have been borne by the Name of Bell, & being willing to take this Mr. Bell's Money, furniſhes him with a ſufficient Number of Eſcocheons for the Funeral, which yet, he did not underſtand, as if Mr. Bell or his Family had thereby any Right to uſe. The ſecond Coat being that of Muſters, has no ſuch Note tack'd to it; whereby it is to be underſtood that Muſters had really a Right to it; but then 'tis ſaid, per Biſh, i. e. that thoſe Arms were not uſed by Muſters as inſiſting on the antient & known Uſage of his Family, but by the Grant of Sr. Edward Byſshe, Garter King of Armes.

Num. 1045, 1046.

Among the Entrances of Funerals abovementioned, I find,

6. The Confirmation of the Arms of Bartholomew of Lalam in Middleſex, by Sr. Rich. St George Clarenceux, & Sr. William Segar Garter, dated 29 March, A.D. 1632. 34.

7. Arms in the Baners, &c. at the Funeral of General Monke Duke of Albemarle. 80.

8. Pedegrees tranſcribed from the Viſitation of the County Palatine of Cheſter, taken A.D. 1580, by William Flower Norroy, & Robert Glover, Somerſet Herald. 116.

9. Arms of many Welſh Kings (as it ſeems) warranted to Sr. Daniel Donne Kt. by Thomas Jonnes of Fountaine-gate in Com. Cardigan. 132.

After John Saunders's Entrances, follow,

10. The Arms of the Gentry of Northampton ſhire. 150.

11. A Collection of the Arms of many other Families, tricked by the hand of . . . . . 162. b.

12. Another Collection of Arms promiſcuouſly putt together; and might have been the Entrances of ſome Painter, before the Book came into the poſſeſſion of Mr. Saunders. 173. b. 193. b.

13. Arms entred, in the former manner, by Mr. Saunders. 196. b.

14. An Alphabetical Table of the Names of Families whoſe Arms are tricked in this Book. 207.

15. In the Table abovementioned, between V. & W. are the Arms of Oliver Cromwell's Privy Counſellors blazoned.

16. Arms of Sheeres empaling Rutland. fol. antepenult.

1046.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts done by different hands; they are,

1070.

An Heraldical Book in fol. on the Back-ſide of which Mr. John Spicer cauſed the following Title to be affixed, "Withie's Viſitation of Cheſhire," which muſt not be underſtood as if Mr. Withie took or made any actual Viſitation of the Gentlemen of that County; or that this Book was done by his hand; but only that this being a very good Book in its kind did formerly belong to Mr. John Withie, who alſo inſerted ſome Things therein, which will be preſently mentioned. In this Book I find,

1. Pedegrees & Arms tranſcribed from the Book of the Viſitation of the County Palatine of Cheſter made A.D. 1580, by William Flower Norroy & Robert Glover Somerſet, his Marſhall; done (as it ſeems) for the moſt most part by Sir Henry St. George; to which some few Arms and Notes have been added by Mr. John Withie, and Mr. John Saunders. 1.

2. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families mentioned in the preceding Visitation; drawn up by Mr. Withie, and referring to it, according to the old notation of Pages. 65.

3. Part of the Original Papers of Arms & Pedegrees of the Cheshire Gentlemen, allowed at the Visitation made of the same County, A.D. 1613, by Richard St. George Norroy, and (in his company) Henry St. George his son, who perhaps might then be Blew-mantle. Most of these Papers are subscribed by the hands of the Gentlemen themselves; and the Arms & Pedegrees are, for the most, done by the hands of Sr. Richard St. George & Sr. Henry St. George his son, abovementioned. The rest (which is but little) was done by Mr. John Withie & others. (The remaining part of this Original Book of Visitation, is said to be in the Herald's Office.) 68. to 147.

In this Book, I also find,

4. The Names of those that weare disclaimed in Chesheire, viz. at this Visitation A.D. 1613. 87.

5. The Names of all the Mannors or Lordshipps, Townes & Landes, which Sr. Geffrey the sonne of Adam de Dutton, gave to certeyn of his Gentlemen & Yeamen. 125.

6. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families mentioned in this other Visitation of Cheshire; made by John Withie. 148.

1071.

A Book in fol. made A. D. 1613, by Mr. Withie, and by him thus entituled,

The Nobility of Ireland; their Titles, Coats, Creasts, Supporters, and Mottoes: sett forth in their severall Coullers, by me John Withy.

NB. Divers of the Mottoes, & some of the Supporters & Crests are omitted; perhaps, because Mr. Withie could not gett them.

1072.

Num. 1075—1077.

1075.

An Heraldical Book in fol. copied by John Saunders the Arms Painter, A.D. 167½ fromthe Book of Mr. John Philipott, in the cuſtody of Arthur Earl of Angleſey; containing,

A Copie of the Viſitation-book of Huntingdonſhire, made A. D. 1613, by Mr. Nicholas Charles, Lancaſter Herald, Marſhal & Deputy to William Camden, Clarencieux.

Note, that though this Book is neither written ſo fairly, nor tricked ſo correctly, and even wants many Arms, Seals, &c. extant in that fine Book inſcribed 66. C. 9. yet ſome things have been putt into it, which are not in that.

At the beginning, is an alphabetical Table, containing the Surnames of Families mentioned in this Book.

1076.

An Heraldical Book in fol. all written and tricked by Mr. John Withie the Painter-Stayner; and by him thus entituled,

1. A Coppie of the Viſitation of the Countie of Suſſex, made anno 1633, & 1634, by John Phillipot Eſq. Somerſett, and George Owen Eſq. Yorke, Heraulds; Marſhalls & Deputies to Sir John Boroughs Kt. Garter, and Sr. Richard St. George Kt. Clarenceux, Kings of Armes: with ſome few Additions.

In this Copie, which is a very good one, beſides the Pedegrees & Arms, & the Notes of divers Grants I find,

2. A Commiſſion from Thomas Howard Earl of Arundell & Surrey, Earl-Marſhall, to certain Suſſex Gentlemen, to ſee that John Tye made his Submiſſion, in ſeemly manner, to John Willſon of Fletching, Eſq. whom he had (out of ſpleene) wronged by divers diſgraceful Speeches. Dated 7 Dec. A.D. 1631, with the form of the ſaid Submiſſion. 57. b.

3. Certain Seals accurately tricked. 62. 95. b. 215. b. 220.

4. Seal of the City of Chicheſter. 69.

5. Seal of the Borough of Arundell. 70.

6. Seal of the Borough of Lewys. 71.

7. Divers Church Notes. 114. b. 116. 182. 218. 223. b.

8. The Certificate of Will. Forſter Eſq. in the behalfe of John Forſter of Angmering, whom he reputes to be his Kinſman, and therefore allows to bear his Arms with a Difference. dat. 21 March, A.D. 1635. 169.

9. Copies of the ſeveral Notes which divers perſons gave to the Heralds the Viſitors, whereby they obliged themſeves to make farther, or ſufficient proof of their Gentility. 175.

10. Noates taken in Arundell Church, in the tyme of the Viſitacion of Suſſex, 1634, per me Jo. Withie. 224. b.

Hereby it appears that Mr. Withie attended the Heralds above-mentioned, as their Arms-Painter at this Viſitation.

11. Seals of the Port of Haſtings. 228.

12. At the end, is an alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families mentioned in the preceding Viſitation.

1077.

A Book in fol. the far greater part of which, was written & tricked A. D. 1621, by the hand of Mr. John Withie the Arms Painter. It contains,

1. A Copie of the Viſitation-Book of Staffordſhire, made by Robert Glover Eſq. Somerſet-Herald, Marſhall & Deputie to William Flower Eſq. Norroy, King of Arms, A.D. 1583. with many Additions. 1.

Num. 1077, 1078.

As this Mr. Glover was a very able and diligent Officer; so this his Visitation is remarkable for the many extracts from old Deeds illustrating the Descents of Families, many Tricks of Seals, proving the Arms of Families, and divers Church Notes. Besides which, Mr. Glover inserted into his Book,

2. The Names of the Hundreds in Staffordshire. 1.

3. Trick of the Common Seale of the Burgh of New-Castle under Lyme. 1. b.

4. Nomina et Arma Nobilium et Equitum Auratorum de Com. Staffordiæ qui, cum Edwardo I. Rege, stipendia merebant in Scotia, et alibi.

1093.

An Heraldical Book in fol. which ſeems to have been written & tricked by Mr. John Withie when he was yet a young man; being by him thus intituled,

1. The Viſitation of Darbyſheire, made by Richard St. George Eſq. Norroy, King of Armes, anno 1611. Together with the Viſitation made anno 1569, and enlarged with ſome other Additions.

Here it may be noted that the Viſitation of 1569, is not written wholly, & diſtinctly by itſelf, apart from the other; but that the Pedegrees of A.D. 1611, are Continuations of thoſe of A.D. 1569. Alſo, that although this Viſitation-book of A. D. 1611, be eminent for the Church Notes, Draughts of Seals, & Extracts of Evidences; yet this Copie (which exhibits the ſaid things well done) has many other Additions & Continuations peculiar to itſelf, made by Mr. Withie & others.

Moreover I obſerve here,

2. A Trick of the Common-Seale of the Burroughe & Shire-towne of Derby. 7.

3. An alphabetical Table to this Book; written by Mr. Witlrie at the end thereof.

1094.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written & tricked by Mr. John Withie, and by him thus intituled,

The Viſitation of Northamptonſhiere & Rutlandſhcire, made and taken by Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Roſe, Marſhall and Deputie to William Camden Eſq. Clarenceux King of Armes, of the South, Eaſt, & Weſt Parts, of the Realme of England, from the River Trent, Ann. Dñi 1618 and 1619, with the Viſitation made Anno Domini 15 . . . . . John Withie.

Here it may be noted,

1. This Viſitation-book of A.D. 1618, & 1619, has many Additions & Continuations not to be met with in other Copies.

2. The old Viſitation mentioned by Mr. Withie, ſeems to be taken A. D. 1566, for, or by William Harvey Clarenceux; it is not written apart, by itſelf, but is rather included in the other.

Among the Additions to the Viſitation of 1618, I cannot but mention.

3. An original Letter of Thomas Lord Brudnell to Mr. Withie, wherein many errors & defects in this Book (though a very good one) are noted. ante 1.

4. The Pedegree of Brudnell, written by the ſame Lord. ante 34.

Omitting the mention of the Church Notes, and other Family Evidences preſerved in this Viſitation; I obſerve herein,

5. Mr. Auguſtine Vincent's Diſcharge to Mr. Laurence Makepeace of Sulgrave, to uſe the Arms of divers Families which he had uſurped; or any other Arms, until the Earl-Marſhalls pleaſure therein ſhall be known. dat. 24 Dec, A.D. 1619. 173.

6. The Pedegrees & Arms regiſtred at the Viſitation of Rutlandſhire A.D. 1618. begin at 230.

7. The Pedegree of Rudd of Northamptonſhire. 249. b.

8. Pedegree of Ruſſell of Northamptonſhire. 251.

9. Arms of the Huntingdonſhire Gentry, regiſtred at the Viſitation, A. D. 1613, with a Table to them prefixed.

10. An alphabetical Table of the ſeveral Families mentioned in the preceding Viſitations of Northamptonſhire and Rutlandſhire; at the end.

1095.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written & tricked by Mr. John Withie; the greateſt part of it about A.D. 1621.

In it are contained,

1. An alphabetical Table of Surnames, referring to the Pedegrees & Arms after-mentioned; at the beginning.

2. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Oxford made A. D. 1574, by Richard Lee, Porteullis, Marſhall & Deputie to Robert Cooke Clarenceux. Herein, are the Names of many of the Gentlemen who ſubſcribed to their Pedegrees. 1.

Beſides ſome Church Notes and other Additions; I find in this Copie,

3. The Arms of the City of Oxford. 1.
4. The Seal of the Borough of Witney. 2.
5. The Seal of the Borough of Burford. ibid.

Num. 1095, 1096.

6. Notes touching the foundation of divers Colleges in the Univerſity of Oxford. 48. b.
7. Arms of the Town of Woodſtock. 49. b.
8. Seal of the Borough of Banbury. 62. b.
9. Arms of the Gentry of Bedfordſhire: perhaps as they were regiſtred at the Viſitation of that County A.D. 1634. 108. b.
10. Arms of the Gentry of Buckinghamſhire; perhaps taken from the Viſitation-book of that County, made A.D. 1634. 114. b.

1096.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. An Epitaph upon the Monument of John Browne & Richard Tichborne of London, Merchants, in Mercers Chapell. Erroneouſly written. 1.
2. A Table to the Surnames of Families mentioned in the Tract next enſuing. 3.
3. Arms of ſome gentile Families in London; as alſo the Arms of the Middleſex-Gentry as they were entered at the Viſitation of that County, taken A.D. 1664. by William Ryley Eſq; Lancaſter-Herald, & Henry Dethick, Rouge-Croix, Marſhalls & Deputies to Sr. Edward Byſshe Clarenceux: tricked in printed Eſcocheons, thoſe of Middleſex by Mr. Withie. 4.
4. Arms of the King, Nobles, Knights, &c. temp' R. Henrici v. tricked within the like printed Eſcocheons. 7.
5. A Collection of the Pedegrees of the Gentile Families in the City of London; written (as Mr. Withie as noted) by Mr. Henry Lilly the Painter-Stayner: to which ſome Additions have been made by other hands. 12.
6. Church-Notes taken in St. Mary Magdalen-Church in Milke-ſtreete, London. 107. b.
7. Evidences touching the Families of Botiler, Camoys, &c. from old Deeds. 108. b.
8. Arms & Epitaph of Mrs. Jane Ruſſell (daughter of Tindal) buried in the Church of All-hallowes-Barking. 109.

Then follows a Tract thus entituled, "A Note of all ſuch Monuments, or other Tombs & Graveſtones as remayne within the ſeveral Churches of London, being begun to be taken the 25th of May, 1597." Some of theſe Epitaphs are more perfect than the ſame in Mr. Weavers Funeral Monuments; and many others are wholly omitted by him. The Arms are alſo here tricked, which are alſo wanting in Mr. Weever. 'Tis pity that in this collection no more are deſcribed, than thoſe in the following Churches.

9. In St. Mary Magdalen's in Old Fiſhſtrete. 110.
10. In St. Nicholas Golden Abbaye. 110. b.
11. In St. Michael Pater noſter, in the Old Royall. 112.
12. In St. Michael's at Queen-Hithe. 113. b.
13. In St. Mary Mounthall's. 114.
14. In St. Nicholas Olave's. ibid.

Herein, I also find,

3. A Trick of the Seal of the Town of Chiping Wycumbe. 13.

4. Some Church-Notes, taken at Gotehurst. 32. b.

5. Some Pedegrees which seem to be taken from older Visitations of this County. 102.

1103.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written & tricked, by different hands; wherein are contained,

1. An Instrument whereby Sr. Edward Byshe Clarenceux disclaims divers Persons who had usurped the Style & Arms of Gentlemen. Given at Ipswich, the 20th of April, A.D. 1672. (This is inserted at the beginning of the Book) Then follows,

2. A Copie of the Visitation-book of the County of Suffolk, as taken A.D. 1561. by William Harvey Clarenceux, in manner of Narration; whereunto are putt some Additions, & Continuations. 1.

This Copie was written A.D. 1597, as appears by fol. 41.

The Tricks of Seals & Arms of Burroughs & Towns, preserved in this Copie, are

3. Arms of the Borough & Towne of Ypswiche. 43.

4. Seal of the Towne of Orforde. 62.

5. Arms & Seal of the Towne & Corporation of Southwolde. 90.

It being that common Treatise shewing the Names & Arms of the English Nobility from the time of William the Conqueror, to the reign of Queen Elizabeth, of which Robert Cooke Clarenceux has been supposed to be the Author. At the beginning are these words, "This Booke was written by me Samuell Todd, cute of a Coppy of of Clarencieulx Cooke's, in the yeare of our Lord 1598. May the 20th." And after the mention of the Lorde Treaſurer Burleigh, are theſe words, " Huc uſq; Robert Cooke Clarencieulx compoſuit, anno 1572. regni Reginæ Elizabeth. 14." from whence it is continued to Sr. Edward Wotton who was created Baron of Märley by K. James I. At the end are theſe words, " Finis Februarye 26. anno Domini 1638. per me T. M." and perhaps the whole Tract may be of the hand-writing of this T. M. and not of Samuel Todd. The 4 firſt Paragraphs, were by miſtake inſerted by Sam. Todd into his Copie, it being plain that they do not belong to it. 63.

In this Treatiſe, I find, what is often wanting in other Copies of it,

7. The Manner of creating Robert Dudley Baron of Denbigh, & Earl of Leyceſter, by Q. Elizabeth. 128. b.

1111.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by divers hands wherein I find,

1. A Valuation of the Eſtates of many of the Wiltſhire Gentry; made perhaps about A. D. 1565. 1.
2. The original Note-book of William Harvey Eſq. Clarenceux, wherein during his Viſitation of the County of Wiltes, A.D. 1565, he (with others in his Company) noted down the Names & places of Reſidence of the Gentry of Wiltſhire. 7. & 22.

As alſo,

3. Entries of the Names of many perſons of the ſame County, who having uſurped the Stile of Gentlemen,

Num. 1111—1114.

diſclaimed the ſame; leaſt they ſhould be publickly degraded thereof. 16. & 27.

NB. Clarenceux Harvey's hand appears particularly in this Tract, at the bottom of 17. and towards the top of 17. b. where he has written theſe words, "cleryd by me Clarencieulx.

Then follows.

4. A Copy of the Viſitation Book of Wiltſhire, as taken by the abovementioned William Harvey Clarenceux, A.D. 1565, copied by Jacob Chaloner, as I gueſs by the hand. 28.

And herein, beſides divers Church Notes, I obſerve,

5. The Arms of the City of New-Sar. 28.
6. Arms of the Borough of Marleborough. 33.
7. Arms of ſome Wiltſhire-Gentlemen, inſerted by Mr. John Saunders. 94. & 95.

1112.

An Heraldical Book in fol. made by Mr. John Withie in the year 1623, and by him thus entituled,

1. The Names and Armes of all the Knightes, Eſquires, & Gentlemen (that did appeare) in the Viſitation of Shropſheire, made by Robert Treſwell Somerſett, and Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Croix, Officers of Armes; Marſhalls and Deputyes to William Camden Clarenceux, King of Armes. And taken by me John Withy, who rode Painter in the ſaide Viſitation, Anno 1623.
2. At the beginning is an alphabetical Table to the aforeſaid Arms.
3. Towards the end are the rough Draughts of certain Seals; only traced with Black Lead.
4. In the laſt leaf are rude Tricks of the Arms of Wynne of Dudliſton, Lutwich of Lutwich, & of Moore of Millichap; this laſt with the Quarterings.

1113.

A thin Heraldical Book in fol. which ſeems to me to have been written & tricked by the hand of Mr. Nicholas Charles Lancaſter-Herald. It contains,

1. The Arms of ſome of the Nobility, and many of the Gentry of the County of Leiceſter. 1.
2. Pedegrees with Arms, of many of the Leiceſterſhire-Gentry. Incluſive. 12. to 34.

1114.

An Heraldical Book in fol. compiled and handſomely painted (according to the Arms Painters manner) by Mr. John Withie, who has given it the following Title,

"The Nobility of England their Titles, Armes, Creaſts, Supporters, & Mottos, ſet forth in their ſeveral Coullers.

NB. The laſt Atchievement of the Earls, is that of Richard Burgh, who was created Earl of St. Albans, 3 April, A.D. 1628. The laſt of the Viſcounts is that of Thomas Wentworth (afterwards Earl of Strafford) who was created Viſcount Wentworth 10 Decemb. A.D. 1628. The laſt of the Barons is that of Henry Herbert who was created Baron of Cherbury 7 May, A.D. 1629.

1116.

An old Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. The Copy of a Dyde taken owte of the Evidences of Thom. Wolley of Hamſted in the Counte of Staffordе Anno 1563. 2.

It is a Deed in French, whereby Thomas the ſon of Sr. John de Heronyll Kt. grants or paſſes away his own Arms to Roger de Wyrley. dat. ann. 38 R. Edw. III. 2. et 43.

2. An old Delineation (perhaps taken from ſome Window) of St. Michael the Arch-Angell in a fighting poſture, paſted upon. 4.

On fol. 3. b. ſome Arms-Painter has drawn the Repreſentation of a Dragon, who ſeems to have loſt Three of his Seaven Heads through the Valour of St. Michael.

3. Then follow 8 Leaves containing vacant Eſcoche ons with Garters, Helmets & Mantles (18 in each Leaf) tricked, as I believe, in order to inſert therein, the Arms of the ſeveral Knights of the Garter. 5.

4. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Perſons & Families mentioned in the enſuing Tracts. 13.

5. Armes geven ſyns the tyme of Henry the vth. and in his tyme, to deep in the raign of K. Henry the VIIIth. among which are the Arms of divers Abbats & Priors, & of others of the Clergy. At the end are ſome Additions by recenter hands. 16.

Num. 1116.

Bucks. Esq. by William Hervey Clarenceux. dat. 8 July, A.D. 1564. 35. b.

11. Grant of Arms in French (without a Crest) to Peter Dodge a Native of Stopworth in the County of Chester, by James Hedingley Guyan King of Arms. dat. 8th of April, ann 34 R. Edw. 1. (with the Arms of the said Guyan.) 37. b.

If this be a true Grant, it is the oldest that I have, as yet, met with. But the Date makes me believe it to have been forged, it running in these Words, "Donné le 8 jour d'Auril le 34 an du Regne de nostre dit Seigneur Edward fitz au Roy Henry, et depuis la Conquest le primer du Nom." 'Tis notorious that the Phrase since the Conquest, was first applied to K. Edward the Third; not to insist upon the diction, which seems more modern than the time it pretends to.

12. Confirmation of Arms & Grant of a Crest to Arthur Herrys of Cryxsey in Com. Essex Esq. by William Flower Norroy. dat. 29 Nov. A.D. 1578. 38.

13. A Collection of Docquets of Grants & Confirmations of Arms & Crests (among which, are some Grants written at length) some with the Arms tricked, & others without. The Officers of Arms who made these Grants were Roger Machado Richmond alias Clarenceux; Thomas Holme, Norroy; Cristofer Carlile, Norroy; Thomas Benolt, Clarenceux; Gylbert Dethyk, Norroy, afterwards Garter; Sir Cristopher Barker, Garter; William Harvey, Clarencieulx; Sir Thomas Wriothesley, Garter; Thomas Hawley, Norroy, afterwards Clarenceux; Bartholomew Butler, Ulster; Sir William Segar, Garter, &c. 38. b.

In this Collection, the following Grants are set down at length, viz.

14. Concessio Additamenti Armis Everardi Everdes, per D. Gilbertum Dethyke, Garterum. dat. 10 die Martij, anno . . . R. Mariæ. 45.

15. Attestatio D. Gilberti Dethike Gart. de Armis Michaelis Locke. dat. 5 die Julij, ann. . . . . R. R. Philippi et Mariæ. 45. b.

16. Grant of a Lozenge with Armes, to the Lady Jone, wyffe unto Sir William Laxton Kt. & Alderman of London, sometyme Mayre of the same Citie, and doughter of William Kyrkby: by Thomas Hawley Clarenceux. dat. 20 July, ann. 2. & 3 RR. Philip. & Mar. 46.

1134.

An Heraldical Book in fol. tricked, & ſuperſcribed by ſeveral hands; being,

A large Alphabet of Arms; the firſt part whereof is not ſo regular & ſightly as the latter part; where the Arms are tricked in printed Eſcocheons, 16 in a Page.

1135.

An Heraldical Book in fol. thus entituled,

1. A Viſitation of Suſſex, taken in the yeare 1633, & 1634, by John Phillpot Somerſett, and George Owen Yorke

Num. 1135—1137.

Yorke, Heralds of Armes; and John Withie who rode Painter in the ſaid Viſitation: Thoſe two above-mentioned Heralds being Marſhalls & Deputies to Sir John Borough, Garter, and Sir Richard St. George Clarenceux, who by Agreement, viſited jointly.

2. At the beginning, is an alphabetical Table referring to the ſaid Suſſex Pedegrees.

1136.

An Heraldical Book in fol. the Leaves whereof are both inverted and miſplaced through the careleſs Neglect of the Book-binder. In it are contained,

1. Part of a Tranſcript out of the Viſitation-Book of the County of Buckinghamſhire made A.D. 1634 by John Philipot Somerſet, and William Ryley Blew-Mantle, Marſhalls & Deputies to Sir Richard St. George Clarenceux, and Sir John Borough Norroy, King of Arms; who viſited jointly. 1.

2. Pedegrees & Arms of the Suffolk-Families; copied from the Viſitation-book of William Hervey Clarenceux, made A.D. 1561. and perhaps, from ſome others. 17. to 68.

3. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Pedegrees are deſcribed in this Book. At the end.

1137.

An Heraldical Book in fol, written & tricked by different hands; wherein I find,

1. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families whoſe Pedegrees are deſcribed in this Book. 1.

2. An incomplete Table of the Arms of Families extant in this Book. 3.

3. Deſcents of Parker, Bugg, Ap Walter, Hevingham, &c. in an imperfect Paper. 6.

4. Series Vicecomitum Eſſexiæ, ab anno 1 R. Henrici II. uſq; ad annum 43 R. Elizabethæ. 7

5. The Viſitacion of Eſſex taken by William Hervey Eſq. alias Clarenceulx King of Armes: begonne the 10th day of Auguſt Anno 1558. in the 5th and 6th yeares of the raygnes of our Soveringe Lord & Lady Kinge Phillipe & Queene Mary, &c. being (with the Liſt of Sheriffes above mentioned) copied by Jacob Chaloner, and by him dedicated to Garter principal King of Arms, 26 December, 1615. 11.

In this Copie of that Viſitation-book, I farther obſerve.

6. The Name and Arms of John Gough the Painter-Stainer, who owned this Book, A.D. 1638. and was a Man of the firſt rank in his buſineſs; being equal to Henry Lilly, Richard Mundy, John Withie, &c. ibid.

7. The Arms of Jacob Chaloner aforeſaid. 11. b.

8. The Names, and ſome of the Arms of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Eſſex, A.D. 1601. tricked in printed Eſcocheons; but the Leaves inverted. 12.

9. Arms of the Eſſex-Gentry; tricked in printed Eſcocheons. 15.

Some of theſe Arms, namely in fol. 16. & 17. appear to be put down by Mr. John Gough; whereby his hand, both in writing & tricking, may be father obſerved; as in fol. 32. 33. 40. and in many more places both in this, and other Books.

10. It may be noted that Jacob Chaloner has brought down many of the Pedigrees to the year 1614. at which time the Viſitation of this County was taken by John Raven Richmond Herald, Deputie & Marſhal to William Camden Clarenceux; to which Mr. Gough has made ſome later additions; particularly from that Viſitation which was made of this County, A.D. 1634. by George Owen York Herald, & Henry Lilly Rouge-Roſe, for Sr. Henry St. George Clarenceux & Sr. John Borough Norroy.

Num. 1138—1140.

11. The Petegre of Thomas Whightbrede of Whight-Nottley in the Conte of Eſſex, taken the 24th of July, anno 1561. by way of Narration, with ſome other ſuch Pedegrees, & Church Notes, which ſeem of the ſame Age. 90.

12. Theſe Deſcents following were taken in the laſt Viſitacon made for the County of Eſſex, by George Owen Als Yorke-Herauld, & Henry Lilly Rouge Roſe, Anno 1634. being almoſt wholly written & tricked by John Gough abovementioned. 114. to 142.

13. A Note touching the Honors, & great Employments of Sir Edward Conway Kt. Baron Conway of Ragley, Viſcount Kilulta in Ireland, & Vicount Conway of Conway-Caſtle in Wales; with his marriage, children, & death. 143. b.

1138.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. An Index, or alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Pedigrees are deſcribed in the following Work.

2. The Pedegrees of the Northamptonſhire Gentry, with their Arms, as regiſtered (by way of Narration) at the Viſitation of that County, A.D. 1566. by William Hervey, Clarenceux.

Note, both the writing & tricking of this Copie, are very indifferent.

1139.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are jumbled together,

The Pedegrees & Arms of three ſeverall Counties; being copied from the Viſitation-books following,

1. The Viſitation of Berkſhire, as taken A.D. 1566. by William Hervey Clarenceux, and enlarged by William Smith alias Rouge-dragon, A.D. 1602.

2. The Viſitation of Hampſhire, as taken A.D. 1576. by Robert Cooke Clarenceux.

3. The Viſitation of Buckinghamſhire, as taken A.D. 1574. by Richard Lee, Portcullis, Deputy & Marſhall to the ſaid Robert Cooke Clarenceux; with Additions, or Continuations to them all.

Herein I alſo find Delineations of,

4. The Arms of the Abbey of Abendon.

5. The Arms of the Town of Abendon.

6. The Arms of Thomas Pentecoſt Abbat of Abendon, impaling thoſe of his Monaſtery.

7. The Arms of the Town of Reading, in Berkſhire.

6. The Armes of the Gentry of Herefordshire in Blazon. 134.

7. Notes concerning some of the Mortimers, &c. who were buried in the Abbey of Wigmore. 139.

8. Notes concerning the Family of Mylborne, Cornewall, & Blacket. 140.

9. Alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families mentioned in the preceding Pedegrees. 140. b.

1141.

An Heraldical Book in fol. which being remarkable, I shall more particularly describe. I find in it,

1. A Page wherein are the Arms of 16 Families impaled by, or impaling Wyndham; they belong not to the following Work, but are added to it.

2. The ORIGINAL Book of the Visitation of the County of Somerset, as it was taken A.D. 1623. by Henry St. George Esq. Richmond Herald; & Sampson Lennaad, Blew-Mantle, Marshalls and Deputies to William Camden Clarenceux. 1.

Many of the Pedegrees are sett down by the hands of the abovementioned Officers of Arms, and especially by the former: the rest are done by others whose hands I know not.

The greatest part of the Pedegrees are subscribed by the particular Persons attending to give information of their several Descents at the Visitation; but why they are not all subscribed in the like manner, I cannot say.

There are but few Arms in this Book; and on the top of the Pedegrees, are putt a Cross or two made with red Chalk, and sometimes the Word ENTERED. The reasons of these, I take to be that at the Visitations, the Officers of Arms took the Descents on loose Quires or Sheets of Paper, omitting (for the most part) the Arms, especially if they found the same agreeable to those in the Book or Books which they brought along with them. Or if the Painter took a Trick of such Arms, it would be a great Accident if the same came to be inserted in, or pasted on these loose Papers. When the Officers were returned home from their Visitation, every One of their loose original Papers were fairly transcribed or ENTERED into a Book, which became the Office-book for that Visitation, and the said loose original Papers were oftentimes neglected or forgotten, or not demanded, or not delivered up; so that after the decease of the said Officers, or of the Painters who attended at those Visitations, or were otherwise employed by them, many of these original Papers (sometimes not so much as bound up together) came into the hands of those who took care to preserve them; and others seem to be utterly lost.

Sometimes it has happened that such like original Papers, while they were loose, & not numbred, were transcribed by several People; which seems to be one reason, why the many Copies of such or such a Visitation-book, do not begin & go on like; but that a descent which is at the beginning of one Copie, shall be toward the middle, or end of another.

And by transcribing from such original Papers, the Copies come to differ in the number of the Arms, because each Copist, or after-Owner of such a Book, might be more or less able to supply his Book with the Arms wanting.

As to the Seals of Corporations, I find many in these original Books tricked with Curiosity enough; except as to the Letters of the Epigraphe or Circumscription, which the Painters might have copied with much more truth & exactness, if they had thought it worth the while.

These Remarks may serve for the other original Books of this kind, in this Library.

Num. 1141—1144.

In this Book I find registered, besides some Seals of Families, & Notes from old Deeds,

3. The Seals of the City of Wells. 13. b.

4. The Seals of the Town & Borough of Bridgwater. 14.

5. The Seals of the Town & Borough of Axbridge. 30. b.

6. The Seals & Arms of the City of Bath. 34.

7. Alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whose Pedigrees are described in this Visitation. 133.

8. Then follow divers additional Pedegrees, with Arms, done by divers hands; the first whereof I take to be, for the most part, done by the hand of Richard Mundy, an eminent Herald-Painter; but who continued it I cannot as yet learn, though I find much of his hand in this Library, at the College of Arms, and in the private Collections or Studies of Painters. 134. b.

9. Names of the disclaimed at this Visitation. 136. b. & 137. b.

10. The Remainder of the additional Pedegrees abovementioned, at N° 8. 137. 138. to 143.

1142.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein is contained,

1. A Copie of the Visitation-book of the County of Cornwall, as it was taken A.D. 1620. by Henry St. George Esq. Richmond Herald. & Sampson Lennard Blew-Mantle; Marshals & Deputies to William Camden, Clarenceux, King of Arms.

In this Copie, the Arms are omitted, excepting some few which are putt down in Blazon; but the names of the Subscribers to their Pedegrees are sett down.

2. At the end, is an alphabetical Table of the Surnames of those Families whose Pedegrees are described in this Book.

1143.

An Heraldical Book in thin fol. entituled both on the outside, & within, " A Book of single Coates of Wales:" But the Tract contained therein beareth this that follows,

The ancient Descent of . . . . . and worthy Gentlemen springing from Wales, and now sondry of them Great Howsend of Honor, of Worship in England.

I have seen divers Copies of this Tract; and therefore take leave to specifie that it is an older, and more complete Copie than that in this Library, marked, N° 1370. as containing 197 Coats, all in Colours; beginning with Kadwallader, & ending with Bowld. Every Coat is ascribed to the Patriarch of some Family (if I may say so) and the Place of Residence of his Posterity is particularly mentioned.

1144.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. Guyfts of Arms, and Confirmations, both moderne & antient. The Person who designed to make a Collection of this kind, stopped in the beginning of his Course; he having putt down but two, vizt. those of Wheeler of London Goldsmith, descended out of Worcestershire, & Peers of West-downe in Kent. 1. b.

Then follow a few miscellaneous Pedegrees, sett down by . . . .

2. Descent & Arms of Whetham attested by William Ryley, Lancaster-Herald. 3. b.

3. Descent & Arms of Blincarne; attested by the same. 5. & 6.

4. Descent & Arms of Aylmer. 6. b.

5. Descent of Gray. 7. b.

6. Descent of Tayler. 8.

Num. 1152, 1153.

made A.D. 1567. by William Flower, Norroy, by Thomas Knight then Rouge-Croix. 4.

That this Tract is of the hand of this Thomas Knight (the same who for so many years contested with Will. Penson for the Office of Chester-Herald; and is accordingly mentioned as Chester-Herald in Mr. Weever's Funeral Monuments, p. 682.) may appear by an Ordinary of Arms which I lately saw in the House of Mr. Charles Wiseman the Painter-Stayner, done by the same hand as this; and at the beginning of the said Book, in the same hand, were the Words following, vizt. Thomas Knight Rouge-Croix wrote this Book.

3. The Arms of some few Lancashire-Families; tricked by a later Hand. 14.

4. Many Pedegrees & Arms, as it seems copied by Thomas Knight Rouge Croix, from the Book of the Visitation of the County of Chester, as it was taken, A.D. 1580. by William Flower Norroy, and in his Company Robert Glover Somerset Herald. 16.

5. Some few Arms of Cheshire-Families; by the other hand. 28.

6. Alphabetical Table containing the Surnames of Families, whose Pedegrees & Arms are mentioned in the two Articles next above. At the end.

1153.

An Heraldical Book in fol. consisting of divers Tracts bound up together; and distinguished one from the other by Labels of Vellum which reach from the binding to the utter margin; which notwithstanding, I shall describe in the following manner.

27. An alphabetical Table containing the Surnames of Families mentioned in these Durham Descents.

28. A Copie of the Visitation-book of the County of Northumberland, taken by Richard St. George Esq; otherwise called Norroy King of Armes of the Northe parts of England from the Ryver of Trent northward, and in his company Henry St. George Blew-mantell Pursuyvant of Armes, in anno 1615. (but few Arms in this Copie.) 50.

29. An alphabetical Table containing the Surnames of Families mentioned in the preceding Pedegrees. 57.

30. An alphabetical Table containing the Surnames of Dorsetshire Families, mentioned in the Treatise next following. 62.

31. Dorsett Visitation: i. e. a Copie of the Visitation-book of that Countie, made A.D. 1565. by William Hervey Clarenceux. The Pedegrees are described by way of Narration, & the Arms in Blazon. 69.

In this Copie I also find,

32. A rude Trick of the Seal of the Town of Dorchester. 80. b.

Among the other Pedegrees, I observe inserted,

33. The Descent of Uffenham alias Lawrence, taken out of the Visitation of Wiltshire made by William Harvie alias Clarenceux King of Armes, 27 Martij, Anno 1565. 82.

1161.

An Heraldical Book in a long & thin fol. all written & tricked by the hand of Thomas Knight, who was firſt Rouge-Croix, & afterwards Cheſter-Herald. It contains,

Part of the Pedegrees of the Gentry of the County of Salop, copied (as I ſuppoſe) from thoſe regiſtred at the Viſitation thereof A.D. 1584, by Richard Lee Portcullis, for Robert Cooke Clarenceux.

1162.

An Heraldical Book in fol. for the moſt part written by the hands of Henry St. George Richmond Herald, & Mr. Sampſon Lennard, Blew-mantle; wherein are contained,

1. Moſt of the Pedegrees of the Corniſh Gentry, as they were herein regiſtred by the above-named Officers of Arms, A.D. 1620, when they viſited the County of Cornwall as Marſhalls & Deputies to William Camden, Clarenceux; and ſubſcribed by the hands of thoſe Gentlemen who gave the Informations touching their ſeveral Deſcents.

Farther, I take leave to obſerve,

2. That in taking the Deſcents, the ſaid Officers entred the ſame into looſe Quires of Paper (if I may uſe that term, for a number of Sheets exceeding 24.) as may plainly enough appear by fol. 50. & 51. by fol. 117. b. by the laſt Leaf of the Book; & by the ſewing of the ſame. And that in proceſs of time (after they had been copied by ſome, & before they were tranſcribed by others) they were bound up together by Mr. Sampſon Lennard, whoſe Arms are ſtamped on the Cover.

3. That moſt of the Deſcents regiſtred herein being to be tranſcribed, as out of the proper Original, into a Book for the uſe of the Office; ſuch as were to be copied or entered into the ſaid New Book, were marked with a certain Mark, thus ※ (which I know not how to Term Heraldically; but every one knows the Muſicians call it a Sharp) as ſoon any of theſe Deſcents were thus deſcribed in the Office-Book, the Copyiſt wrote this Word "Entred," upon the ſame. And this I take to be the reaſon why that Word, & that Mark are ſo often ſet down in this Book, either with Black Lead or Red Chalk.

4. For a Confirmation of what I have written concerning the Signification of that Mark ſo put down in this and other like Books (touching which I have aſked divers well-ſkilled in Heraldry, without receiving a poſitive Anſwer from them) I find, that at fol. 12. 16 b. 21. b. 151. 145. b. it is omitted; thoſe Deſcents being directed to be entered in the Viſitation-book of Devonſhire (For the Officers abovementioned, did alſo Viſit the County of Devon, A.D. 1620.) and when they were accordingly regiſtred in the Devonſhire Book, I ſuppoſe the Word "Entred," was to have been put over them.

5. The ſaid Mark is alſo omitted in other Places, as it ſeems, for ſeveral reaſons, vizt. at fol. 8. 16. 27. the Perſons whoſe Deſcents are there noted, being perhaps diſclaimed, or did not pay their Fees. And that this might be a Reaſon for leaving out ſuch Deſcents, ſeems plain from fol. 2. b. whereon was this Note, now daſhed out, "Not to be enter'd, but to be diſclaimed;" under which is written "This muſt be entred;" and accordingly the Word "Entred," is written above the Deſcent, & the Mark ※ with Red Chalk as uſual. As to the omiſſion of the ſaid Mark at the Deſcent of Penſonn. fol. 121. I know not what to ſay; whether it be now quite worn off (as others are almoſt gone) or that it was paſſed over by miſtake. For the Word "Enter'd" is plain enough over the Deſcent, tho' the Deſcent its ſelf is wanting in Mr. Withie's Copie of this Viſitation. Not to mention this, that the Information touching this Deſcent, is not ſubſcribed by any of the Name, but by one Philipp Hodgſham for Mr. Pigorie Penſonn.

6. In ſome places the uſual Word "Entred" is omitted, where the ※ is expreſſed, as relating to either Extracts from De[e]ds, or to Deſcents, as at fol. 73. b. 109. b. 124. as it ſhould ſeem by the overſight of the Copiſt neglecting the due Entrance of them. Thus after fol. 133. he ſeems to have turned over two Leaves together inſtead of one, there being no "Entred" on fol. 133. b. & 134. a. whereas there are Twelve Marks ※ or +, and in fol. 134. b. & 135. the Entrances are obſerved duly enough. Nor ſhould the turning over of two Leaves together inſtead of one, be much wonder'd at, ſince many have, in haſt, done ſo; even theſe Officers themſelves, as may be ſeen at fol. 90. b. & 91. In other places the ſaid Word is alſo omitted, namely at fol. 116. b. where the Deſcent is croſſed, as I ſuppoſe for not paying the Fees: At fol. 127. & 170. b. perhaps through negligence, the Deſcents being in Mr. Withies Copie: And here it may be alſo noted, that the Croſſing out a Deſcent in an Original Book, is not always to be underſtood againſt the Family there mentioned; becauſe, what is croſſed at fol. 115. b. is again enter'd at fol. 171. b.

7. In ſome Places, both the ※ & the word "Entred," are wanting; as at the firſt Leaf of the Book, which plainly appears to be an Addition; not belonging to the Quire beginning at fol. 1. & ending with fol. 50. And 'tis needleſs to obſerve that Richard Lord Arundell of Treryſe, created ſo by K. Charles the Second, A.D. 1665, could not be regiſtred as ſuch, A.D. 1620. The Leaf 84. is alſo a ſingle Leaf paſted to fol. 83. The Deſcent of Petit, at fol. 118. b. is alſo of the ſame late hand, which wrote that of Arundel, in the firſt Page.

8. As to the Arms of Families in this Book, they are but few; and, for the moſt part, added by Henry Parker ker the Painter, as I ſuppoſe; whoſe hand-writing alſo (by way of Addition to ſome Pedegrees) appeareth in fol. 49. b. 50. 122. b. &c. but particular Directions relating to the Arms of ſome Families, which were to be entred into the Office-book, may be ſeen at fol. 153. 158. 159. 160. & 168.

Moreover I find in this Book,

9. The Grant of Arms to John Bonnatre Gent. by William Hawkeſlowe Clarenceux. dat. 1 April, ann, 20 Hen. VI. 23.

10. Copie of a Warrant of K. Henry VIII. whereby he gave Licence to Stephen Tucker of Lamartyn in Com. Devon. Gentleman; to wear his Bonnet upon his Head as well in his preſence, as elſewhere; i. e. at Divine Service; and this in reſpect of certayne Diſeaſes & Infirmities (perhaps a Scald Head, or Leproſie) attending the ſaid Mr. Tucker, dated 2 July, anno regni 10. Sir Henry St. George, or ſomebody elſe for him, has endeavoured to imitate the King's Hand & Signet. 68.

It ſeems as if the Deſcendants of this Mr. Tucker thought the Warrant abovementioned to be a glorious Mark of the King's Favor to their Anceſtor & Family; which really was only a Liberty procured for him, that in ſuch Places where he (as well as his Superiors) muſt otherwiſe have been uncovered; he might by wearing a Bonnet or Cap hide a loathſome Sight. See this Catalogue where (from MS. No. 1856. fol. 7. b.) another Inſtance may be ſeen of that King's giving a like Warrant to Bartholomew Heſketh, becauſe of divers Infirmities in his Hede.

1163.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written (for the moſt part) by Sir Henry St. George while only Richmond-Herald, & Mr. Sampſon Lennard, Blew-Mantle; being the greateſt part of thoſe Papers wherein they regiſtred the Deſcents of the Gentry of the County of Devon, at the Viſitation thereof made for William Camden Clarenceux, A.D. 1620. in the ſame method with that relating to Cornwall, laſt mentioned.

1. This Book conſiſts of ſix double Quires of Paper, whereinto (while they were yet looſe) the ſeveral Pedegrees were entered into them, and ſubſcribed by the Gentry who gave or ſent the Informations. Afterward they were bound up together by Mr. Lennard, whoſe Arms appear on the Cover.

2. Before theſe Pedegrees were to be tranſcribed from his ORIGINAL Book, into another Book for the OFFICE, they were reviewed, and this Mark ⁂ put upon thoſe Deſcents, & Proofs from Deeds which were to be tranſcribed; which when done accordingly, the Copyiſt put alſo thereon the Word "Entred;" as in the former Book.

3. Thus it may be ſeen, that one Whyte proving that his Father had the Stile of Gentleman, in certain Deeds, had his Deſcent regiſtred (at fol. 7. b.) & ſubſcribed the ſame; and it was marked ⁂ in order to be regiſtred in the Office-book: but upon further Conſideration, that he had not ſhewed any Right he had to Arms, theſe Words were written upon it, "To be diſclaimed," and therefore the Word "Entred" is not added to it. The Arms on the Margin were put down afterwards, by Henry Parker as I ſuppoſe; who ſeems to have putt down divers others herein.

4. Some other Deſcents, where there are no notices of any Entrances thereof made into the Office-Book, may be ſeen at fol. 80. b. & 84. b. 257, &c.

5. The Deſcent of Norleigh is noted to have been entred by a "Miſinformation," and is therefore ſtruck out, at fol. 210. b. Some others in like manner ſtruck out, may be ſeen at foll. 118. 131. And the particular direction of Mr. St. George, at fol. 160. about entering the Deſcent of Yeo, is not unworthy of Remark.

6. The Deſcent of Fulford, faſtened in, between the Leaves 213. & 214. is a later Addition, and belongs not to the original Papers.

7. Towards the end of the 5th Quire, namely at fol. 218. one Henry Parker, an Arms-Painter, has added a Deſcent of his own Family (a Tradition about it, & his forging the ſame, is ſtill among the Heralds.) He mentions himſelf & his Children at fol. 220. ſtiling himſelf Poſſeſſor hujus Libri, from whence his hand-writing, ſo frequently ſeen, may be certainly & eaſily known. It ſeems, that after the death of Mr. Lennard, his Books came into the hands of this Mr. Parker; before that Robert Fiſher bought them; and then he put in this his own Deſcent, which wants the ⁂ and the uſual Word "Entred."

8. This ſame Henry Parker alſo finding (at fol. 153.) a Deſcent of his Name, duely ſubſcribed, and from thence entred into the Office-book; has much enlarged the ſame, both in that & the preceding page.

9. He has alſo made ſome other Additions, at fol. 141. b. & 147. &c.

10. The Deſcents alſo of Drake, &c. 220. b. &c. are added to this original Book, by Parker & others.

In this Book, I alſo find,

11. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families whoſe Deſcents are herein ſet down. 280.

12. Deſcent of Fynes, Viſcount Say & Sele, from Wickham; written by Henry Parker, after fol. 283.

13. Deſcent & Arms of Warren of Rame in Cornwall; ſet down by Henry Parker after fol. 284.

1164.

An Heraldical Book in fol. for the moſt part, written by the hand of Sampſon Lennard Blew-mantle, A. D. 1620, when he with Henry St. George Eſq. then Richmond-Herald, took the Viſitation of the Counties of Devon & Cornwall; this Book being a part of the original Viſitation Book of each of them, and therefore ſhould have been bound up together with the two Books laſt deſcribed.

That this Book is the Original, appears plainly enough from the hands of the Gentlemen & Magiſtrates, &c. who gave the Information; from the uſual Word "Entred" putt upon the Pedegrees with Black Lead, or Red Chalk; and divers other convincing Notes. Why the uſual Mark ⁂ or + being a direction to the Tranſcriber, ſhould be all alongomitted, I cannot ſay poſitively.

This Book being not only the Original, for ſo much as it contains; but otherwiſe rare, in eſcaping the Tranſcription of moſt of the Arms-Painters, I ſhall deſcribe more particularly; as follows,

1. At the beginning is an alphabetical Table containing the Surnames of thoſe Families whoſe Deſcents are regiſtred herein.

2. That part of this Book, which relates to Devonſhire; begins at fol. 1. & ends at fol. 54.

And herein I find the Arms & Seals of divers Corporations, curiouſly tricked: vizt.

3. The Common Seal of the City of Exeter. 3. b.

4. The Arms & Common Seal of the City of Exeter. 4.

5. The Arms (or Seal) of the Merchant-Adventurers of the County & City of Exeter. 5.

6. The Arms of the Guilde & Fraternitie of St. John Baptiſt, of the Marchant Taylors of the Cittie of Exeter. 8.

7. The Armes appertaining to the Fellowſhip of the Glovers, Skinners, Poynters, & Parchment Makers of the Cittie & Countie of Exeter. 9.

Num. 1164.

8. The Armes appertaineing to the Fellowſhip of the Weavers, Tuckers, & Shermen of Exeter. 10.

9. The Armes appertayning to the Fellowſhip of the Smithes, Cutlers, Sadlers, Armorours, Lorenners, & Braſiers of the Cittie & Countie of Exeter. 11.

10. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of Tottnes. 25.

11. The Armes, and Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of Dartmouth. 25. b.

12. The Armes. and Common Seal of the Towne & Boroughe of Great Torrington. 27.

13. The Armes and Seales of the Towne & Borroughe of Barneſtaple. 28. b.

14. The Common Seales of the Towne & Borough of Biddiford. 30.

15. The Common Seale of the Towne & Boroughe of South-Moulton. 31.

16. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borroughe of Tiverton. 32.

17. The Common Seale of the Towne & Boroughe of Brodminche. 33.

18. The Common Seales of the Towne & Borough of Plimouth. 34.

Other Things I obſerve in this part of the Book, are,

19. Some Continuations, by the hand of Henry Parker, at 3. 6. b. 18. b.

20. The Pedegrees & Arms of Tiderleigh, are directded to be entred into the Book of Dorſetſhire. 17. b.

21. Many conſiderable Extracts from Deeds, & Tricks of the Seals of ſome Devonſhire Families. ſparſim.

22. The other part of the Book is inſcribed "The Viſitacon of Cornwall;" & begins at fol. 59.

And herein, beſides the Pedegrees of Families, I find elaborate Tricks, of 23. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borrough of Dunheved, alias Launceſton. 71.

24. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borrough of Bodmin. 72.

25. The Armes & Common Seales of the Towne & Burroughe of Truro. 73.

26. The Common Seale of the Towne & Boroughe of Grampound. 82.

27. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borroughe of Helſtone. 83.

28. The Common Seale of the Towne of Penſance. 84.

29. The Common Seale of the Town of . . . . 85.

30. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borroughe of Tregonny. 86.

31. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of Liſkerett. 90.

32. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borroughe of Portbyan, alias Weſt Loe. 91.

33. The Common Seale of the Towne & Boroughe of Saltaſhe. 93.

34. Articles of a Complaint made by Sir William Segar Garter, againſt Ralf Brook, York Herald; whereby it appears that honeſt Ralph had been burnt in the hand: and that one of his practiſes againſt Sir William, was to procure him to confirm the Arms of Brandon, to a Gentleman living in Spain, as Ralph pretended; but really (as Sir William complains) hereby to confirm a Coate of Armes to the Hangman of London, to his ſubverſion & utter undoing. 130. b.

(NB. I have been told, that, for this fact, both Sir William & Ralf were put into the Marſhalſea; where the latter was long detained.)

Num. 1165, 1166.

1165.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by Henry St. George Eſq. & others, upon three looſe Quires of Paper, which were afterwards bound up together in their preſent condition, by Henry Parker the Arms-Painter, as it ſeems.

1. This Mr. Parker has given it the Title following; "The Viſitation of Wiltſhire, taken A° 1623, by Henry St George Richmond & Sampſon Lennard Blew-Mantle, Marſhals & Deputies to William Camden, Clarentiux, King of Armes." And this Book by the Subſcriptions of thoſe who gave the Informations; and by the Marks made with Black Lead, or Red-Chalk, relating to their being "Entred" into the Office book, appears to be the Original.

2. Theſe Marks are Croſſes thus + made above the Pedegrees, Extracts from antient Evidences, &c. which were the Directions for entering the ſame into another Book for the Office: which being done, I ſuppoſe that the Copyiſt made another, either near it or upon it. Thus, moſt of the Pedegrees appear doubly croſſed x x or * &c. without writing the Word "Entred," as in the other Books laſt deſcribed.

3. In this Book there are Notes relating to the Deſcents, or Arms of many Families; whether they were proved, or wanted proof; whether thoſe who were ſummoned to attend, were reſpited, &c.

4. Some of theſe Pedegrees have received Additions from Mr. Henry Parker the Arms-painter, as appears by his hand, at fol. 27. 27. b. 28. 29. 31. b. 33. b. 34. b. &c.

The Arms and Seals of Corporations, tricked in this Book, are,

5. The Arms & Seale of the Towne & Borough of Merleberge. 12. b.

6. The Armes & Seales of the Cittie of New Sar. 13

7. The Common Seale of the Town & Borough of Malmeſburie. 32. b.

8. The Common Seale of the Towne & Boroughe of Chippenham. 33.

9. The Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of Wotton-Baſſet. 60. b.

10. The Arms & Common Seals of the Guild & Stewards of the Towne & Boroughe of Calne. 62. b.

11. The Common Seal of the Towne & Borough of Wilton. 63.

12. The Armes & Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of the Deviſes. 88. b.

13. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Deſcents are deſcribed in this Book. 101.

14. A Note of all ſuch as have uſurpt the Name & Titles of Gentlemen without authoritie, & were diſclaimed at Saliſburie in the County of Wiltſheire, in September, Anno 1623. 105.

1166.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written upon three large Quires of Paper when looſe (which have been ſince bound up together, perhaps, by Henry Parker the Arms-Painter) by Mr. Henry St. George then Richmond-Herald, Mr. Sampſon Lennard, Blew-Mantle, and others, A.D. 1623, when they took the Viſitation of the County of Dorſet, for Mr. William Camden, Clarenceux.

By the Subſcriptions of the Gentlemen who gave Information, by the hands of Mr. St. George & Mr. Lennard, by the Mark + or × made with Red Chalk over every Deſcent, being a more ſure Note of its being "Entered"

Num. 1166, 1167.

"Entered" into the Office-book; & by divers other Notes occurring herein, this appears to be the Original.

1. I have heretofore obſerved, that at the Viſitations, the Officers of Arms did not uſually trick the Arms of the Gentry, in their looſe Papers along with their Pedegrees; although they did not at the ſame time neglect the Seals of Corporations & private Families. And I believe that moſt of the Arms found in this Book tricked with Pen or Pencil, were added by Mr. Henry Parker the Arms Painter; whoſe handwriting alſo appears at fol. 31. 33. 39 b. 49. b. and in divers other places. Herein alſo may be found, Tricks of

2. The Common Seals of the Town of Weymouth & Melcomb Regis. 8.

3. The Armes & Common Seal of the Towne & Borough of Brideport. 8. b.

4. The Common Seales of the Towne & Borough of Dorcheſter. 21.

5. The Armes & Common Seale of the Towne & Borough of Pole. 27.

Moreover, I find herein,

6. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Deſcents were regiſtred at this Viſitation. 82.

7. Tricks of fifteen Coats, born by ſo many Families of different Counties, by Grants or otherwiſe, here put down by Henry Parker with black lead only, for the moſt part. 86.

8. A Note of all ſuch as have uſurpt the Names & Titles of Gentlemen without Authoritie; and were diſclaimed at Bridport, & Dorcheſter, in September A.D. 1623. At the end.

1167.

An Heraldical Book in fol. before which Mr. Henry Parker has written this Title,

1. "The Viſitacon of the County of Warwick; taken Anno 1619. by Sampſon Lennard Blew-Mantle, & Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Roſe, being Marſhalls & Deputies for William Camden Clarentiux, King of Armes."

This Book is almoſt entirely written by the hand of the ſaid Mr. Lennard; and being bound up by his Order, has his Arms ſtamped on the Cover. This Book wants all the hands of thoſe Gentlemen who gave Information touching their reſpective Deſcents (excepting that of Mr. John Kynnerſley, at 30. b.) and therefore cannot be the Original: and ſome of the original Papers ſo ſubſcribed at this Viſitation, are yet extant in the Book inſcribed 66. c. 22. as will appear, in its proper place.

2. Although this be not the Original, it appears to be tranſcribed from the original looſe Papers by Mr. Lennard, & others who wrote thoſe Papers, or ſuch like, at other Viſitations taken by this Mr. Lennard, the Identity of the hands being plain in many places. And it is obſervable, that the Corporation Seals, & many of the Arms are tricked in this Book by the ſame Painter who rode with him to this & other Viſitations, & tricked them in the original Papers.

3. The original Book at the College of Arms, is no more an original Book than this; conſiſting not of the looſe Papers abovementioned, but of a fair Tranſcript of the ſame by Mr. Auguſtine Vincent & Mr. Sampſon Lennard; with the Seals, &c. tricked by the ſame hand which delineated thoſe in this Copie. But then many of the Pedegrees, eſpecially in Mr. Vincent's part, are ſubſcribed by the hands of the Gentlemen who gave the Information; which makes the College Book authentic, eſpecially ſo far as thoſe hands go. Hereby it ſeems that theſe Officers of Arms, cauſed the Pedegrees they took from the Information of the Gentry in the looſe Papers, to be ſigned by them immediately. And before they were diſmiſſed, there was a fair Tranſcript of the ſame got ready, to which they likewiſe ſubſcribed. I ſuppoſe that Mr. Lennard deſigned this Book for that uſe; but by that in the College of Arms, it ſhould ſeem that Mr. Vincent was rather inclined to bring into the Office, the Deſcents regiſtred by him at this Viſitation all written by himſelf. Mr. Kinnerſley's hand, is alſo put to his Pedegree in the ſaid Book.

4. Whether that Book aforeſaid in the Library of the College of Arms was tranſcribed from this, I will not now determine, although it may ſeem likely enough, this having a Croſs + or + + made with Red Chalk or Black Lead, at the top of almoſt every Deſcent, which that Book wants. So that if that Book was not a Copie of this, I believe ſome other Book in the ſame Office was, before that might be brought in by Mr. Lennard & Mr Vincent aforeſaid. For that the Officers who took the Viſitation, did not preſently bring into the Office the authentic Books or Regiſtries of the ſame, may appear by the conduct of Mr. Nicholas Charles Lancaſter-Herald, who took the Viſitation of the County of Huntingdon (a ſmall County) A.D. 1613, but did not bring into the Office his Regiſtry or Viſitation-book thereof until the 5th of May A.D. 1621.

In this Book alſo, are preſerved the Tricks of

5. The Common Seale of the Borough of Warwick. 60.

6. The Armes of the Cittye of Coventrie. 65.

7. The Seale of the Borough of Stratford upon Avon. 76.

8. The Seale of the Towne of Sutton Colfield. 99.

9. Some few Additions of Mr. Henry Parker may be diſcerned, at fol. 53. b. 115. 119. b. 120. &c.

10. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Deſcents are entered in this Book. At the end.

1168.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. Copie of that Viſitation-book of the County of Durham, as it was taken A.D. 1615, by Richard St. George Eſq. Norroy, & his ſon Henry St. George then Blew-mantle, in his Company. (Herein moſt of the Names of the Gentlemen ſubſcribed to their reſpective Deſcents are omitted.) 4. b.

2. A Note of all ſuch Perſons as ware diſclaimed in the Time of his Viſitation, 1615. 2.

3. The Arms of the Gentry of the Biſhoprick of Durham, regiſtred at the "owld Veſetation," A.D. 1575, by William Flower Norroy, & in his company Robert Glover Portcullis. 58.

4. Alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Deſcents and Arms are entered into this Book. At the end.

1169.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by divers hands; wherein are contained,

1. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Pedigrees are deſcribed in the Tract next enſuing. 1.

2. A large Collection of the Pedegrees of Suffolk Families; which by reaſon of the great variety of the Dates, appears to be taken from no one Viſitation-Book of this County; although it be plain that many of them were copied from that of John Raven Richmond-Herald, which he made about A. D. 1612, for William Camden Clarenceux, King of Arms. 5. b.

Who it was that made this Collection, I cannot certainly ſay; though it is not unlikely that William Winchell

Winchell of London Painter-Stainer who married Mary the daughter of the ſaid John Raven, might do it. (ſee the ſaid Ravens Pedegree at 61.)

The Vacancies in ſome places of this Collection, were afterwards filled up by another hand, to me as yet unknown. And ſome few Additions of Henry Parker the Arms-Painter, may be diſcerned in foll. 28. 55. b. 81. 96. b. &c.

Then follow,

3. A Fragment of a Copie of the Pedegrees of Devonſhire Families, regiſtred by William Hervey Clarenceux, at his Viſitacion of that County (which ſeems to have been begun A.D. 1562.) by way of Narration. 125.

4. Some few Pedegrees of Devonſhire Families, perhaps taken from the Viſitation-book of that County made A. D. 1620, by Henry St. George Eſq. Richmond Herald, & Sampſon Lennard, Blew-Mantle, for William Camden Clarenceux. 127. b.

5. Another like fragment of William Hervey's Viſitation-book of Devonſhire above-mentioned. 139. b.

1173.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written & tricked by different hands; wherein are contained,

1. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families whoſe Pedegrees or Arms are deſcribed in the Viſitation-book next inſuing.

2. A Copy of the Viſitation-book of Staffordſhire, as it was made A.D. 1583. by Robert Glover, Somerſet Herald, Marſhal & Deputy to William Flower Norroy. 1.

I take this to be a Copie of John Withie's Book, extant in this Library, & inſcribed 65 B. 11. But it is to be noted, that notwithſtanding many groſs faults in this Copy, through the ignorance and careleſſneſs of the Copyiſte, it is of value becauſe of many conſiderable Additions made to it, which are wanting in Mr. Withie's Book; as Mr. Withie's alſo has many recent Additions inſerted into it, ſince this Tranſcript was made.

I believe I have elſewhere obſerved that Mr. Robert Glover who took this Viſitation of A.D. 1583, was a very good Officer; and therefore beſides Church-Notes, Tricks of Family-Seals, & Abſtracts of antient Evidences; we meet with the following remarkables herein, vizt.

3. Trick of the Common Seale of the Borough of Newcaſtle under Lyme. 1. b.

4. Nomina et Arma Nobilium et Equitum Auratorum, de Comitatu Stafford. qui cum Edwardo primo Rege, Stipendia merebant in Scotia. 2.

5. Arma Nobilium (et Equitum) de Comitatu Stafford. ex Libro antiquo in Officio Armorum. 2. b.

6. Trick of the Common Seal of the Town of Stafford. 4. b.

7. Trick of the Seale of the City of Lichfield. 5.

8. Arms born by divers perſons; but noted to be doubtfull. 32.

9. The Names of thoſe that at the time of this Viſitation have made no proofe of their Gentry, bearing no Armes, and yet before time had called & written themſelves Gentlemen, and were therefore diſclaymed in the chiefe Places of the Hundred where they dwelt. 84. b.

10. The manner of diſclaiming publicly the Uſurpers of Arms. 85.

11. The Method of collecting the Names or the Nobility & Gentry, in Order to the Viſitation of a County. 85. b.

12. Mr. Robert Glover Somerſet-Herald, his Proclamation for diſclaiming the ignoble Perſons abovementioned; with an Admonition to forbear the Titles of Eſquires or Gentlemen, until ſuch time as ſufficient Proof may be made thereof. dat. at Newcaſtle under Lyme . . . . . A.D. 1583. 86.

13. Form of the ſame Herald's Warrant, directed to the High Conſtables of each Hundred, to ſummon the Eſquires & Gentlemen inhabiting within their precincts, to appear before him; with a particular Reflection upon one William Dakins the late lewde Uſurper of the Office of Norroy King of Armes. 86. b.

14. The Tenor of Mr. Somerſets Warrant for ſuch as contemptuouſly refuſed to appear upon the former Warrant; to make their further appearance before the Earl Marſhall. 87.

After the Viſitation-book of A.D. 1583. follow,

15. A Collection of Arms & Epitaphs (commonly by the Heralds called Church Notes) of divers of the Staffordſhire Gentry. 108.

16. A Copy of the Book of Viſitation of the County of Stafford. made & taken by Richard St. George Eſq.

35. Abſtracta Cartarum, nec non Sigillorum Ectypa, ſpectantia cum primis ad Familias de Beyville, Stuicle, Waldechefe, Cornubia ſive Cornewalle, More, Merk, Amundeville, &c. 117.

Num. 1180, 1181.

1180.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written, & good part of it tricked by the hand of Mr. Sampſon Lennard, whoſe Arms are ſtamped upon the Cover. It contains,

1. The Viſitation-book of the County of Leiceſter, as it was taken A.D. 1619, by Mr. Sampſon Lennard aforeſaid Blew-Mantle, & Mr. Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Roſe, Purſuivants of Arms, being Marſhalls & Deputies to Mr. William Camden, Clarenceux.

2. This Book is not compoſed of thoſe looſe Quires of Paper, whereunto thoſe Gentlemen who gave the Information ſett their hands; although one original Subſcription may be found therein, namely at fol. 5. b.

3. The Pedegrees regiſtred herein are all marked with one or more Croſſes, of Red Chalk or Black Lead, denoting there being copied from hence, for the uſe of the Office or Officers of Arms. 4.

4. Mr. Vincent & Mr. Lennard being both ſkilfull Officers, have inſerted into this Regiſtry of their Viſitation, divers Extracts from the antient Evidences of Families, and Tricks of ſeveral obſervable Seals appendant to them. Beſides which, herein may be found,

5. Tricks of the ſeveral Arms & Seals, uſed by the Corporation of the Borough of Leiceſter, tricked as it ſeems, by Mr. Richard Munday; who perhaps might ride Painter at this Viſitation. 87. b.

Since the writing of this Book, & the tranſcribing the ſame, certain Entrances have been made by other hands, which are not marked with the abovementioned Croſſes; as,

6. An Account of the Fees & Rewards given to the Officers of Arms 24th March, A. D. 1619, by Prince Charles & divers Lords at their firſt entrance into the Tilt-yard. 56.

7. Arms of Sir Arthur Haſelrigg, as they were marſhalled, A.D. 1644, tricked by Henry Parker. 42.

8. An erroneous Deſcent of Cater of Leiceſterſhire; put down by the ſaid Henry Parker. 4.

To theſe I may add the Notice of ſome Continuations of Pedegrees; as,

9. The Deſcent of Noell, is continued by Henry Parker; and as I think, by Robert Fiſher the Arms Painter. 5. b. & 6. Farther, this Hen. Parker's hand may be ſeen in 68. b. 16. b. 17.

10. Deſcent of Welleſborough, entred by Richard Mundy (who ſeems alſo to have tricked many of the Family Arms in this Book.) 17. b.

11. Continuation of the Deſcent of Beaumont; by Auguſtine Vincent. 34.

12. At the end, is an alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Pedegrees are entred into this Book.

1181.

An Heraldical MS. in fol. written & tricked by the ſame hand as the Book, perhaps by one Joſeph Wright. N° 1179. pag. 1. and wanting the Subſcriptions of the Gentlemen who gave Information touching their reſpective Deſcents as that does. It contains,

1. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Wiltes. as made & taken A.D. 1565. by William Hervey Clarenceux.

2. At the beginning, is an alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families whoſe Pedegrees are herein ſet forth.

Other remarkables of this Copie are,

3. The Arms & Supporters antiently belonging to the City of New Sar. 1.

4. Certain Additions made to divers Pedegrees by Henry Parker. 3.

Num. 1181—1185.

5. The ancient & modern Arms belonging to the Borough of Marlborough. 24. b.

6. Certain Additions made to the Viſitation, and written by the firſt hand, as may be ſeen at 17. & 109.

1182.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. Moſt of the Pedegrees regiſtred by Robert Glover Somerſet Herald, A.D. 1584, & 1585. at his Viſitation of Yorkſhire, as Marſhall & Deputy to William Flower Clarenceux, with ſome Additions.

2. Some Additions & Continuations, made by Henry Parker & others.

3. At the end are two alphabetical Tables of Surnames; one of which does not belong or refer to the Pedegrees entered into this Book.

1183.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. A good Copie of the Account of the Engliſh Nobility ſince the Conqueſt, and of their ſeveral Creations, in each King's reign, commonly aſcribed to Robert Cooke Clarenceux King of Arms.

In this Copie I obſerve,

2. The Arms of each Nobleman, are both painted & deſcribed by Blazon.

3. The Work is continued down to the Creation of Sir Thomas Knyvet, Lord Knyvet of Eſtrick, 4th July, 1607.

4. At the beginning is an alphabetical Table of Surnames.

1184.

An Heraldical MS. in fol. written & tricked by different hands; wherein are contained,

1. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Northampton, as it was made & taken A. D. 1618. & 1619. by Auguſtin Vincent Rouge-Roſe Purſuivant of Arms, Marſhal & Deputy to William Camden Clarenceux.

This Mr. Vincent being a learned Antiquary, & curious Man, one might well expect thàt his Viſitation-books ſhould abound with Tricks of antique Seals, Church-Notes, & Tranſcripts of Records & other Evidences: the contrary whereof appears, this being barely a Regiſter of the Deſcents & Arms of the Northamptonſhire, wherein all the extraordinary matters, are only theſe that follow.

2. Some Church Notes relating to the Family of Cateſbie. 93.

3. Richard Wilmer's Epitaph in the Church of Ryeton upon Dunneſmore in Com. Warr.. 115.

4. Some Notes touching the Family of Bigot Earl of Norfolk. 116. b.

5. Mr. Vincent's Inhibition to Laurence Makepeace, requiring him to forbear the further Uſurpation of the Arms of divers antient Families, & the uſe of all other Arms, until the Earl-Marſhall's pleaſure therein, ſhould be known. dat. 24th December, A.D. 1619. 173.

6. To this Viſitation, ſome Additions have been made by Henry Parker, & others.

7. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of thoſe Families, whoſe Pedegrees are deſcribed in this Book. At the end.

1185.

A Book in fol. written by different hands, wherein are contained,

1. A Receipte to make Metheglin.
2. A Water for ſoare Eyes. ibid.

3. Tranſlation

Num. 1185—1187.

3. Tranſlation of the Commiſſion of K. James I. whereby he gives full power to Sir John Digby (afterwards Earl of Briſtol) to treat of & conclude a Marriage between Prince Charles his ſon, & Mary ſecond daughter of the King of Spain. dat. 16th April, A.D. 1617.

4. The particular Contents of the following Work; in a Tract by itſelf.

5. A large & uſeful Collection of Law-Precedents, to the end. 1.

6. A Medycine for the Tothe-Ache, in the inſide of the Cover at the end.

1186.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. An alphabetical Table of Surnames, referring to the Arms & Deſcents entred into this Book.

2. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Southampton, as it was taken A.D. 1575, or 1576, by Robert Cooke Clarenceux.

And herein I find,

3. The Arms, Creſt, & Supporters of the Towne of Southampton. 4.

4. Notes touching thoſe who were diſclaimed at this Viſitation. 5. 43. b. 45.

5. Arms of the City of Wincheſter. (Here is a Note, ſhewing thoſe to be Arms of Doncaſter; but it appears to be otherwiſe by 81 B. 10. fol. 265.) 12.

6. Towards the end, are the Arms of divers Families of this County, but without any Pedegrees.

1187.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by different hands: wherein are contained two Treatiſes. At the beginning, I find,

1. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of thoſe Families whoſe Pedegrees are regiſtred in the following Work. 1.

2. The Arms of the Northampton-ſhire Gentry in Blazon, & put down by way of Alphabet. 5.

3. A Copy of the Viſitation-book of the County of Northampton, as the ſame was made & taken A.D. 1618 & 1619. by Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Roſe, Marſhall & Deputie to William Camden Clarenceux. 10.

This Copie is preferable to that inſcribed N° 1184. &c. as containing divers laboured Pedegrees, Church-Notes, Extracts from Records, & Charters, &c. not entred into them: among which are ſome Notes and Queries of Mr. Henry Ferrers of Tamworth Caſtle, touching the Family of Cateſby.

This part of the Book, may poſſibly have been written by Mr. John Gough the Arms-Painter: The other part is of a hand plainly different, and is thus entituled,

4. The Viſitation of the County of Leyceſter, taken by Sampſon Lennard alias Blew-mantle, and Auguſtine Vincent alias Rouge-Roſe, Purſuivants of Armes, A.D. 1619. 97.

The remarkables of this Copie are theſe,

5. It omitts all Church Notes, and other Proofes; as alſo all Tricks of the Family-Arms; excepting ſome few Creſts.

6. The Pedegrees are extended from the Schemes Genealogical (wherein they were taken by the Officers abovementioned, as appears by the original Papers) into a verbal Narration, according to the old way of entring ſuch Pedegrees.

7. The Arms of the ſeveral Families are put down in Blazon.

8. The Matches of each Family are noted in the margin.

Num. 1187—1190.

9. The Seal of William de Lichfeld, at fol. 128. b. I ſuppoſe to be added by another hand; as alſo the Arms & Note touching Haſelrigg. at fol. 161.

10. Alphabetica hujus Libri Viſitationis Comitatus Leiceſtriæ: i.e. An alphabetical Table of the Names not only of the Families, but of the Matches mentioned in this Work. 142.

1188.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. Part of the Viſitation-book of Northamptonſhire, as taken A.D. 1618. & 1619. by Auguſtine Vincent Rouge-Roſe, Marſhall & Deputie to William Camden Clarenceux.

Note, this Copie agrees with that abovementioned in the Deſcription of the Book N° 1187, ſo far as it goes; and is written by the ſame hand.

2. Alphabet in Blazon of the Arms of the Northamptonſhire Gentry. 110.

3. Some additional Pedegrees entered by the firſt hand, & by Henry Parker. 118.

4. Henry Parker's alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Deſcents, or Matches are deſcribed in this Book. At the beginning.

1189.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by the hand of Mr. Jacob Chaloner; wherein are contained,

1. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Leiceſter, as the ſame was made by Mr. Sampſon Lennard Blew-Mantle, & Mr. Auguſtine Vincent Rouge Roſe, Marſhals & Deputies to William Camden Clarenceux, A.D. 1619.

In this Copie, almoſt all the Seals, Church Notes, Extracts from the Records, & other Proofs, are omitted; as being of leſs uſe to the Arms-Painters, for whoſe uſe this, and ſuch like Copies were made.

Before the Pedegrees, I find,

2. A Liſt of the Juſtices of the Peace in this County, A.D. 1610, &c. with the Arms of many of them.

Here are alſo,

3. The Arms & Seals of the Town Leiceſter; tricked by another hand.

4. Some later Additions have been made to divers of the Pedegrees.

5. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families, whoſe Pedegrees are herein deſcribed. At the end.

6. Copie of a Letter from Thomas Babbe, to ſome perſon of Worſhip, who owed him money upon Bond. pag. ult.

1190.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of the County of Lincoln, as it was taken A.D. 1562. by Robert Cooke Cheſter Herald, for William Hervey Clarenceux. It conſiſts for the moſt part of bare Pedegrees, the Cuſtom of regiſtring the Seals, Church Notes, & other Proofs of the Antiquity & Gentry of Families, not obtaining in thoſe early Viſitations.

2. Since the Writing of the ſaid Pedegrees, the Arms of many Families have been added by Mr. Henry Parker the Arms-Painter, & others.

3. There are alſo certain Additions & Continuations of ſome of the ſaid Pedegrees, by the ſame Henry Parker, &c.

4. The Pedegrees are followed by the Arms of the Lincolnſhire Nobility & Gentry; but there Names are, for the moſt part, omitted. 95.

5. At the end, is an alphabetical Table of Surnames, referring to the Pedegrees aforeſaid.

Num. 1191, 1192.

1191.

An Heraldical Book in fol. written by divers hands, wherein are contained,

1. An Alphabet of the Arms of the Glouceſter-ſhire Nobility & Gentry, in Blazon; written, as it ſeems, by Robert Fiſher the Arms-painter.

2. An alphabetical Table, containing the Surnames of thoſe Families whoſe Deſcents are deſcribed in this Book; haveing a double Reference; that is, to the folios marked upon the top of the Leaves, & to the Pages marked at the bottom.

3. A Collection of the Pedegrees of the Glouceſter-ſhire Gentry, from the three firſt Viſitation-books thereof, as it ſeems.

Although this does not appear to me to be a Copie of any one Viſitation-book, it does nevertheleſs contain divers Extracts from Evidences, &c. as proofes to the Deſcents; among which, I obſerve,

4. A Letter from Prince Edward, ſon to K. Henry VI. to John Daunt, requiring his perſonal appearance in Armes, againſt Edward Earl of March (K. Edward IV.) dated at Weymouth, 13th April.

1192.

An Heraldical Book in fol. wherein are contained,

1. A Copie of the Visitation-book of the County of Buckingham, as the same was made & taken by John Philipot Somerset Herald, & William Ryley Blew-Mantle, Marshalls & Deputies to Sr. Richard St. George Clarenceux, & Sr. John Borough Norroy, A.D. 1634 who, by agreement, visited in each others Province joyntly.

2. This Copie seems to have been begun by Henry Parker the Arms-Painter, and as to the Writing-Part to have been carried on by his Apprentices. But the Tricking looks to be all his own.

3. The same Henry Parker has also putt down certain Additions, in some places.

Obsevables in this Visitation-book, may be

4. Certain Churches-Notes, so far from agreeing with the same in Mr. John Saunders's Copie of this Visitation (18 A. 7.) (which I like better than this) that some things here seem to have been delineated by a Description in words only, and not by Draughts lying before the eye. 18. b.

5. Trick of the Common Seal of the Town of Chipping-Wycombe. 20.

6. The old Story about the Family of Hampden. 25.

7. Church-Notes taken at Goat-hurst. 29. b.

8. An alphabetical Table of the Surnames of Families. whose Descents are entred into this Book. 100.

1209.

A Theological Book in 4to, containing certain Diſcourſes or Sermons, upon various Texts of Scripture, in the following order,

1. John, III. 18. "He that believeth not, is condemned already." 1.
2. Hebr. XII. 12. "Wherfore lift up the Hands which hange downe, and the feeble Knees." 52.
3. Titus, III. 8. "This is a faithful Saying, and theſe Sayings I will that thou affirme conſtantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintaine good works; theſe things are good and profitable unto men." 61.
4. Coloſs. III. 18. 19. "Wives ſubmit yourſelves to your owne Huſbands, as it is fitt, in the Lord: Huſbands love your Wives, and be not bitter againſt them." 66. b.
5. Titus III. 5. "Not with the Works of Righteouſneſs which we have done, but according to his Mercy he hath ſaved us by the waſhing of Regeneration & renewing of the Holy Ghoſt." 72.
6. 1. Theſſal. 1. 5. "For our Goſpell came not unto you in Word only, but alſoe in power, and in the Holy Ghoſt, and in much aſſurance, &c." In the precedent Verſe, "Knowing Brethren, beloved, your Election of God; for our Goſpell came not unto you in word, &c.

At fol. 156. b. I find this note, "Theſe foregoing Sermons upon the 1 Theſſalonians 1. & 5. döth moſt chiefly handle the nature of the Thoughts & Affections in general. October, 1. Anno 1631. London." 91.

The date above-written being in the time when William Sedgewick the puritanical Preacher lived, and this Book being not much unlike that above deſcribed at 1198. I leave it to others whether theſe Sermons be of his own compoſure, or not. I will only take leave to add this Memorandum of him, which I have been told by a Gentleman (who I dare ſay did not invent it) that William Sedgewick had pretended to foretell to his Congregation, the certain day when the Day of Judgement ſhould happen. Which not being far off, all thoſe who believed in him, prepared themſelves accordingly. The day being come, it ſo happened, that there was a very terrible & dreadful Tempeſt of Hail, Rain, Thunders & Lightnings, with a ſhock of an Earthquake, which not only confirmed the believers in their ſentiments, but made many of the Scorners doubtful what to think of it, they having never known ſuch a day before. At laſt when the Sun had appeared for ſome time, and nothing more extraordinary fallen out; the diſmal apprehenſions of the poor honeſt Diſciples began to vaniſh; and he being thus known to be a falſe Prophet, was in deriſion called "Doomſday-Sedgewick" to the day of his death.

7. Matthew, XII. 31. "Wherefore I ſay unto you, all manner of Sin & Blaſphemy ſhall be forgiven unto men, but the Blaſphemy againſt the Holy Ghoſt ſhall not be forgiven unto men." Imperf. 157.

A Theological Book in 4to, written in old Engliſh, upon parchment; wherein I find

1. A Reule that telleth in which Chapitlis of the Bible, ye may fynde the Leſſouns, Piſtilis, & Goſpels that ben red in the Chirche, after the Uſs of Saliſburi, marked with Lettris of the a. b. c. &c.

At the end is this Rubric, Thus endith this Kalander of Leſſouns, Piſtlis, & Goſpels of al the yeer.

2. The New Teſtament with the uſual Prologues, of that Old Engliſh Tranſlation, which is by many aſcribed to John Wycliffe; concerning which, I believe, I have heretofore putt down my Opinion.

3. The Old Tranſlation of the Epiſtle to the Laodiceans; with the Prologue, wherein are theſe Words "but this Epiſtle is not in comyn Latyn bookys, & "therefore it was but late tranſlated into Engliſche "tunge". And indeed I have not often ſeen it in the common, & recenter Latin Bibles, although it was in that well-written MS. Latin Bible which (being then but a very young man) I gave to the Bodleyan Library, about A D. 1693. wherein it has long been inſcribed NE. B. 5. 15. and is mentioned in the printed Catalogue of the MSS. preſerved in that famous Library.

As to the preſent Epiſtle & Prologue; they are badly written in an old Text Hand, imitating the Character of ſome old Book, without doubt; but otherwiſe legible enough. However, Major Mould (of whom this Book was bought) thought fit to prefix this Note before them,

Num. 1212—1216.

"I ſuppoſe Mr. Richard Smith (whoſe MSS. this was) tranſcribed this Epiſtle out of ſome old MSS. he had by him, and with the ſame Character, which without good application is not tobe vnderſtood or read." But:

"Nil tam dificile eſt quod non ſolertia vincat.
John Mould."

4. Laſtly; here follows a Table of the books of the New Teſtament, as written in the preſent MS. with the Number of Chapters (according to the modern Diviſion) contained in each of them; by the ſame Mr. Mould, as it ſeems.

A paper Book in 4to, written all in French, and thus entituled, L'Hiſtoire de la Ducheſſe de Savoye; traduitte d'Anglois en Francoys, par Hugues le fils du Monſieur Aime Poulet, Capitaine et Governeur de l'Iſle et Chaſteau de Gerfé.

As to the Work itſelf, it is a Romance of Knight-Errantry, and was tranſlated by this Mr. Hugh Poulet, being then (as it ſeems) a young gentleman, by way of exerciſing himſelf in the French Language, wherein, it appears, that by this time, he had made a great proficiency. As to the perſon of this young Tranſlator; looking upon the Pedegree of the antient & truly noble Family of Poulet deſcribed by Mr. John Withie in the Book 65 B. 7. I find him to be Sir Hugh Poulet the direct Anceſtor of the preſent Right Honble. John Earl Poulet now Lord Steward of Her Majeſties Houſehold.

40,000l. a Month for the Maintenance of their Army, to 20,000l. per menſem. 48.

14. The Petition of divers Lords Temporall and Spirituall, Knights, Gentlemen, and others of the Scottiſh Nation, inhabiting in the Kingdome of Ireland, to the Lord Deputie & Council of Ireland. 53.

Herein they deſire, that they may by ſome proper means, as by Oath or otherwiſe, publickly declare their Abhorrence to the Solemn League & Covenant entered into by their Countrey-men of Scotland.

15. Copie of the Circular Letter of . . . . . Lord Mayor of London to the ſeveral Companies of the City; for the levying of 50,000 l. part of 20,000l. required to be lent to his Majeſty, for ſatisfying the Scotts Army in the North; & ſupplying & diſmiſſing of his own. dated 3d Oct. A.D. 1640. (vid. infra, No. 53. & ſupra, No. 7.) 55.

16. Letter advertiſing the public Occurrences from the King's coming to York, which was on the 22d of Auguſt, A.D. 1640. to the 26th of the ſame Month. That the King had called all the Nobility, Gentry, & Colonels of the County together, requiring their attendance on his Royal Perſon, in order to repel the Scotch Invaſion: and of the Obſtacles he mett with, through the factious behaviour of Sir John Hotham, & of the Lord Savile his ſecond; &c. 56.

17. Reſolution of the Houſe of Commons to give 300,000 l. to the Scots, for their friendly Aſſiſtance & Releife; made 3d Febr. A.D. 1640-1. 60.

18. A Letter ſent from the Scottiſh Lordes, to the Lord Mayor of London, after their taking Newcaſtle . . . . Sept. 1640. 61.

Herein they give plauſible words; promiſe not to interrupt the Navigation of the Tyne, or the bringing of Coals from thence to the City, or other places; as alſo to cultivate the friendſhip thereof.

19. A Petition ſent from the Scots to the King; with His Majeſty's Anſwer thereunto from Yorke; 5th Sept. 1640. 65.

In this Petition the Scots ſet forth their great Grievances (in general Terms only) that extreme Neceſſity conſtrained them for their Releife, & obteining their humble & juſt Deſires to come into England (with a numerous Army) wherein they have carried themſelves in a moſt peaceable manner, 'till they were preſſed, with ſtrength of Armes, to put ſuch Forces out of the way, as did oppoſe their Paſſage at Newbourne on Tyne, and did therby bring their owne Bloods upon their owne Heads, againſt their (the Scotts) purpoſes & deſires. For preventing therefore the like or greater Inconveniencies, that without further oppoſition, they might come unto the King's preſence, for ſatisfaction to their juſt Demands: they intreat him to provide for the repayring of their Wrongs & Loſſes, and with the Advice and Conſents of the Eſtates of the Kingdom of England convened in a Parliament, to ſettle a firm & durable Peace againſt all Invaſions by Sea & Land, &c. His Majeſties Anſwer by the Lord Limerick, was to this effect, that they ſhould putt down the particular Grievances they could complain of; that he had given out Summons for the Meeting of all the Peers of England in the City of Yorke, that with their Advice he might give Anſwer to their Petitions; and that, in the mean time, if they deſired Peace (as they pretended) they ſhould advance with their Army, no farther.

20. The Proceedings betwene the Engliſh & Scottiſh Lords, at the Treatye at Rippon, 2nd Oct. 1640. 71.

21. An Overture about maintaining the Scotch Army; preſented to his Majeſty, from the Scotts, by the Lord Mandevill, 12th October, 1640. 78.

22. Remembrances for the Lords the Commiſſioners (on the part of England) to put them in mynde of ſuch things as have fallen into Debate, about the Demands of the Scotts, for the mayntenance of the Army, during the Treaty. 78.b.

Num. 1219.

23. A Proclamation made at Sunderland by the Scots, the 23d of September, 1640. 81.

The Purport of it is, to charge all the People of the Biſhoprick of Durham, & County of Northumberland, to come in at times appointed (they not being enemies to the Proteſtant Religion) and declare their Names, & the deſignations of their Houſes & Lands, in order to their being as tenderly dealt withall, in the payment made to the Scotts, as the neceſſity of their Army could ſuffer.

24. Two Notes; the one ſhewing, that a Scott had entered upon the Cuſtom-houſe of Newcaſtle & Sunderland: the other, that the day after the Scotts had made the Proclamation above mentioned, they took all the King's moneyes from the Officers, and the moneyes for Salt. 82.b.

25. Petition of the Scots in Scotland preſented to the King by the Earl of Holland, humbly ſupplicating his Majeſtie to appoint ſome few of his Kingdom of England well affected to the true Religion, and the common Peace, to heare by ſome of themſelves (of the ſame diſpoſition) their humble Deſires, &c. 83.

26. The King's Anſwer to the Scotts Petition; herein he requires them to publiſh the Proclamation he had ſent to them, for the Information of all his Scotts Subjects; which being done, he would hearken to any ſupplication of his People. 83. b.

27. Letter of the Covenanters of Scotland, to the Nobility of England. 84.

This was ſent to back their Petition (No. 25.) declares their ſentiments for Peace & Obedience: and imputeth the blame to others, if there ſhould happen a War between the two Nations.

28. A long winded canting Preamble of the Scotts, to the Sixth Article of their Demands, delivered by the Earl of Briſtol, to the Engliſh Commiſſioners . . . . . A.D. 1640. (vid. infra, No. 36.) 85.

Herein they ſay (after many vehement aggravations of their Sufferings & Loſſes, couched in general terms) that as the Warr on their parte is noe other then their coming into England with a Guard defenſive; which all Men do acknowledge that in common equitie, the Defendant ſhould not be ſuffered to periſh in juſt & neceſſary Defence; but that the Purſuer, whether by way of legall Proceſs, in time of Peace; or by way of Violence, in time of Warr, ought to bear the Charges of the Defendants: They truſt that their Lordſhips the Engliſh Commiſſioners will not think that it is againſt Reaſon, for them to demand ſome Reparation of this kind: but that the Parliament of England (by whoſe Wiſdome & Juſtice they have expected the Redreſſe of their Wrongs) will take ſuch Courſe as both may in Reaſon give them ſatisfaction, & may in the notableſt Demonſtration of theire Juſtice, ſerve moſt for theire own Honour.

29. Sum of the Articles charged againſt Mr. Secretary Windebank: all for protecting or favouring Recuſants. 99.

30. The King's Anſweres given the 3d of February, A.D. 1640-1. to the Remonſtrance made to him by both Houſes of Parliament. Herein he remitts the Caſe of Goodman the Prieſt, (who ſeemed to have been condemned merely for Religion) to them: ſince other States might think his Execution to be a Severity with Surpriſe. 100. vid. infra, No. 59 & 60.

31. A Meſſage ſent from the Queenes Majeſtie to the Howſe of Commons, by Sir Thomas Jermyn Comptroller of her Houſehould, 5th Febr. A.D. 1640. 104.

Setting forth the good Offices ſhe had done them; deſiring them to excuſe ſome illegal actings in herſelf, and 44. The King's Message delivered by the Speaker, the 6th of June, 1628. explaining the last Message. ibid.

45. His Majesties Message to the Higher House, delivered by the Lord Keeper, the 6th of June, A.D. 1628. thanking them for their dutiful & discreet proceeding, during that Parliament. 144.

46. A Privy Seale for the transporting of Horses, dated 30th June, 3 Caroli 1. 144. b.

This Title is wrong: for it requireth the Treasurer & Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, to pay 30,000 l. to Philip Burlemache, to be by him returned to SirWilliam Batford Kt. & John Dalberes Esq. who were appointed therewith to buy up in the Netherlands & in Germany, a certain number of Horses, Muskets, Corselets, Pikes, Cuirasses, & Carbines; & to bring the same into this Kingdom.

47. A Report made unto the House of Commons, by Sir Dudley Digges (as I take it) of a Speech made by K.James, at Theobalds, to a Sub-Committee of both Houses, as it was reported by the Arch-bishop of Canterbury, 10th March, 1623. 145.

In this Speech, which is a very plain & honest one; the King asks their Advice how he should be able to carry on a War with Spain, & the Emperor, with whom they had advised him to break: since he could expect no Assistance from Abroad, his Revenues fallen short, & his Debts increased, &c.

Num. 1219.

48. Sum of a Report made to the House of Commons, 11th March, 1623, by Sir Richard Weston Chancellor of the Exchequer; whereby it appeared that the Spaniards amusing the King about the Match & Palatinate, had cost him 661,670l. and that the King had grown into Debt 219,000l. 146. b.

49. Part of another Speech of his Majestie (K.James 1.) the whole whereof was reported by the Archbishop of Canterbury, 25th March 1624, at a Committee of both Houses. 147.

Hereby & in pursuance of it, it was declared that the King had broken off both the Treaties.

50. Sir Edwyn Sandes his Report of a Message brought by the Duke of Buckingham, the 17th of April, 1624. to a Committee of both Houses: concerning the King's Proceedings upon the Dissolution of the Treaties abovementioned. (Imperfect) (vid. MS. No. 159.) 148.

51. Grounds of Exceptions against the Oath required in the Sixth Canon established in the Synod anno 1640. from Northamptonshire. 149.

52. Exceptions taken by the Gentry & Clergie of Devonshire, to the Oath enjoyned by the Synod convocated anno 1640. (with their Petition thereunto annexed.) 155.

53. A Letter from the Nobility assembled in the Great Council at Yorke, to the Citizens of London, for Loane of 200,000l. to supply his Majesties occasions, until the Parliament should furnish him with money: dated, 26th September, A.D. 1640. (vid. supra, No. 7. & 15.) 165.

54. Resolutions to be taken into Consideration, for present necessary Supplie. 174.

Here was a vast Project, to fit out divers Navies, raise an Army, supply the Stores, build new Ships, & pay off Arrears; but no mention of money to do it withall. (temp. Caroli 1.)

55. A Petition presented to the King by some of the Nobility of England, on the behalf of the whole Kingdome . . . ; September, 1640. 175.

Herein many grievances are enumerated; and his Majesty is desired to call a new Parliament.

56. A torn Letter of K. Charles 1. to the House of Lords; wherein he asserteth his Regal Power, upon the urgent occasions of the State, to imprison the Subject without shewing the cause: but qualified by some Concessions. Given 12th May, A.D. 1628. (vid. supra, No. 8.) (this is intire in MS. No. 161. fol. 194.) 128.

57. A Petition preferred to the Commons house of Parliament, by divers of the Inhabitants in, & about the Cittie of London. . . . December A.D. 1640. 183.

That the Hierarchy of the Church of England, with all its dependancies, Roote & Branch, may bee abollished, and all Lawes, made in favour thereof, made voyd.

58. A Particular of the manifold Evills, Pressures, & Grievances, caused, practised, & occasioned by the Prelacy and their Dependants. 186.

This was annexed to the Petition; and contains 30 Articles, being the Sept-Essence of the most malicious & villainous Contrivances of the Puritanical Faction against the Church.

59. A Petition of John Goodman a Priest, condemned; to his Majestie, . . . January, 1640. 203.

The Sum thereof is; that since many of his Subjects were in great discontent, in that his Majesty had reprieved him; he desires his Majesty rather to remitt him to their Mercy who were thus discontented, than that he should be the occasion of a Difference between his Majesty & his People.

Num. 1219.

60. A Remonſtrance of both Houſes of Parliament, to the King; delivered by the Lord Keeper, . . February, 1640. 204.

This is a Puritanical Libell; drawn up in purſuance of the Petition abovementioned, at No. 57. & 58.

62. Mr. Maſon of Lincolne's Inn, his Speeche, 2d Maij, 1628. 219.

This was ſpoken in the Commons Houſe; and is about a Law then making, whereby it was to be enacted, that no Free Man ſhould be impriſoned, without ſhewing the cauſe of ſuch Impriſonment.

63. Articles exhibited in the Parliament, againſt the Lord Arch-biſhop of Canterburye, 15th November, A.D. 1640. 222.

Theſe relate to Innovations in the Kirke of Scotland, & are ſubſcribed by the Lord Blaire.

64. Queres propounded by the Clergie of the Dioceſe of London, &c. touching the Oath enjoyned by the late Synod, Cap. vi. wherein they deſire ſatisfaction; that ſoe they may the more willingly take the ſaid Oath, when Authority ſhall tender it unto them, as by that Canon is enjoyned, &c. 252.

65. Mr. Goodwin's Speeche, in the Houſe of Commons, 22 Marcij, A.D. 1627. 263.

He moves to ſupply the Kinges occaſions; yet ſo as to ſatisfie the Countrey, & preſerve their Rights & Priviledges.

66. Sir Benjamin Rudyard's Speeche, 22d Marcij, 1627. (imperfect) ibid.

Moving the Houſe to truſt the Kinge; to ſupplie him without Conditions: to repreſent their Grievances unto his Majeſtie, humblie, moderatlie, & brieflie; and to do all this ſpeedilie.

67. Fragments of the Lord Keeper (Sir Thomas Coventry) at the opening of the Parliament the 7th day of March, 1627. (this is intire, in No. 161. fol. 127.) 264.

68. Sir John Finche his Speeche, on Wedneſdaie the 19th of March, 1627. of his diſabilitie, being choſen Speaker of the Houſe of the Commons Howſe of Parliament. 265. b.

69. Proceedings of the Houſe of Commons, 14th of April, A.D. 1628, upon occaſion of the Earl of Suffolk's ſaying, that Mr. Selden (a Member of that Houſe & employed by them in the Conference with the Lordes in that great Cauſe concerninge the Libertie of the Perſons of the Subject) had raſed a Record, and deſerved to be hanged; which they took as an unjuſt & ſcandalous imputation upon the whole Houſe. 266.

70. Rough Draught of the Lord Keeper's Speech, at the opening of the Parliament in March 17, 1627-8. (the ſame with that in No. 161. mentioned above, at No. 67.) 296.

71. The Lord Keeper's Speeche, to both Houſes of Parliament. 28th April, 1628? urging the Commons to a quick Diſpatch of the neceſſary Supplies; and aſſuring them that his Majeſty holdeth the Statute of Magna Charta, and the other Six Statutes inſiſted on for the Subjects Libertie, to be all in force: and that he will maintain all his Subjects in the juſt freedoms of their Perſons, & ſafety of their Eſtates; and that he will govern according to the Laws & Statuts of the Realme, &c. 274.

72. Sir John Cooke his Speeche at the Conferrence betweene the Lords & Commons about the Petition to the Kinge againſt Recuſants. 275.

Num. 1219.

73. The Archbiſhop of Canterbury's Speech the 25th of April, 1628. at a Conference of both Houſes. 227.

74. Sir Dudley Digges his Speech, 25th of April, 1628. at the ſame Conference, when it appeared that both Houſes were agreed to maintaine & ſupport the fundamental Laws & Liberties of England. 277. b.

75. Whether Baronetts ought to have Precedency before the yonger ſonnes of Barons. (Imperfect.) 279.

This ſeemeth to have been drawn up by Sir Robert Cotton, in behalf of the Baronets.

76. . . . . Report to the Houſe of Lords of . . . . . Speech; againſt the King's Prerogative of impriſoning the Subject without ſhewing Cauſe. (Imperfect.) 281.

77. A Meſſage from the Kinge to the Lower Houſe of Parliament, delivered by Sir John Cooke, the 12th of April, A.D. 1628. 284. b.

That his Majeſty expected, that without anie further unneceſſarie delaie, they ſhould proceed with his buſineſſe—Leſt he ſhould be enforced to make an unpleaſing end of that which had bine ſoe happilie begunn.

78. Mr. Speaker's Meſſage to the Kinge on Eaſter-Mondaie, 1628. 285.

In this Speech he clears up the Proceedings of the Commons, from the Imputation of unneceſſary delay of the Supply; and deſires that his Majeſtie would receive noe Information touching their Proceedings from private Relations, but to judge of them by thoſe Reſolutions of the Howſe, that ſhould be repreſented from themſelves.

79. The Petition of the Houſe of Commons, to the King, againſt billeting of Soldiers. 288 b.

This was preſented by the Speaker, at the ſame time.

80. The Kinges Speeche in Anſwere to the Speaker, 14th Aprilis, 1628. 292.

Haſtening the Commons to go forward with the public Buſineſs of the Nation (the Supply) with all ſpeed, & to avoid all Occaſions of diſputing, leſt they ſhould thereby hazard both his Prerogative, and their own Liberties to their common Enemies.

81. Another Copie of the Proceedings of the Commons, upon the Earl of Suffolk's charging Mr. Selden with raſing a Record. (vid. ſupra, No. 69.) 293.

82. The Earle of Warwicke (Robert Rich, the ſon) his Speeche in the Upper Howſe of Parliament, the 21ſt of April, 1628. 296. b.

A ſtrenuous Speech againſt the King's power of impriſoning, without ſhewing the Cauſe.

83. The late Motions of the Lower Houſe, to the Higher. 300. b.

This ſeems to be a Libell, bantering the King's method of diſpoſing the Subſidies lately given him, the Duke of Buckingham, & the other Miniſters.

84. The Catechiſme. 302.

Notwithſtanding this ſeems to be vehement againſt the Puritans; I take it to be a puritanical Libell againſt the Catechiſm of the Church of England, and the Miniſters thereof.

85. Mr. Rouſe his Report to the Grand Committee of Religion, touchinge Doctor Mainwaringe's Charge. (i. e. the Charge of the Sub Committee againſt Dr. Mainwaring.) 307.

86. The Archbiſhop of Canterbury his Speeche, the 25th of Aprill, 1628. at a Conference of both Howſes. (vid. ſupra, No. 73.) 308.

87. The Lords Propoſitions unto the Lower Howſe, the 25th of Aprill, ſent by the Archbyſhopp of Canterburie. (being the ſame with thoſe mentioned before, at No. 8.) 309.

88. Sir Dudley Diggs his Speeche Congratulatorie, to the Lords, the 25th of April, A.D. 1628. 310.

The ſame with that above mentioned at No. 74.

89. The

Num. 1219.

89. The Lord Keeper's Speech, 28th Aprilis, 1628. to both Houſes of Parliament. 311.

This Copie is imperfect: but agrees with that above at No. 71.

90. Fragment of a Speech made by Mr. . . . Hackwell, in the Houſe of Commons (1 May, 1628.) upon a Bill brought into the Houſe for ſecuring the Liberty of the Subject. (It is intire in N° 161. at fol. 85.) 312.

91. An imperfect but famous Tract (in the book N° 161. fol. 220) thus entituled; The Remonſtrance of the Houſe of Commons, in Parliament, touching the daungerous Eſtate of the Kingdome, and the great Grievaunces of the Common-wealth: preſented to his Majeſtie by their Speaker, in the Banquetting Houſe at Whitehall, the 17th day of June, 1628. 313. 333.

92. The Kinges Speeche in Anſwere to the Remonſtrance, 17th Junij, A.D. 1628. 316.

93. His Majeſties Speeche to both Howſes, at the end of this Seſſion, beinge 26 Junij, 1628. 316. b.

94. A Remonſtrance propoſed to be delivered to his Majeſtie, by the Commons. 317. b.

This Second Remonſtrance aſſerting that the King ought not (even by his Anſwer to the Petition of Right) to continue the taking of Tonnage & Poundage, without conſent of Parliament; occaſioned him to putt an end to that Seſſion abruptly; that he might prevent its being delivered unto him.

95. The Earle of Warwicke his Speech in the Upper Houſe of Parliament, on Tueſday, 21 April, 1628. 321.

This is the ſame with that abovementioned, at N° 82.

96. A Meſſage from the Kings Majeſty to the Houſe of Lords? by the Lord Keeper Coventry, (Conway?) delivered, 1 May, 1628. deſiring to know whether they would reſt upon his Royal Word? 323.

97. The Lord Keepers? Speech to the Houſe, the ſame day, concerning himſelf, and the Nature of his Place under his Majeſty, wherein he aſſerted, that if he would diſcharge the Duty of his Place, & the Oath he had taken to his Majeſty, he muſt committ, and neither expreſſe the Cauſe to the Gaoler, nor to the Judge, nor to any Councellor in England, but to the Kinge himſelfe. ibid.

98. A Meſſage to the Houſe of Commons, delivered the 2 of May 1628. from his Majeſty, by Mr. Secretary Cooke (vid. N° 161. 189.) 323.

99. The Concluſion of the Petition of Right; as it ſeemes. 324.

100. The Kinges Letter given unto the Higher Howſe of Parliament. Given, 12 May, A.D, 1628. 324. b.

This is the ſame with that abovementioned, at N° 56.

101. The Reaſons of the Commons Houſe, delivered by Mr. Glanville (at the Conference, 23 May 1628.) why they cannot admitt of the Propoſition tendred unto them by the Lords, in order to be inſerted into the Petition of Right. 326. b.

102. Sir Henry Martin's Speeche at the Conference, 23 Maij, 1628. 329. b.

Here is but the three firſt Lines.

103. Sir John Elliots ſpeech, ſpoken 28 April, 1628. during the Debates of the Houſe of Commons, about the Right, Liberty, & Property of the Subject. 330.

104. The Remonſtrance preſented to his Majeſty. 333.

This is the famous Remonſtrance preſented 17 June 1628. the Title whereof ſee above at N° 91.

105. The King's Meſſage to the Lords of the Higher Houſe of Parliament, reported to the Lower Houſe 25 January 1640. 337.

This was touching John Goodman the Romiſh Prieſt, who was condemned merely as ſuch; and to whom the King was willing to extend his mercy, as Q. Elizabeth, & his Father had before done in the like Caſes.

Num. 1219.

106. Articles exhibited by the Commons Howſe of Parliament to the Lords of the Upper Howſe againſt John Lord Finch, Lord Keeper, &c. December 1640. 339.

This was an Impeachment of High Treaſon & other Miſdemeanors.

107. Mr. Secretary Windebanck's Letter to my Lord Chamberlaine. Febr. 1640. 353.

This Letter Sir Francis wrote to the Earl of Pembroke from Calis; in the time of his Affliction by the adverſe Party, He begs that Lord's favor & kindneſs to himſelf & his family, & purges himſelf of the Imputations laid on him, as if he had raiſed a great Eſtate by his Service; was a Papiſt; and had endeavoured to introduce Popery into theſe Kingdoms.

108. The voluntary Confeſſion of John Browne a Romiſh Prieſt, of the Age of 72 yeares, a priſoner in the Gate-houſe; twice examined by a Committee of Six from the Honble. Houſe of Commons. A.D. 1641. 363.

In this Confeſſion, it is pretended to diſcover ſecret Intrigues, with relation to the Jeſuites; to the Queens Court; to Arch-biſhop Laud; to the Popes aſpiring to the Temporal Monarchy of theſe Kingdoms; & the reſtraining the Engliſh Papiſts from ſelling their Lands & ſending the Money beyond the Seas. But though the Jeſuits, & Popiſh Clergy were bad enough (whether this was Browne's Confeſſion, or was made by the Committee of Six) 'tis plain that it is a moſt impudent Libel.

109. A Petition from many of the Inhabitants of the County of Kent to the Howſe of Commons, againſt the Hierarchicall Government of the Church. Dated 23 January 1640. 395.

110. The Duke of Lenox (Lowdowick Stuart) his Speech unto his Majeſtie, concerning Warrs with Scotland, 8 July 1638. 403.

111. A Letter from the Lord Rothes from Edenborough the 29th of January 1639. to the Earl of Pembroke then Lord Chamberlayne. 409.

Herein, he threatens the Engliſh Nation with war, if the Hierarchy of the Church was not new-molded, to the minds of the Scotch Covenanters.

112. The Lord Chamberlaynes Anſwer to that Letter, dated 8 March 1639. written in a ſtyle ſuitable to the honorable character of an able & faithful Counſellor, a loyal Church-man, & Peer of England. 411. b.

113. Speech of . . . . . Gordon (the Marquis of Huntley's brother, to the Covenanters in Scotland, when he was a priſoner in their hands; wherein, after many noble Arguments againſt their traiterous Rebellion, he concludeth, that they may, when they pleaſe, take his head from his ſhoulders, but not his heart from his Soveraigne. 415.

114. The Proteſtation of the Scottiſh Covenanters made at Edenburgh, 1 July 1639. when the Indication or Summons of the Generall Aſſembly was there proclaymed. 420.

115. A Letter from the late Lord Keeper Finch, to my Lord Chamberlaine, from the Hague: dated 3° Jan. 1640. wherein he wrote, that neither the Loſſe of his Place, & with it his Fortunes; nor his Exile from his dear Countrey & Friends, afflicteth him ſo much as the diſpleaſure of the Houſe of Commons. 425.

116. A Petition to be preferred by the Apprentices of London, to the Lord Major, & to intercede with his Majeſty, for redreſſe of ſundry Grievances. A.D. 1640. 428.

117. A Petition preferred to the Commons Houſe of Parliament, Anno 1640. by Peter Smart one of the Prebendaryes of the Cathedrall Church of Durham; who ſtands ſuſpended & impriſoned in the Kings Bench for Non-Conformity. 432.

Herein, the Petitioner chargeth Dr. Coſins the Dean of Durham, & others, with introducing divers Popiſh practiſes

Num. 1219, 1220.

practises in that Church: and owns that for his preaching againſt them, he was ſuſpended, excommunicated, & degraded; that he loſt his Prebend, Parſonage, & whole Eſtate, being utterly ruined with his wife & children: and had beſides ſuffered many years Impriſonment.

1220.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts bound up together, in the order following,

1. Concerning the Decay of Rents; with the means of improving them. 1.

2. Propoſalls for the better ordering the Poore of the Pariſh of . . . . . 7.

3. A ready Way, as is conceaved, to ſettle the Peace of the Common-wealth of England, both in Church & State. 10. b.

This Diſcourſe conſiſts of 53 Articles, intended as a Scheme whereby to ſettle the Government of this Nation, under one Head, a ſtranger to the Royal Family.

4. A Diſcoverie of the Hollanders Trade of Fiſhing, and their circumventing us therein: with the meanes how to make profitt thereby. By which, they have gathered, & ſtill do gather ſoe great Benefitt, togeather with Honnour & Security, that will redound to his Majeſtie, & all ſorts of Subjects within theſe three Kingdomes by it. 21.

5. A Tract wherein means are propoſed to prevent the growth of Popery in England, and the ill conſequences thereof. 53.

This was written in the latter end of the Reign of K. Charles II. by the Author of a Book entituled Anti-Papal Society, as appears in fol. 61. who, perhaps, might be the ſame with that Mr. Jones mentioned in 60. b.

6. Tom Tell-Troth: or a free Diſcourſe toucheinge the Murmurs of the Times; directed to his Majeſtie by way of an humble Advertiſement, A.D. 1621. 63.

This is a malicious, & moſt impudent puritannical Libel; compoſed (as I have heard) by one . . . . Wilſon.

7. A Treatiſe of Lordſhipps Marchers in Wales. Shewing how, why, & when, they were ſuppreſſed: and how they may beſt be knowen & tryed, at this day from other Lordſhipps that were not Lordſhips Marchers. 82.

8. Tranſlation of the Letters Patent of K. Charles II. whereby he granted to Thomas Oſborne, then Earl of Danby, Lord High Treaſurer of England, ſeveral Fee-Farm Rents in Wales, to the yearly value of 727 l. 18 s. 4½ d. bearing Teſte; &c. 14 December, anno regni 26. 24.

9. Tranſlation of the Letters Patents of K. Charles II. whereby he granted to Sir Robert Holmes Kt. divers Fee-Farme Rents in Wales, to the yearly value of 609 l. 1s. 10½ d. bearing Teſte, 8 July anno regni 26. 24.

10. Tranſlation of the Letters Patents of K. Charles II. whereby he granted to William Chiffinch Eſq; the Lordſhip of Driffincloyd cum Ruthin vill. in Com. Denbigh, of the annual value of 243 l. 8 s. 2½ d. bearing Teſte, &c. 10 Auguſt, anno regni 28. 128.

11. A Demiſe made by K. James II. to John Lord Belaſſyſe, Sydney Lord Godolphin, Henry Lord Roper, Sir John Ernle Kt. Chancellor of his Exchequer, & Sir Stephen Fox Kt. Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Exchequer, his Fines upon Alienations in the Chancery for ſeven years, at the yearly rent of 1546: 12: 00. bearing Teſte, 21 March, anno regni 3. 130.

12. A Supply or an Addition to the Catalogue of Biſhops, to the yeare 1608. 134.

A little lower are the following Words, written by my Lord Treaſurer, By Sr. John Harrington; written for the ſervice of Prince Henry, and printed, in ſmall octavo 16 . .

Num. 1220, 1221.

This Copy ends abruptly in fol. 218. thus, and though it is not reaſonable to aſke Evidence or Recorde for thinges poſſeſſed in one forme 1400 & odde Yeares.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of many miſcellaneous Tracts & Papers bound up together; being

1. A Syſteme of Ethicks; as I ſuppoſe, begun to be written, 7 Auguſt 1681. 1.

2. A Treatiſe concerninge Nobility, accordinge to the Lawes of England. 15.

3. The Diſcourſes of John-Baptiſta . . . . . Venetian, Advocate for the Duke of Urbin at Venice; concerninge the Eccleſiaſtical Power & Monarchy of the Romane Court. 56.

4. The Character of a Puritan (by a Puritan.) 65. & 67.

40. Letter of Sir Walter Raleigh to his wife, written the day before he was executed. 95. b.

41. Letter of Sir Charles Cornwallis to the Kinges Majeſtie. Dated 22 June 1614. 96. b.

Craving his Majeſties Pardon if he had offended, with relation to Parliamentary proceedings. It ſeems, that Sir Charles thinking himſelf ſure to be choſen as Burgeſs for Eye in Suffolk, had premeditated about what he ſhould think proper to ſay in Parliament, about paying the King's Debts, & preventing more Debts for the future, about giving ſatisfaction to the Subject with relation to Religion; and about ſtopping the Inundation of Scots into this Kingdom. That miſſing of his Election, he communicated his thoughts to one Mr. Hitchcock, & he to one Mr. Hoyſkyns, who moved the Houſe only about the Scotts, but with matter different from Sir Charles's meaning.

42. Letter of Sr. Charles Cornwallis to his own Lady; written during the time of his Reſtraint in the Tower; it is much upon the Tranſitoryneſs of this World; and ſhews that Sir Charles was the Owner of an honeſt & generous mind, joyned to great Abilities. 99. b.

43. Sir Vincent Corbetts laſt Speech, on his Deathbedd to his Children & Friends; full of Affection. 101. b.

44. Short Poems, as Anagrams, Epigrams, &c. Latin & Engliſh. 102. & 112.

45. An Eſſay, or Character of a King. 114.

46. Letter of Francis Phillips to the King (James 1.) It is long, but artfully penned. The Occaſion of it was, that he would releaſe his elder Brother, a Member of Parliament, who during the Chriſtmas Receſs, was arreſted by a Sergeant at Armes, brought priſoner from his Houſe up to London, & committed cloſe Priſoner to the Tower, by the Lords of the Council, where he had been kept from all Company without farther Examination. The writer alſo inſinuateth ſome damage his Family had ſuffered, by his Fathers dying in his ſaid Majeſties diſpleaſure. 106.

47. Mr. Recorder Benn (Sr. Anthony) his Will. (ſomewhat torn.) 108. b.

'Tis an Extract from thence. the Preamble, & other expreſſions therein being remarkable, & of the puritannical Strain.

48. Verſes Latin & Engliſh, made (as it ſeemeth) by ſome State-Priſoner in the Tower, during the Reign of K. James 1. 110,

49. The Remonſtrance purpoſed to have been delivered to K. Charles 1. by the Commons (being the ſame with that in the Book 67 B. 3. at fol. 317. b.) 110 b.

Num. 1221, 1222.

50. Rough Draught of a Proteſtation, or a Combination; intended, as it ſeems, againſt the King & the Royaliſts about the time of the beginning of the late Civil War. 112.

51. The Argument of Judge Crooke in the Exchequer Chamber, before all the Judges of England concerning Shipp-money, the 14th of April, 1638. (He was againſt it.) 113.

52. A ſhort Account, together with an Extract of the Hiſtory of Sweden by John Robinſon (the ſame who is now Biſhop of Briſtol, Lord Privy Seal, & this 22 of December A.D. 1711. is reported to be ſetting out as her Majeſties firſt Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs appointed to meet at Utrecht, in order to conclude a good Peace: which God grant!) This Treatiſe is dated 25 February 1692-3. 129.

53. The Proceedings which happened touching the Divorcement between the Lady Frances Howard & Robert Devereux Earle of Eſſex (an uncorrect, & imperfect Copy.) 192.

54. A printed Tract in 4to, thus entituled, "Eſſex's Innocency & Honour vindicated: or Murther, Subornation, Perjury, & Oppreſſion, juſtly charged on the Murtherers of that Noble Lord & true Patriot Arthur Capell late Earl of Eſſex. As proved before the Right Honorable late Committee of Lords, or ready to be depoſed. In a Letter to a Friend. Written by Laurence Braddon (of the Middle Temple) Gent. who was upwards of five Years proſecuted or impriſoned, for endeavoring to diſcover this Murther the third day after the ſame was committed.

Then followeth,

55. Another Treatiſe printed in 4to, without a Title-Page or Frontiſpiece; but beginning abruptly, with this only Title, An Account of the Death of the Earl of Eſſex.

It appears to have been written not long after the Trial of Laurence Braddon aforeſaid, and containeth ſome pieces of Evidence, different from, or omitted in Braddon's Book. Whether Braddon was the Author of this, or not, doth not directly appear: but it ſeems not to be written with that Clearneſs, Gravity, & Temper, neceſſary to convince impartial Poſterity.

56 A Diſcourſe endeavouring to prove that Arthur Capel Earl of Eſſex, did not murther himſelf: herein are the Depoſitions of many Witneſſes, with ſome Reflexions, 216.

As to the Method of this Diſcourſe, laid down at fol. 220. my Lord has ſtruck it out, and deſcribed the ſame more conciſely & accurately in 218. b.

1222.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts bound up together, in the order following,

1. Serjeant Davis his Charge, delivered to the Jurors of the Grand Inqueſt, for the mainteyning and contynueing the publique Peace by the Execution of Juſtice. 1.

2. A Catt may look at a King. 24.

This tranſcendently villanous Libel, is ſuppoſed to have been written by one . . . . . Needham; whoſe Character may be found in Anthony Wood's Athenæ Oxonienſes.

3. The Duke of Buckinghams Speech in the Houſe of Lords, 15 February, 1676. 53.

In this, he endeavoured to prove that the Parliament then mett, was no Parliament; becauſe it had mett after a Prorogation of above a Year, when as his Opinion was, that, by Law, the Parliament was to meet within a Year. But that which occaſioned the Debates of this kind, was the Diſpleaſure during the laſt Seſſions, the Peers had conceived againſt the Houſe of Commons, whom they therefore were not willing to meet again.

4. The Speech of Sir George Treby Kt. their Majeſties Attorney-Generall, & Recorder of the Citty of London, to the Lord Chief Baron Atkins, upon Sir Thomas Pilkington's coming up to be ſworn at the Exchequer, as Lord-Mayor of London; 2 Jun. A.D. 1690. 62.

5. The Speech of Sr. Robert Atkyns Knight of the Bath & Lord Chief-Baron of the Exchequer, to Sr. Thomas Pilkington Lord Mayor of London; 2 Jun. A.D. 1690. 66.

6. Judge Rookebyes Argument about the Eaſt-India-Company, A.D. 1692. 69.

The Caſe is thus, Thomas Sands Merchant, & others his Partners, laded a Ship within the body of a County of England, with Merchandiſe, with an Intent to make a Trading Voyage to the places within the Limits of the Eaſt-India-Companies Charter: The Defendants, Sir Joſiah Child Bart. Samuel Franklin Eſq; & John Leech Gent. on the behalf of the Company, & their Agents, deliver a Petition to the King, praying that the Ship may be arreſted, & ſtayed from her Voyage, till Security be given in the Admiralty, that ſhe ſhall not be ſent to the Eaſt-Indies, or to any place of Trade within the Limitts of the Companies Charter. Upon this Petition the Defendants obtained an Order from the King, that the Proceſs ſhould go out of the Admiralty to arreſt the Ship; & they procure a judicial Proceeding in that Court, & a Warrant thereupon, by force of which the Ship is arreſted in the body of a County. For this Proſecution alone, the Plaintiffe alone brings his Action againſt the Defendants. This Judges Opinion was, that the Action was maintainable, and that Judgement ought to be given for the Plaintiffe.

7. The Breviat of the Council of William Bridgeman Eſq; who brings an Aſſize of Free-hold againſt Roland Holt Eſq; & Edward Coleman Gent. for the Office of the Kings Chief Clerk of his Court of King's Bench. 79.

This Cauſe was appointed to be tried in Banco Regis, on Thurſday the 22 of June, A.D. 1693.

8. A ſhort Tract, by my Lord, thus entituled, An Opinion of Dr. Hooper Dean of Canterbury in the Caſe of the Pariſhes of St. Martin & St. James, 1693. 84. b.

That Caſe is put thus: Dr. Teniſon Rector of the Pariſh of St. James in the Liberty of Weſtminſter, and Vicar of the Pariſh of St. Martin in the Fields in the ſame, is promoted to the Biſhoprick of Lincolne; & before Conſecration, obtained a Grant & Diſpenſation from the Arch-biſhop of Canterbury, confirm'd by the Kings Letters Patents, according to the Statute in that Caſe, to hold both the ſaid Livings for Six Months: And at the Expiration of the ſayd Time, the Biſhop of London Patron to both the ſayd Churches (taking their Majeſties turn to be ſerv'd in the Diſpoſition thereof, upon the Doctors promotion by the ſayd Grant & Diſpenſation) collated his Two Clerks reſpectively to both the ſayd Churches, who had thereupon Inſtitution & Induction reſpectively thereunto. Their Majeſties nevertheleſs taking their Prerogative not to be anſwer'd by the ſaid Commendam, granted their Preſentation under the Great Seal to A. B. to be Rector of the Pariſh of St. James, & to C. D. to be Vicar of St. Martin's, & brought their Quare Impedit againſt the ſayd Biſhop of London & his Clerkes. And upon the whole, the Dean (now Bp. of Bath & Welles) is againſt the King, in this Caſe.

9. The Arguments of the Councill on both Sides, with the Opinions of the Lord Chief Baron Hales, the Lords Chief Juſtices Vaughan & Keeling, & of the Lord Keeper Bridgeman, in the Great Caſe, argued Term. This Copie is incorrectly tranſcribed.

10. The Subject of Mr. Edward Bagſhawes Arguments (Reader of the Middle Temple) at his Readings in Lent, Anno Domini 1639. 97.

This Summary was drawn up by Mr. Bagſhaw himſelf; and ſhews his Opinion in two Points, vizt. Whether an Acte of Parliament might paſſe by conſent of the Kinge, his Temporall Lordes, and Commons, the Spirituall Lordes diſſentinge, or not being there? Affirmatur. Whether a beneficed Clerke might by any Lawe, and at the time of making any Statute exerciſe Civill Juriſdiction and be a Juſtice of Peace? Negatur.

11. Mr. Bagſhawe of the Middle Temple, his Readinge, in Lent 1640. with divers Queſtions and Anſwers thereuppon between the Biſhopp of Canterbury, the Lord Keeper, & Mr. Bagſhawe. 103.

This Tract is a Relation of the method Mr. Bagſhaw intended to purſue in his Reading: of the two Points abovementioned; and of a third, namely Whether a Biſhop without calling a Synod hath Power as a Dioceſan, to convict an Heritique? which he denied; & here gives the Sum of his Reaſons for the ſame; as alſo of his Conference with Arch-biſhop Laude touching the Kings inhibiting him to proceed further in his Reading.

12. The Argument of Mr. Sollicitor General (. . . . . ) at the Trial, held 19th April A.D. 1684. between the Eaſt-India-Company, & Mr. Sands the Interloper. The Sum is, that he thought the Company had an Intereſt in that Trade, as well as a Licence, well founded upon the Kings Letters Patents, which the King had Power to make, by Prerogative, at the Common Law, & that Power not reſtrained by any Act of Parliament. And therefore prayed Judgement for the Plaintiffes. 110.

13. Extract of the Declaration of the Eaſt-India Company, againſt Thomas Sands. 123.

14. The Argument of Mr. . . . . Pollexfen in the behalf of Mr. Thomas Sandys, pleaded at the Kings Bench, the 19th of April, A.D. 1684. wherein he endeavoured to prove, that the Charter of the Eaſt-India-Company was againſt the Statute of Monopolies, 21 Jac. I. That the Defendants trading in the Eaſt-Indies without Licenſe from the Company, was lawful, & therefore not puniſhable: And that ſuppoſing the Company's Charter good, & that his Client had done even what he ought not to have done, yet that the Company could not maintain this Action: and therefore he prayed Judgement for the Defendant. 125.

Note, that although the Lord Chief Juſtice owned that Mr. Solicitor General on the one Side, & Mr. Pollexfen on the other, had argued on this Cauſe extraordinarily well: it appears that neither of them were ſo well acquainted with the Engliſh Hiſtory as they might have been; or as (in their Opinion) the Caſe required. They had, for example, been dabbling into ſome Records (moſtly had, from Mr. Prynne) concerning the Jews in England whom Mr. Sollicitor conſiders always as Alien Enemies, & Mr. Pollexfen as Alien Amys, and that as ſuch, they were conſtantly regarded & uſed by our Kings; both which Notions cannot be right, though they may be both wrong.

Then followeth in the ſame Tract (which is incorrectly written, & as I ſuppoſe, by ſome Frenchman.

15. The Speech of the Lord Chief Juſtice (. . . . . ) and the Opinions of the other Judges on the Bench, whereupon it was agreed to putt of the farther Hearing of this Cauſe to the next Michaelmaſs Term; it being declared to be of as great weight & conſequence, as perhaps any that ever came into Weſtminſter Hall. 166.

16. The

16. The Pleadings, on both ſides, in the Court of King's Bench, 4th Nov. A. D. 1693. by Mr. Cowper, &c. for the Crown, & Mr. Serjt. Creſſwell Levinz, &c. for the Defendants, in the Cauſe when their Maieſties (who had conferred the Biſhoprick of Lincoln on Dr. Thomas Teniſon, late Vicar of the Pariſh of St. Martin's in the Fields) brought a Quare impedit againſt Henry Biſhop of London, & Dr. William Lancaſter his Clerk, for Recovery of the Preſentation to that Benefice, for that turn. The Defendants Council denied the Prerogative of the Crown in this Caſe; and the Lord Chief Juſtice . . . . . (having noted that a Clergyman was the firſt that ever queſtioned the King's Prerogative) differed the further arguing of this Cauſe, to the next Term. 169.

Then followeth the Opinions of the Judges, given at the King's Bench, the 31ſt January, A.D. 1684. upon the Trial of the Cauſe between the Eaſt India Company & Mr. Thomas Sandys. And firſt,

17. The Opinion of Mr. Juſtice . . . . . Walcott, the Sum whereof is, that the Grant made by the Crown to the Coinpany, & the Prohibition of Interlopers were good; and conſequently, that the Action was well brought. 195.

18. The Opinion of Mr. Juſtice Charles Holloway; to the ſame effect. 196. b.

19. The Opinion of Mr. Juſtice . . . . Withins; to the ſame effect. 119.

20. The Opinion of the Lord Chief Juſtice Sir Thomas Holt, very long, but to the ſame effect. 206. b.

1223.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts bound up together; whoſe Titles are,

1. Some Remarks on the Decayes of that, ſo uſeful Trade the Engliſh had before the Year 1661. to Newfoundland, & Nova Scotia, &c. in the Northern parts of America; to Italy, Spain, Portugal, & South-France: and how thereby the great Nurſery of Engliſh Seamen is loſt to this Nation, which threatens its deſtruction. It having been brought about by the ſubtle Contrivances of the French Miniſters, haveing met with proper Inſtruments to work on in the perſons of the Four laſt Kings & their Miniſters of State; haveing ever been for the increaſing the Power of France, in order to the eſtabliſhing Tyranny & Popery in England, &c. which was taught them by their Popiſh Counſels could not be effected but by weakening & impoveriſhing their own Subjects, & ſetting up France. Moſt humbly offered to the Parliament of England for redreſs. 1.

2. An Eſſay on publick Virtue, to his Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury; and the Rt. Honble. Sidney Lord Godolphin. Part 1. 7.

This Tract is Anonymous; but ſeems to me to have been compiled by Dr. Charles Davenant, in the year 1697. by laying together divers paſſages to be found therein.

The Title "Public Virtue" not being extenſive or clear enough to let the Reader into the purport of the Treatiſe, I ſhall take leave to obſerve that, the deſign of it is to expoſe the Engliſh Miniſtry of that time, and their Adminiſtration of Affairs, not only in general, but particularly with relation to, 1. The War with Ireland. 2. The Foot upon which the War with France has been putt. 3. Trade. 4. The Revenues. 5. The Coine of the Kingdom.

3. A Memorial concerning Credit; and the means & methods by which it may be reſtored, by Doctor Charles Davenant; directed to the Right Honble. the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſties Treaſury, 15th July, 1696. 71.

4. Reflections upon the Coyne of Money of England. 96.

Num. 1223—1225.

Herein the Author gives his Opinion, againſt raiſing the Standard of our Coin; how to prevent its Exportation; and in a Poſtſcript, lays down a method how our clipped Money may be called in, and our Mint ſet to work (written in the time of K. William.)

5. A Memorial concerning the Coyn of England; which handles theſe 4 Queſtions.

Whether if the Money be new coyned, it be adviſeable to raiſe its Value?

Whether it be adviſeable during this War, to new coyn the Money?

Whether it may be poſſible for us to pay the Armies abroad, & carry on our forreign & domeſtick Trade in the preſent poſture of our Coyn?

Whether there are any Expedients that may help the Publick, 'till the true Species of Money can be reſtored?

A little lower, in my Lord Treaſurer's hand, are theſe words "Written by Charles Davenant LL.D. Nov. 1695. 115.

6. A Memorial concerning the Eaſt India Trade; (i. e. for preſerving the ſame, in a Company to be erected by Authority of Parliament) inſcribed to the Right Honble. Sir William Trumbal Secretary of State. Written or received, as is obſerved by my Lord Treaſurer, Feb. 6, 1695-6. by Doctor Charles Davenant, and in many places corrected by his Lordſhip's own hand. 157. b.

7. Quantulumcunque; or, a Diſcourſe about the Money of England, conſiſting of 32 Queſtions and their Reſolutions. Written A.D. 1682. by Sir William Petty, & inſcribed to the Lord Marquis of Hallifax. 169.

8. Reflections on the Coin now current, A.D. 1695. Written, as my Lord Treaſurer hath obſerved, by Abraham Hill Eſq. 176.

9. A Memorial concerning a Council of Trade. (Qu. if not by Dr. Charles Davenant?) Yes. 184.

10. The humble Informations & Motions of William Stockton Gent. touching the preſent State of the Exciſe of the Beer & Ale in England; to the Lords Commiſſioners of their Majeſties Treaſury. 190.

He ſheweth the Cauſes of the Decay of Exciſe, & the Remedies thereof.

11. A Treatiſe ſhewing the ſtate of K. Charles the IId's Revenue, with accompts of all Receipts & Payments during divers of the firſt Years of his Reign. Drawn up in the name of Thomas Wriotheſley Earl of Southampton Lord High Treaſurer of England, ſigned by his hand, & preſented by him to the King. 200.

At the beginning are ſome Notes, of my Lord the Earl of Oxford, the now Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain; one of which is in theſe words, "This Book (I ſuppoſe) was compoſed by Sir Philip Warwick."

At the end, my Lord hath written this Note, "Examined with the Original ſigned by the Earl of Southampton's own hand, by me R.H. Nov. 9, 1693."

Expreſſinge the Dutie, Right, Intereſt, Power, and Authoritie of Executors, and how they may be faſhioned either generally or ſpecially; with divers other particulers incident to the Office of an Executor. (This takes up 246 Leaves)

2. The Parſons Lawe: collected out of the whole Body of the Lawe, & late Reports.

This learned Treatiſe is divided into 27 Chapters; & taketh up 112 Leaves.

1226.

A Book in fol. wherein are contained, a Treatiſe concerning the Court of Starre-Chamber, divided into 3 parts:

The Firſt, concerninge the Court it ſelfe, the Judges, Officers, & Miniſters thereof.

The Second, concerninge the Juriſdiction of the ſame, and the Cauſes which are there handled & properly determinable.

The Third, & laſt, concerninge the Courſe of the ſame Courte, in what Forme Cauſes are there proceeded in, and there determined.

By this it may appear, that this Treatiſe is the ſame with that in the Book inſcribed No. 736. at fol. 267. which is Anonymous. But the Author's name is preſerved in a Note written in this preſent Book at the beginning, by the Lord Keeper Finch; which I ſhall here tranſcribe,

"This Treatiſe was compiled by William Hudſon of Grais Inne Eſq. one very much practized and of great experience in the Starre Chamber: and my very affectionate friend. His ſonne & heyr Mr. Chriſtopher Hudſon (whoſe handwryting this booke is) after his father's death gave it to mee. 19° Decembris. 1635.

Jo. FINCH."

In the firſt leaf of this Book, is an idle or whimſical Epitaph, ſaid to be written upon the Tombe of Mrs. Erauncis Hewite, daughter to the Lord Hubbart, Lord Chiefe Juſtice of the Common Pleas.

1234.

An Heraldical Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts bound up together; vizt.

1. An imperfect Copy of the Viſitation-book of the County of Buckingham, as it was taken A.D. 1634. by John Philipot Somerſet-Herald, & William Ryley Blew-Mantle, for Sir Richard St. George Clarenceux, & Sir John Burrough Norroy; who viſited jointly. 1.

This Copie ſeems to be of the hand-writing of Auguſtin Withie, ſon of Mr. John Withie the Arms-Painter; who (as I have been told) was an ingenious young man: but that falling into ill Company, he lived too faſt, & died accordingly.

2. Arms of the Univerſity of Cambridge; and of the ſeveral Colleges thereof; tricked in printed Eſcocheons, by Mr. John Withie. 69. b.
3. Arms of the Town of Cambridge, and of the Cambridge-ſhire Gentlemen; tricked by Mr. John Withie, A.D. 1622. from the Viſitation-book of this County, made A.D. 1619. by Henry St. George Richmond Herald, for William Camden, Eſq. Clarenceux. 70.
4. A Table to the Tract laſt above-mentioned; made by Mr. Withie. 86.
5. An Alphabet of the Arms (in Blazon only) of the Cheſhire Gentlemen (ſeems to be taken from a Cotton MS.) 87.
6. Arms of the Hartfordſhire Gentlemen; tricked from the Viſitation-Book of that County, made A.D. 1597. together with the Arms of ſome of the London Gentry: taken from the Viſitation book thereof, made A.D. 1633. & 1634. 97.
7. A Copie of the Viſitation-book of Hartfordſhire, as it was taken by Henry St. George Richmond Herraulde, Anno 1634. being Deputy to Sir John Borough Garter, & Sir Richard St. George Clarenceaulx, Kinges of Armes. (This ſeems to be ſomewhat imperfect.) 112.
8. Arms of the Kentiſh Gentlemen, tricked from the Viſitation-book of A.D. 1619. by Mr. John Withie, partly in large Eſcocheons, which have alſo the Mantles & Helmets annexed. 159.
9. A Table to the Tract laſt abovementioned; made by the ſame Mr. John Withie. 189.
10. Arms of the Lancaſhire Gentry, whoſe names are putt down in alphabetical Order, tricked by John Withie, from a Viſitation-book (as he ſeems to inſinuate) made A.D. 1595. 192.
11. Pedegree of Morley as allowed by Sir William Dethick Garter A.D. 1592. Copied by Mr. Withie. 217.
12. Arms of the Norfolk Gentry (in Blazon only) from the Viſitation-book of that County made by William Hervey Clarenceux, A.D. 1563. 218.
13. An Alphabet of the Arms (in Blazon) of the Northampton-ſhire Gentry. 221.
14. Arms of the Gentlemen of Suſſex; tricked from the Viſitation-book of that County, taken A.D. 1591. 230.

Num. 1234—1238.

15. Arms of the Gentry of Weſtmerland & Cumberland; tricked from the Viſitation-books of thoſe Counties taken A.D. 1615. Imperfect. 245.

1235.

1238.

A Book in a thinniſh but large fol. containing divers Papers printed as well as written, all relating to Tobacco. They are,

1. Propoſalls humbly offered to the honorable Houſe of Commons, 1 To prevent Tobaccoe being carryed from the Plantations in America, to any place but England. 2. To prevent ſtealing the Cuſtome when brought hither. 3. To encourage the manufacturing it in England. 4. To raiſe an unfelt Duty thereon, to pay the Tranſport Ships this Year. 1.

2. A printed Paper, entituled, The Advantages of the Tobacco-Trade; and the Inconveniences that will follow, by laying a greater Impoſition. 2.

On the back-ſide of it, theſe words are written, This was printed, when the laſt Impoſition was debated in Parliament.

3. Demonſtrations of the new Propoſall on Tobacco (viz. that it is advantageous to the King) 3.

4. A Petition of divers Merchants & Grocers trading in Tobacco, as alſo of the Workers of Tobacco, Freemen of London, to the Mayor, Aldermen, & Common Councill of the Citty of London; praying them to repreſent divers Grievances & Abuſes in the Tobacco-Trade, to the Parliament. The Original. 4.

5. Certificate of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtomhouſe, that the working Tobacco-Stalks, complained of in the abovementioned Petition, is prejudicial to the State. 5.

6. A Proclamation for putting downe Engliſh Tobacco; dated the 6th of Auguſt, in the 6 yeare of Charles the firſt. 7.

7. The principal Heads of the Act, concerning Tobacco. 8.

8. Certificate or Complaint of the Dealers in Tobacco, againſt ſophiſticating the ſame, & cutting of Stalks for Sale, &c. annexed to the Petition abovementioned at No. 4 The Original. 9.

9. A Certificate mentioned in the Petition & Certificate annexed, of the Abuſes uſed by ſome Perſons in the workinge of Tobacco: teſtified by ſuch whoſe Names are ſeverallie ſubſcribed to each Article, as they are readie to do upon Oath. The Original, dated 6 Aug. 1644. 12.

10. A Proclamation touching Tobacco; i. e. prohibiting the Importation & Uſe of all Tobacco which is not of the growth of Virginia, or of the Sommer-Iſlands; with the planting of it in England & Wales. dated 17 February A.D. 1626. This is printed. 13.

11. Another printed Proclamation concerning Tobacco, dated 14th March, A.D. 1637. prohibiting the planting of Tobacco in England, Ireland, Wales, Berwick, Jerſey, Guerneſey, & Man; & directing that all Tobacco there growing be utterly deſtroyed, forthwith. As alſo, that all Tobacco for the future ſhould be brought to the Port of London. 16.

12. A Tract, on the backſide, thus entituled, Tobacco: Objections and Anſwers concerning this Propoſition, to prevent cheating the King & the People. The Commiſſioners of the Cuſtomes ſummoned & preſent, before the King, in the Treaſury. Dated, 1 April 1671. 20.

13. A Propoſal for increaſing their Majeſties Revenue on Tobacco, & the Benefit of the Trade. 29.

In this Paper, are divers Objections & Remarks, written by the hand of the Lord Treaſurer.

14. Propoſal for burning the Stalks of Tobacco. 31.

This Paper ſeemeth to belong to N° 13.

15. Another Copie of the Propoſal for increaſing their Majeſties Revenue on Tobacco, and the Benefit of Trade. 33.

My Lord-Treaſurer, hath noted on the back of it; that it was brought in by Mr. Butler 13 Aug. 1694.

16. A kind of imperfect Propoſal of remedying the trouble & loſſe dayly ſuſtained by the preſent bad Monies; as I underſtand it, by Pin making. 35.

17. A Calculate of Tobacco-Stalks, as they have been commonly ſold in the year 1694. till this preſent March. 36.

18. Tobacco-Bill, A.D. 1686. which is the laſt. 37. to 62.

1239.

An oblong Parchment-book (bought of me) wherein are contained, Part of the Works of Sir Geffrey Chaucer. Which Copie not being uſed by any of the Editors of Chaucer hitherto, may prove of good value when conſulted on ſuch an occaſion.

1. The Hiſtory of Troilus and Creſſeida, in five Books. 1.

2. The Knights Tale. 63.

In this Copie the firſt 34 Lines are omitted.

3. The Man of Lawes Prologue, & Table. 80. b.

4. The Wife of Beath's Tale. 88.

5. The Clerk of Oxenfordes Tale. 91.

Here I muſt retract & correct a miſtake I made many years ago about the enſuing Tale, which Mr. Maſſey (then

Num. 1239, 1240.

(then of Jeſus College in Oxford) of whom I bought the book, led me into, by affirming it was not printed. For I comparing the beginning of it with the beginnings of all the Canterbury Tales, in divers printed Editions, and particularly of that printed A.D. 1561. and finding no ſuch beginning to any of them, did believe what Mr. Maſſey had affirmed to me was true. But now reading the ſame over, in order to an account of it, and remembering I had read over the very ſubſtance of it in Chaucer before, and therefore conſulting another MS. of the Canterbury-Tales in this Library; I find to be,

6. An Imperfect Copie of the Frankelyns Tale. 101.

This Copie is not only imperfect with regard to the torn Leaf, at fol. 102. but alſo wants much between the Leaves 105. & 106. where I can find no Parchment wanting. It may ſeem therefore that the good Hermit of Grenewich who wrote this part of the Book, purpoſely omitted the Recital of the Conjurations & magical Ceremonies there mentioned. It is likewiſe different from the other MS. ſo far as the 81ſt Verſe in that, is but the 7th Verſe of this; and as the 80 Verſes are omitted in this Copie, ſo the ſix are omitted in that.

1240.

A Book in fol. written upon Parchment (as it ſeemeth, during the reign of K. Richard the II. and for the Uſe of Edward Mortimer Earl of March) It was called, as I have heard, Liber Niger de Wigmore, and although damaged in ſome places, ſtill containeth Tranſcripts of almoſt all the Deeds & Evidences relating to the Eſtate of the Lords of that great Family. It conſiſteth, as it were, of different Tracts; the firſt of which, is thus entituled,

1. Ici commence le Kalender des Munimentz touchantz le Heritage le tres-honourez Seignour le Counte de la Marche, en Engleterre, Gales, & Irlande: les queux Muniments ſont en la Treſorie le dit Counte en divers Coffyns titlés de tieles Titles, come ſont eſcritz en le Margyn, paramont de cheſcun des Foilles de ceſt Livre. En queux ſont eſcrites les pleynes Copies; & auſſuit de cheſcun des Foilles de ceſte Kalender, ou eſt eſcrit l'Effect de cheſcun des ditz Munimentz. Et les Seignouries, Manoirs, Terres, et Parcelles, dont les ditz Munimentz font menſion, ſont eſcritz preſcheinement en ceſte Kalender ſolonc l'ordre del Alphabete. Iſſint qe la Seignurie, Manoir, Terre, ou Parcelle, qe homme vorra veer par la primere Letre du Noun trouez. Si trovera homme en meſme le lieu, en enſuant en queux Titles, ou Title, ſouz queux Nombres ou Nombre, les pleines Copies des Munimentz touchantz la dite Seignourie, Manoir, Terre, ou Parcelle ſerront trovez en ceſte Livre; & auſſint en queux Coffyns ou Coffyn, & ſouz queux Titles ou Title, les Munimentz Entiers ſerront trovez en la Treſorie, marchez en Dos de tieles Nombres, come ſont mys ſur les Copies; et en ceſt Kalender ſur l'effect des Copies diceux. 1.

What the Reader is more particularly to obſerve, from the precedent Words, is this; that the preſent Kalendar or Index conſiſteth of Three Columns: The firſt exhibiteh the Names of the ſeveral Lordſhips, Manors, and Parcells, in alphabetical Order. The ſecond referreth to the Titles of the Drawers, as they were placed (in alphabetical Order) in the Treaſury or Evidence Room of the ſaid Earl of March. And the third ſheweth the Numbers inſcribed upon the Deeds within the ſaid Drawers or Boxes. For example, if the Title of that Lord's Eſtate in Aderleye be looked into; this Kalendar directeth the Searcher to go to the Drawer or Box entituled "Beadleſmere," and peruſe that Deed therein marked with the Number 1.

2. Et fait aſſavoir, que toutz les Titles, ſouz queux ſerront trovez les Munimentz touchantz les Seignouries,

Num. 1240.

Manoirs et Parcelles avant-eſcrites, come eſt ſpecifiez adevant par la primer Parole des ditz Titles, ſont pleinement eſcritz ici deſouz, ſolonc l'Ordre del Alphabete; et en quele foille de ceſtre Livre cheſcun des ditz Titles ſerra primerement trovez oue l'effect des tous les Muniments contenuz ſous meſmes les Titles. Et illeqz ſerra trovez en enſuant en quele foille du dit Livre la pleine copie de cheſcun Muniment eſt eſcrit. 7.

Hereby the Reader may underſtand, that this ſecond Table giveth the Titles faſtened upon the ſeveral Drawers or Boxes in the ſaid Evidence-Room; and referreth to the ſeveral Leaves (of the next Tract) according to their old Numeration, wherein the Arguments of all the Deeds contained in them, are entered.

3. The Arguments, or Subjects of all the Earl of March's Evidences, extracted from them in order, as they lay in their reſpective Drawers; with reference to the ſeveral Leaves of this Book (according to the old Numeration) wherein the ſaid Deeds are tranſcribed entirely. 8.

Hitherto every thing is written in French, which being the Language of the Engliſh Court, was well underſtood by the Nobility & Gentry of thoſe times. Next followeth a Cartulary or Tranſcript at length of all the ſaid Evidences; with the ſum of them in French (in the words or deſcription uſed in the Tract laſt abovementioned) written in the margin, together with their ſeveral Numbers, according to which, the Originals might be found in their reſpective Drawers. The Titles of which Drawers under which the ſaid Deeds were ranged, are theſe that follow.

4. Wiggemore. 35.
5. Thirke, Brunagarde, Caue, Wiche, Weſt-halle, & Ful-broke. 49.
6. Chailmerſhe, & Shillynghelde (Imperfect.) 51.
7. Clebury, Huggeleghe, Erne-wode, Haukebache, & Doules, & Nene (Imperfect.) 54.
8. Marthreynon, & Melenithe. 57.
9. Stratfelde, Woghfelde. 60.
10. Neubury. 62. b.
11. Worthy, Bromle. 63.
12. Wynſtone, Byſele, Chyryntone, Charletone, Hamptonet, Tetebury. 64.
13. Kery, Redewy Comotoydour. 67.
14. Preſte-mede. 69. b.
15. Eluelde, Ugmonuthe & Buelt. 71.
16. Kyngeſ-lane, Erleſ-lane, Leomynſtre, Orletone, Radenore, Penbrugge. 73.
17. Mawardyn, Suttone, Frormantone. 76.
18. Staundone. (This Title now beginneth in the Charter numbred 84. all before it being wanting.) 81.
19. Uſke. (This Title now beginneth with the Charter numbred 8.) 86.
20. Cranebourne. 90.
21. Donemowe. 93.
22. Lakynghethe. 94.
23. Whaddone. Imperfect. 95.
24. Exemplificacions del Heritage de Glouceſtre. 97.
25. Wynewale, Derham. 99.
26. Thackſtede. Imperfect. 102.
27. Badeleſmere. Imperfect. 106.
28. Midia in Hibernia, which is the laſt. 114. to 125.

Notwithſtanding theſe Titles, it muſt not be thought that the Mortimers Eſtate was confined to thoſe places alone; becauſe in turning over the Book a ſecond time, I find many Titles mentioned in the ſecond & third Kalendars, although the Sums of the Deeds, and the Tranſcripts of the intire Deeds, which they refer unto, are wanting,

Thus, in the ſecond Kalendar, I find,

29. Arleye, Oddyngleye, with a reference to the 20th Leaf, for Docquetts of the Deeds relating to the Earl

Num. 1240, 1241.

Earl of Marches Eſtate in thoſe places; which 20th Leaf is cutt out of the Book.

30. Brugge-water, Odecombe, Mulvertone, with a like reference to fol. 16. which is alſo cutt out.

31. Brymmes grove, Nortone, which refer in like ſort to fol. 22. and that is likewiſe cutt out of the Book.

32. Cliftone, Cure; referring in like manner at fol. 18, part of which is cutt off.

33. Guſſiche; referring to fol. 26. whlch is cutt out.

34. Huntidone, Middeltone; referring to fol. 25. which is cutt out.

35. Mountgomery, Chirbury; referring to fol. 23. which is cutt out.

36. Neubury; referring to fol. 8. which is cutt out.

37. Nenkethlyn; referring to fol. 25. which is cutt out.

38. Stauntone-Harecourt; referring to fol. 26. which is cutt out.

39. Swannef-compe; referring to fol. 30. which is cutt out.

In the third Kalendar or Table, containing the Docquets or Sums of the Earl of Marches Evidences, are alſo divers Titles not yet mentioned, nor are the intire Deeds now remaining in this Book: vizt.

40. Wynfertone, Erdeſle, Bradwardyn Wilardeſlee; referring to fol. 103. which is taken up with Deeds relating to other Lands. Hereby it may ſeem, that the Cartulary of the Earls of Marches Eſtate, took up more than this Volume.

41. Marcle, Aſſaſtone; referring to fol. 108. 109. & 110. which are all wanting.

42. Nereberthe; referring to fol. 113. & 114. which are both wanting.

43. Thornebury, Nethewode, Colyntone; referring to fol. 119. 120. & 121. the firſt of which is wanting, and the others relate to different Lands.

44. Cliftone; Cure; referring to fol. 124. & 125. which are both wanting.

45. Wolforlowe, Stoke-Blees; referring to fol. 128. & 129. both which relate to other Lands.

46. Tedeſterne; referring to fol. 130. 131. both which are wanting.

47. Lodelowe, Ewias, Mounſelowe; referring to fol. 132. 133. & 134. all which are wanting.

48. Stauntone wottone; referring to fol. 139. 140. 141. 142. & 143. all which are either blank, or relate to other Lands.

In the Margin is the following Title & Note, written in a good old hand,

49. Stauntone-Laçye, "the Levys were toren awey. Ther doth remayne but thys Callendour and a Note before."

50. Knyghtone Nortone; referring to fol. 141. which relateth to other Lands.

51. Dynebeghe; referring to fol. 173. 176. 177. 178. & 185. which are included in the number of thoſe wanting from fol. 159. to fol. 226. which perhaps were never bound up in this preſent Cover.

52. Dynas; referring to fol. 185. which is conſequently wanting.

53. Diverſa Domina & Maneria, referring to fol. 188. 189. 190. 191. 192. 193. 194. 197. and 198. which conſequently are all wanting.

It is needleſs to ſpecifie the Names of the antient & noble Families whoſe Hiſtories & Genealogies may be illuſtrated by the help of this Book; ſince Cartularies, as well thoſe of private Families, as thoſe of Monaſteries, Churches, Colleges, and Hoſpitals, afford ſuch ſtore of materials of that kind, as to be conſtantly conſulted by the beſt Antiquaries, upon ſuch occaſions.

Num. 1241—1243.

1241.

An Heraldical Book in fol. thus entituled,

A Copie of the Viſitation of Shropſhire, taken & made by Richard Lee, alias Richmond Herauld, & Marſhall to Robert Cooke (William Hervey) alias Clarenceux Kinge of Armes; taken in the Yeare of our Lord God 1564. Augmented by many Notes and Gatheringes of Lewis Dunne and others, by me Jacob Chaloner of London Gentleman, untill the yeare 1620. Copied by me Thomas Hanford of Wigmore, Anno 1661.

I am apt to believe that the Date of the Viſitation laſt mentioned, may be miſtaken, and that it ſhould be 1584. For Mr. Weever (Fun. Mon. pag. 673.) ſheweth that Mr. Robert Cooke was made Clarenceux A.D. 1566. nor was Richard Lee from Portcullis, created Richmond Herald untill the year 1584. Beſides, Mr. Withie's Book in this Library 81 B. 12. and other good Copies, aſcribe this Viſitation to Richard Lee Portcullis, and affirm that he took the ſame A.D. 1584.

And as that Date of 1564. ſeems not to be right; ſo I ſuſpect that this Mr. Hanford, may not have been the moſt accurate Copyiſt, in ſome other places; not but that the Book being a Painter's Book only, wherein the Seals & other Proofs of the Deſcents are almoſt intirely omitted) may upon divers occaſions prove of good uſe.

Beſides the Deſcents, I find in this Copie,

1. The Atchievement of Vernon of Hadnett. Imperfect. (Theſe Vernons have Supporters by antient uſage.)
2. Arms of Lacon, with Quarterings. Both at the beginning; before the Title.
3. Arms of the Shropſhire Nobility & Gentry. After the Title,

Here are alſo ſome few Church Notes taken at ### 1242.

Codex membranaceus in fol. atq; vetuſta ſatis manu probe ſcriptus; in quo continetur, Henrici de Bractona Liber de Legibus et Conſuetudinibus Angliæ.

1243.

A Book in fol. conſiſting of divers Tracts bound up together; viz.

1. An Account (by way of Journal) of all the Proceedings in the Lords Houſe of Parliament, from the 26th day of November 1696. to the 23 day of January following, with reference to the Attainder of Sr. John Fenwick, Bart. pag. 1.

Herein divers others were collaterally concerned, as Charles Mordaunt then Earl of Monmouth & now Earl of Peterborough was by theLords committed priſoner to the Tower of London; the Reputation of the Duke of Shrewſbury in regard to his Correſpondence with Mr. Matthew Smith (who was my Countrey-man & Schole-fellow, as was alſo Mr. Robert Charnocke) cleared; the Innocence of Capt. George Porter, with relation to the murder of Mr. Norton, juſtified; and the late Ducheſs of Norfolk lett go.

2. The whole Caſe & true Senſe of the Act 16 Car. 1. Cap. 1. for annual Parliaments: as to what concerns the

Num. 1243.

Penal Proviſion made to enforce them, or at leaſt two Parliaments in 3 Years. 216.

3. An inaccurate Exemplification of the Judgement & Sentence paſſed upon the Traitour Andrew de Hercla Earl of Carlile, ann. 18 Edw. II. and of the Kings Writts relating thereunto; tranſcribed from the Record in the Exchequer at Weſtminſter. 229.

4. A Treatiſe concerning Regiſters to be made in the ſeveral Counties of England. Suppoſing that Records and Deeds not regiſtred within Six Months, to be void againſt Purchaſers, and Creditors. Being Reaſons againſt ſuch Regiſters, by the Honourable William Pierpont Eſq. 240.

5. Some Cautions offered to the Conſideration of thoſe who are to chuſe Members to ſerve in the next Parliament. Dated by my Lord Treaſurer, April 24 1694. 257.

6. An Act for the Declaration of Elizabeth Burgh's Children, to be Baſtards; paſſed ann. 34 Hen. VIII. 289.

This Elizabeth, was the wife of Sr. Thomas Burgh then deceaſed, who was ſon & heir apparant to Thomas Lord Burgh, and had brought forth, during the Eſpouſalls, three Children begotten in Adultery.

Then followeth a Collection of divers Papers relating to public Affairs, all written by one hand; before which is prefixed,

7. A Table of the Titles to the ſaid Papers. 295.

They are,

1264.

An oblong Book written & pricked by the hand of Signior Cornelio Galli, who (as I have been told) was a Native of Lucca, and was one of the Gentlemen of the Chapell to Queen Catherine, in the time of King Charles II. Mr. Berenclow told me that he was a very great Maſter of the fineſt manner of Singing, & was one of the firſt that introduced it in England. Whether the Italian Songs in this Book are of his Compoſing as well as of his writing, I cannot certainly remember. They are,

1. Penſoſo, Afflitto, Irreſoluto, e Solo. Cantata. 1.

2. Perche piangere Amanti. Cantata. 7.

3. Anime voi che ſiete dalle Furie d'Abiſſo. Cantata. 11. b.

4. Sileno Idolo mio, dove lungi dá me reſtai mio bene. Cantata. 17. b.

5. Sera alquanto addormentato. Cantata. 24.

6. Nel Giardin della Speranza. Cantata. 34.

7. Dolce Colpo d'un ſguardo Amoroſo. Aria. 38. b.

8. Mai piu Stelle ſpietate Io m'innamorerò. Aria. 40.

9. Biondi Crini mi ſtringeſte con la Fune già fata d'Or. Cantata. 41. b.

10. Voglio Morte, e voglio Vita, bramo lacci e Liberta. Aria. 44. b.

11. Fidarſi d'Irene, mio Cor e Follia. Cantata. 47.

12. Che volete da me vani Penſieri. Cantata. 51. b.

Num. 1264, 1265.

13. Sospiri, o la che fate. Cantata. 58. b.
14. Lungi dal Core Amorosi Pensieri. Cantata. 65.
15. Ch'io manchi mai di Fede, o questo, nò. Cantata. 69.
16. Chi si fida d'Amor, troppo è l'Infelice. Arietta. 74.
17. A Song not finished. 76. b.
18. Happy & free securely blest. An English Song. 78. b.

This last Song is written by the hand of Mr. Berenclow: concerning whom I shall take another opportunity of giving some short Account.

1265.

An oblong musical Book (bought of me, as was the last above-mentioned) wherein are contained some of the Compositions of many excellent Italian Masters; vizt.

1. Ferma, lascia, ch'io parli Sacrilego Ministro. Cantata di Giacomo Carissimi. 1.

This Giacomo Charissimi, was in his time the best Composer of Church Music in all Italy. Most of his Compositions were, with great Labor & Expense, collected by the late learned Dean of Christ-Church, Dr. Henry Aldritch. However, some things of Charissimi I had the luck to light upon, which that great Man could not procure in Italy; of which this Cantata was one. Charissimi living to about 90 years old, composed much, & died very rich, as I have heard.

N.B. The upper Part of this Song is in the G-sol-re-ut Cliffe, and yet written by an Italian Copist; perhaps it might have been written for some Tramontane, who might not have been so well versed in C-sol-fa-ut Cliffe.

2. O' nò, nò, nò, non lo Niego: Cantata del Carlo Ludovici. 13.
3. E che si, ch'io v'abbandono. Arietta del medesimo. 20.
4. Cieco Amor, e cieco Sorte. Arietta di Dominico Gabrielli. 26

This Dominico Gabrielli, as I have heard, is a very good Master in Rome. His Compositions have been but few; but then they are neat & artful.

5. Ste lo già la Notte bruna. Cantata di Mario Marazzolli. 29.
6. A la Rota, à la Benda, al biondo Crine; overo La Fortuna di Luigi Rossi. 37.

This Luigi Rossi, as I have heard, lived long since, even before Clarissimi. It is said he first introduced Dramatical Music on the Stage, & composed the first Opera for it. This Cantata, La Fortuna, is reputed one of his best Cantatas. He died very old, at Venice, as I have been told.

7. Questo picciolo Rio, che con Lingua d'Argento. Cantata di Luigi Rossi. 63.
8. Quando spiega la Notte humida. Cantata del medesimo. 74.
9. Gelosia ch'a poco a poco nel mio Cor serpendo. Canta del medesimo. 79.
10. E puo soffrirti Amore quelche soffrendo stò. Aria del medesimo. 87.
11. E chi non v'ameria Pupilluccie amorose, Aria del medesimo. 91.
12. Giusto cosi và detto, Cantata del medesimo. 95.
13. Quante volte l'hò detto Cor mio non Amar. Aria del medesimo. 105.
14. Già nel oblio profundo il Dì sepolto giace. Cantata del medesimo. 108.
15. Lasciate, ch'io ritorni. Cantata del medesimo 114.
16. Al soave spirar d'aure serene; overò L'Arione. Cantata del medesimo. 125.

Num. 1265, 1266.

17. Erminia sventurata. Cantata del medesimo. 143.
18. Dà perfida Speranza un alma lusingata. overò Il disperato. Catata del medesimo. 153.
19. Sospiri miei di foco. Aria del medesimo. 167.

This is of the hand-writing of Doctor Bernard. Martin Berenclow, father to Mr. Bernard-Martin Berenclow mentioned in the account of N° 1264. I take leave to mention, that this Doctor Berenclow was born in the Dutchy of Hol ein near Toninghen; his mother was a Berchem, a family sufficiently eminent both in the Upper & Nether Germany. He married Katherine one of the daughters of Mr. Laneir, Clerk of the Closet to K. Charles 1. He was Professor of Physic in the University of Padua, & practised with success and reputation in Italy, France, Germany, Holland, Flanders, & England. And notwithstanding his frequent Journeys & Removals, died rich in ready Money, Jewels, Plate, Pictures, Drawings, &c. of great price & curiosity; which his Widow notwithstanding (by true pains-taking) made a shift to overcome, and utterly squander away, in about five years time after his decease.

20. Voglio Amar chi mi disprezza. Arietta del Sigr. Alessandro Scarlatti.

This Alessandro Scarlatti is a Neapolitan by birth; and by long practice is as ready a Composer as any other man. His Reputation is very great, among ours & other Nations, as well as in Italy his native Country. I have seen many of his Works; (to say the truth more trivial Things of him, & Bernardo Pasquini, than of any other Italian Masters.

21. La Gioia verace favella nel Cor. Aria del medesimo. 173.
22. Stanco di pianger più volti dormire un poco. Cantata di Tomaso Titij. 175.
23. Non fuggir quando mi vedi. Cantata di Carlo Manelli, ditto Del Violino. 187.
24. Hor' ch' hò sentito un si. Cantata del medesimo. 193.
25. Poiche fissate il guardo entro il Fulgor d'Adamantino. Cantata del medesimo. 201.
26. Voglio amarti si mio Bene senza tema di penar. Cantata di Giovanni Battista Vulpio. 219.
27. Chi credete che sia. Cantata del medesimo. 225.
28. Nel mirarvi Pupille vezzose, dolce piaga mi sento nel Cor. Aria del medesimo. 233.
29. Son Disperato, abbandonato, Amante. Duetta di Giovanni Francesco Tenaglia. 237.
30. Lo dissi per Gioco. Arrietta di Alessandro Scarlatti. 243.
31. Ch'io lasci d'Amar non e possibil. Arietta di Henry Firmin Gentilhuomo Inglese, fatta in Roma. 245.
32. Non e emante quel Core. Arietta di Pietro Simone Agostini, fatta in Venetia. 247.

This modern Master must be distinguished from one of that Name of more antiquity & reputation.

33. La mia Vaga, la mia Bella, stimo piu di tutto il mondo. Arietta del medesimo. 249.
34. Chi bella non hà, che leghi il suo Cor. Arietta del medesimo, 251.
35. Se nel ben sempre incostante Fortuna vagante di farsi Stabile. Arietta di Alessandro Stradella. (fatta in Genoa.) 253.

Of this great Master, I shall take another occasion of giving some short account. But although I find this Arriet attributed to him, I cannot positively assert it to be of his composure.

20. So che mi piace, mà ch'io ci pensi è vanità. 27. b.
21. Se t'ama filli ò Cor tu sei felice. del Sigr. Alessandro Stradella. 28. b.

This Alessandro Stradella was, as I think, a Venetian, and was in his time one of the greatest Masters in Music that Italy had ever bred, with respect either to the Church, Stage, or Chamber. He excelled not only in Composition, but in an extraordinary hand, so as to be accounted the best Organist in Italy. He was a comely Person, and of an amorous nature. And finding a Baroness who was admired by the Heir of the Family of Cornaro (or Colonna, I remember not exactly which) to be a most beautiful personage, witty, airy, Mistress of an admirable Voice, and a professed Lover of Music, he instructed her therein, and she was so far improved by him, as to sing the best of any Woman in Italy. He undermined her other Adorer, and rendered himself so agreeable to her, as that at last she consented to run away with him to Genoa, where (soon after his coming) he was shot in the back by his revengeful Rival. The Baroness (or Countess) was afterwards sent for to France by the present French King, & has been heard to sing both in Italy & France by Mr. Berenclow, who said she was a perfect Mistress of the best manner, for which, with her, he only admired Cornelio Galli, and the two Eunuchs Tosi

Tosti & Sifaccio. When Mr. Henry Purcel (who had only seen two or three of his Compositions) heard that Stradella was assassinated, & upon what account, he lamented him exceedingly; nay, so far as to declare, that he could have forgiven him any Injury in that kind; which those who remember how lovingly Mr. Purcel lived with his Wife (or rather what a loving Wife she proved to him) may understand without farther explication.

22. Deh svelgliatevi Occhi belli al fragor di miei Lamenti. Cantata. 29. b.

22. De Demoniaco qui dixit Hominibus, omnia que fecerint. ibid.

23. Narracio Bona et Utilis, de duabus mulieribus Parisiensibus. 55. b.

24. Narracio Mirabilis de sentencia Excommunicacionis Beati Augustini Anglorum Apostoli; et qualiter resuscitavit duos Mortuos. 56.

It begins thus, "Est Vicus in Pago Oxenfordensi, sex Militarijs distans a loco qui dicitur Wodestoke, Cometona Nomine, &c."

I should have lett this Legendary Tale have gone, in the herd, among the rest, without any Remark, had not Sir William Dugdale hooked it into his Antiquities of Warwickshire, at pag. 445. first to prove the Antiquity of the Church of Long-Compton; & secondly that the Payment of Tithes is very antient; upon which latter account, I have heard it often cited, by divers Clergymen. Sr. William's Author is Johannes Anglicus, who was Vicar of Tinmouth, and flourished about A.D.

Num. 1288.

1366, as Arch-biſhop Uſher has written at the beginning of the Cottonian Copie of the ſame Work (viz. TIBERIVS. E. 1.) wherein the ſtory is told, conformably to what he putts down; excepting that it is uſhered in with theſe words, (at fol. 156. col. 2.) "Inveni ſiquidem a Patribus antiquis, nonnullis in locis ſcriptum, quod in Comitatu Oxonie, in Villa nomine Cometon. veniente B. Auguſtino ad predicandum, &c." And the ſame ſtory is alſo tranſcribed by John Capgrave, though neither of them do declare who theſe Antiqui Patres were. Upon this occaſion I have looked upon ſome antient Hiſtorians, Annaliſts, & other Writers, as well unpubliſhed, as printed, among whom I could find no footſtep of any ſuch Story except in what follow. In a Life of this St. Auguſtine (written ſince the time of Joannes Anglicus; for the older Copies want it) viz. NERO. c. 7. The Tale is extant, as in John of Tinmouth, but the Village is called CEMETON. In that noble Copie of the Works of Gotſcelinus de Sto. Bertino, who was a Monk of St. Auguſtin's Abbey near Canterbury in the time of St. Anſelm, and who undertook to write the Life of St. Auguſtine at large, and to ſet forth his Miracles done as well during his Life, as after his death, as alſo about & upon his Tranſlation: which is extant in this Library, & marked 35. A. 6. there is nothing of it in the firſt hand; but in a hand no older than the time of Joannes Anglicus aforeſaid, in ſome vacant or blank Parchment at fol. 60. b. &c. the ſtory may be found, with ſome interpolated Additions, from John abovementioned and in the expreſſions of this preſent MS. 68. B. 15. In the Cottonian Copie of Gotſcelinus VESPASIANUS. B. 20. which actually belonged to St. Auguſtine's Abbey, is ſomewhat more antient than my Lord's Copie, and was (as appears) particularly uſed, & read in, upon the Feſtival of St. Auguſtine's day, there is nothing of it in the old hand. But at fol. 85. b. "Explicit Liber Miraculorum Sancti Auguſtini Anglorum Apoſtoli." Over againſt which, in a hand of John of Tinmouth's time, is this Note or Direction, "Item legatur Miraculum de duobus mortuis reſuſcitatis per B. Auguſtinum; quere in fine hujus Libri quod ſic incipit, Eſt Vicus in Pago;" and accordingly at fol. 286. upon vacant parchment, in the ſame modern hand with that of my Lord's Copie at fol. 60. b. of the book N° 105. and with the ſame Interpolations, the improved Story may be read, excepting where the Parchment is deſtroyed by much thumbing & moiſture. I forgot to mention, that it is alſo printed among the Decem Scriptores, in that Chronicle erroneouſly called Hiſtoria Jorevallenſis, and as erroneouſly aſcribed to John Brompton the Abbat of that Houſe. That Chronicle coming down no farther than the reign of K. Richard 1. ſeems to be but the firſt part of the Work, whereas it is plain by the latter end of the Preface, that the Author deſigned to continue the ſame to the reign of K. Edward the firſt. And by the Phraſe Poſt Conqueſtum, it is as plain that he lived in the time of King Edward the third, or later. Thus it ſeemeth to me, that this Tale was not known to the Monks of St. Auſtin's own Abbey til the time of John of Tinmouth at leaſt; and it might make one wonder why ſo grave a man as Sir William Dugdale, ſhould endeavour to prove matter of fact ſo very long ago, and in an affair of ſuch conſequence as payment of Tithes to the Clergy, from ſuch a Story, and ſo late an Authority. The like ſucceſs he hath had in the Story of Guy of Warwick; which I now paſs over, as thinking this not a place proper for entring into that matter.

1. In what Caſes the King's Courte of Common-Pleas may graunte Prohibitions, by Lawe, & many Preſidents of former Tymes; and in what, not. 1.

This is the Anſwer, at large, of the Judges, to the Objections of the Arch-Bp. of Canterbury & the High Commiſſioners to be mentioned anon.

2. A Breviate of the Chiefe Proofes ſelected, touchinge the Modus decimandi. 46.

3. An Aunſweare to the Cheefe Points ſelected, touchinge the Modus decimandi; wherein the Queſtion is, whether uppon a Suite in the Spirituall Court for Tythes in Specie, and a Preſcription or Cuſtome, de modo decimandi pleaded, a Prohibition may be brought in the Temporall Courts; or whether the Spirituall Court may trye that Iſſue, & ſoe Sentence the entire Cauſe. 57.

4. The Argument, è contra, for the Arch-biſhop of Canterbury; that the Kinge hath power in his owne perſon, to heare & determine all kinds of Cauſes, when yt ſhall ſoe pleaſe his Majeſtie, as appeareth by theſe Reaſons, &c. 93.

5. That the Kinge hath Authority to rectifie both his Juriſdictions; and to reforme the Abuſe of Prohibitions. 95. b.

6. That the Court of Common Pleas ought not to award any Prohibition; eſpecially upon a Suggeſtion only. 97. b.

7. That all Cuſtomes concerninge Eccleſiaſticall Lawes, are of Eccleſiaſticall Cognizance; as well as Cuſtomes Temporall, of Temporall Cognizance. 98. b.

8. The Cuſtomes of Tythinge are of Eccleſiaſticall Cognizance, and ought to be tryed in the Eccleſiaſticall Courts. 101.

9. That no Prohibition ought to be graunted, becauſe the trebble Vallewe of Tythes is ſued for in the Eccleſiaſticall Courts. 104. b.

10. That noe Prohibition ought to be awarded after Prœdial Tythes are ſett forth: they being preſently carried away by the Houſehold before the Parſon can have actual poſſeſſion of them. 105. b.

11. That noe Prohibition ought to be graunted uppon any Incident Plea, in any Eccleſiaſtical Court. 106. b.

12. That noe Prohibition ought to be awarded to his Majeſties Commiſſioners for Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall, upon this Suggeſtion, vizt. that his Majeſties ſayd Commiſſioners have noe Authority to deale in any Caſes Eccleſiaſticall, which may be ordered and puniſhed by the Ordinaries of thoſe Dioceſſes where they are committed. 107. b.

13. That noe Prohibition ought to be graunted to his Majeſties Commiſſioners for Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall uppon this Ground, vizt. That noe man may be called before them for any Cauſe Eccleſiaſticall whatſoever, out of the Dioceſſe where he dwells. 109.

14. That noe Prohibition ought to bee graunted to his Majeſties Commiſſioners Eccleſiaſticall, upon this Suggeſtion,

Num. 1299, 1300.

Suggeſtion, vizt. That his Majeſties ſayd Commiſſioners have onely Authoritie to deale in ſuch or ſuch Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall or Criminall. 110.

15. That noe Prohibition ought to be graunted uppon a new deviſed Suggeſtion, That the King's Commiſſioners in Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall are not to meddle with any Offenſes in Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall which are not enormous. 112.

16. That noe Prohibition ought to be graunted to his Majeſties Commiſſioners for Cauſes Eccleſiaſticall, upon theſe Suggeſtions: vizt. Nullus Liber Homo capiatur vel impriſonetur niſi per legale Judicium Parium ſuorum Mag. Cart. Cap. 29. And again, Si Prælatus imponet pœnam pecuniariam, et repetat illam, Regia Prohibitio locum habet. Art. Cler. Cap. 2. 114. b.

17. That noe Prohibition ought to be graunted upon a new deviſed Suggeſtion, vizt. becauſe many matters of Eccleſiaſticall Cognizance are named in divers Statutes, where the Temporal Judges are to expound them; and in that reſpect may lawfully take to themſelves the Cognizance of the ſame. 116. b.

18. A Conference by the Kinges eſpetiall Appointment, held before the Lords of the Councell, touchinge Prohibitions, on the 23d of May 1611, where were preſent both of the Cheife High-Commiſſioners, and all the Judges of the Realme. 120.
